

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

An Appeal

Editor World: In view of the probable distress in the city this winter, and believing to help themselves, the Local Council of Women of Toronto, with the hearty co-operation of the Greekes and the other organizations of the kind, have decided to open a bureau for women workers.

It was the experience of many of those who were actively engaged in charitable work last winter that while there were hundreds of women in the city who needed work of various kinds, yet, on the other hand, housekeepers and other employers often found it very difficult to get efficient workers when they needed them, and the opening of this bureau is an effort to bring together the workers and the employers.

The use of a room in the city hall has been kindly granted, and an efficient secretary has been engaged, who, with a member of the committee, will be in the bureau all day.

It has been estimated that the sum of $200 will be required in order to carry on this work for the next few months, and for this money the Local Council of Women now confidently appeal to the public, believing that they may rely on the practical support of the citizens in this undertaking.

Contributions may be sent to Mrs. F. H. Torrington, president, 12 Pennick-street, or to Mrs. H. N. Loeser, 125 Balmora-avenue, or to Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, 44 Devon-street, and these will be acknowledged in the newspapers.

The bureau is intended for women workers of all classes, and it is hoped that when it is in running order it will prove of benefit alike to the housekeeper who needs temporary help of various kinds, to the heads of offices who need stenographers, and other assistants—in fact to employers generally, as well as to the army of skilled and unskilled women workers, who often do not know where to apply for the work they need.

Trusting, therefore, for a generous response to this appeal,

Emily Cummings,
Convenor of the Bureau Committee
(pro tem.)

Toronto World's Beauty Patterns

A Pretty Dress for a Little Girl.

No. 5967. The long-waisted French dresses are very popular this season, and are always becoming. A pretty feature of this one is the circular bertha with scalloped edges that falls gracefully over the full sleeves. A body portion is mounted on a fitted lining, and the pattern provides for either high or square cut neck. White linen is represented in the illustration. A simple design in hand embroidery or medallions may be used in the decoration of the bertha. Lawn, dimity, organdy, China silk and challis are all appropriate for the making. For a girl of 5 years, 2 1/4 yards of 36-inch material will be required.

Girls' French Dress, No. 5967. Sizes for 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 years.

A pattern of the accompanying illustration will be mailed to any address on receipt of ten cents in silver.

Tercentenary Hospital Bed.

The National Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire has established a bed in the Jeffrey Hale Hospital, Quebec, to commemorate the tercentenary of Quebec. The bed, which is for the use of any newly-arrived immigrant who may be brought to this institution, is in the women's ward, and bears the following inscription:

"Samuel de Champlain, 1608. Supported by the National Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, in commemoration of the founding of Quebec, 1608."

Y.W.C.C. "Gym."

Mrs. Robert Harvie with a suitably inscribed silver trowel, and to the still echoes of the guld yell, laid the foundation stone of the new Young Women's Christian Guild Gymnasium, on Saturday afternoon. The building is in the rear of the guld headquarters on McGill-street, and the site was recently purchased for $200, $1500 of which was subscribed by the girls. The "Tag Day" effort supplied other requirements.

R. A. Donald presided over the proceedings, which were brief and simple in conformity with the November weather. They had been subjected, he said, to a great deal of criticism in connection with "tag day." While some remarks were not without foundation, he believed he could answer most of the arguments. Girls needed athletic exercise just as much as boys, and he demanded as good as could be afforded for them. Thousands of girls were forced to work without recreation, and could not get it except by some such co-operative effort as this place where they could come and be looked after by the great good sense of the community.

Miss Fraser, president of the guld, read an address describing the work done by Mrs. Harvie. With S. H. Blake and other sympathetic friends she began the guld work in a room in Shaftesbury Hall 20 years ago. The membership grew to 60 and J. Ross Robertson gave assistance to get two rooms on Yonge-street. Later the McGill-street premises were built. The late William Gooderham had aided greatly in this work. They owed Mrs.

Harvie a debt they could never repay. The not now actively engaged she was a member of the advisory board. Miss Fraser also gave details of the class and department work, mentioning Mrs. Somers in the general nursing work, and Miss Mitchell, general secretary.

Mrs. Harvie then laid the stone and Rev. Dr. Perry offered prayer. He asked for the richest blessing to attend the larger effort to administer to the physical as well as the spiritual well-being of the young women.

A group of young men in the adjoining Y.M.C.A. gymnasium window kept up a disturbance during the ceremony and previously, which was most unseemly. One youth in a red jersey appeared to be the ringleader, and F. M. Bell Smith, with a grandfather's interest in the rising female generation, congratulated the guld. A sound body was necessary for a sound mind and sound minds were needed to train children for the future.

Dr. Kennedy said the guld work in religious, social and educational and now in physical ways was working out a problem in a way beyond value, resembling the corner stone, level, square and true in every part.

Prof. Kilpatrick, Knox College, congratulated the conduct of the registrar of St. Andrew's, who recently refused to allow women students to vote in the electoral election on the ground that they were not persons in the eyes of the law. He hoped ultimately women
