

Ringing Again!

"Just a minute—I'll look it up," and then the person to whom you are talking over the telephone goes away while you wait and wait and wait.

Impatiently you say to the operator "Ring them again, central."

But central can't ring them again—their receiver is off the hook and the bell doesn't sound.

A good practice when, during a telephone talk something has to be looked up, is to say "I'll look it up and call you later." This releases both lines to others who may call, and saves everyone's time.

RETURNED SOLDIERS AT TORONTO ROUND UP SCORE OF ALIENS

No Damage Done in Raid on Russell Motor Company.

FIFTY VETERANS IN LINE

Manager Promises to Employ Returned Soldiers in Future.

TORONTO, April 13.—Following last night's invasion of city restaurants by soldiers to round up alien enemy employees, a raid by returned soldiers on the plant of the Russell Motor Company, corner of King and Puffer streets, was carried out tonight, with the result that about a score of alien enemy workers were taken from the works. No damage was done. About half a hundred veterans took part in the raid. The raid was organized by Lance-Corporal Charles O'Brien, who fought in Flanders with the 21st (Toronto) Battalion, and was wounded at the Somme. He told H. D. Scully, manager of the plant, that when he applied for work there a few days ago, he was told by a foreigner at the gate to "get to hell out of here." His statement was backed up by two other soldiers and Col. H. C. Osborne, assistant adjutant-general at the camp, who, with members of his staff had arrived on the scene. The returned soldiers would have given assurance that returned soldiers would have the preference. Mr. Scully said he would write a letter to this effect tomorrow.

They were cheered. Corp. O'Brien and the colonel were hoisted, shoulder-high and loudly cheered, and a large crowd on Dufferin street added their voices. Several city police, a squad of military police and a platoon of the Irish Fusiliers were sent unarmored to quell any disorder, and a number of alien enemy workers were taken from the works. The employees of the factory were assured that if they possessed registration papers they would not be molested.

Manager Scully denied a statement by one of the foremen that there were over 100 alien enemy employees. He stated that only three per cent of the 3,000 employees were foreigners and that if the returned soldiers had taken down from Kapskasing internment camp by government officers.

MANY MEN OF BATTERY TO ATTEND MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR COLONEL

Headquarters Staff and Units in Training Will Be Represented.

A memorial service for Lieut.-Colonel Leonard will be held in the morning at the Memorial Church on Sunday. Rev. W. W. Norwood, the rector, will preach a special sermon for the occasion, and will refer to the splendid action of Col. Leonard who was a member of the church. The headquarters staff under Col. L. W. Shannon will attend in a body. Other military units will be represented. Capt. Herbert Soar, M. C., the only officer in the 12th Battery now in Canada, will come for the service.

Sergeant-Navigator John A. Barnhill has received a large number of requests from returned soldiers in London and other parts of the country to attend the service. It is expected that about 50 of these veterans will be present. A special mention will be reserved for them.

WINNIPEG FLOUR UP. Winnipeg, Man., April 14.—The advance in wheat during the last two days has forced the millers here to raise the price of flour 40 cents. The top patents are now selling at $10.50 per barrel, the highest price since the beginning of the war.

CAMP READY TO HOLD THOUSANDS DURING SUMMER

Engineers Can Have Heights in Shape in One Week.

DEFENCE FORCE COMING

Various Units Will Receive Training Here, Says Credible Reports.

Preparations are going on at the mobilization camp at Carling Heights for the quartering there this summer of from 4,000 to 5,000 men. Contracts for the necessary supplies are being called for, and with the exception of some few plumbing arrangements the whole equipment required for the camp is ready. It is expected that the units of the Canadian defence force will receive their training there this summer, although no official confirmation of this has been received as yet.

"We could be ready for 4,000 men in a week's time," said Capt. Canfield, of the 7th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, to the advertiser today, in reply to a question as to how long it would require to prepare the camp. The accommodation of the units which might be sent here this summer.

A frame building about 40 feet in length is being constructed by the engineers at Carling Heights, and will when completed be used as a store for supplies. The present store room has become insufficient, and more room is required in which to store plumbing supplies and similar materials.

Recruits are still coming at a good rate for overseas service, with the Canadian Engineers. Among the latest to sign up are: Albert L. Smith, James Sands, Arthur J. Jenkins, Geo. W. Halliday, James H. Stevenson, Robert Donnelly and Arthur J. Buih, Windsor, and Joseph Newman, Clifford J. Nixon and Charles H. Miller, of London.
