WILL BE GOOD DELEGATES. RESCUE STATIONS FOR AT SESSIONS OF I.O.O.F. MINE DISASTER VICTIMS

Fifty-Sixth Convention Opens To-day—Grand Master's Good Send-Off. U. S. Government to Establish Three For Quick Response in Time of Emergency.

At 9 o'clock this morning the Independent Order of Oddfellows will throw into full swing the four days' session of their 56th annual convention. About 600 delegates are expected from the various cantons throughout the province, along with the fraternal visitors from six or eight other companies. Cantons Toronto No. 7 and Queen City No. 10 of Toronto will parade at the King Edward Hotel at 9 a.m., under command of Major George C. Mortimer, and will escort the grand patriarch and officers of the Grand Encampment to Central Hall, I.O.O.F. Building, corner College and Yonge-streets. Here civic and other addresses of welcome will be delivered, after which a business session of the convention will follow. In the evening the Rebekah degree will be conferred by several of the Rebekah lodges, followed by a banquet in the Albert-street hall.

Among the veterans who arrived yesterday to take part in the proceedings were: Grand Master, J. B. Reid, from Brockville; Dr. Campbell, past grand sire, from London; R. K. Cowan, grand lodge solicitor, from London; Henry White, past grand master, Port Hope.

Honored Grand Master. Senator Dan Derbyshire, who is grand master of the I.O.O.F. Grand Lodge of Ontario, upon his arrival at the hotel, visited to St. Lawrence and Brock lodges of Brockville, before the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge in Toronto, was made a recipient of a silver-mounted gavel, suitably inscribed. The gift came direct from St. Lawrence, his own subordinate lodge, and the presentation was made by John B. Reid of Ottawa, P.G.M. Senator Derbyshire makes the sixth grand master selected from the Brockville ranks. During his term of office he has made wonderful progress through the entire jurisdiction.

AN OFFICIAL REPORT. Director of Experimental Farms Finds Yield Varying. OTTAWA, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—The following telegram has been received at the department of agriculture from Dr. Wm. Saunders, director of the experimental farms.

"Calgary, Alta., Aug. 6, 1910, from Regina to Saskatoon crop very variable. About Regina about first twenty miles north there are many good fields, further north the larger part of the grain is dead, and has suffered much from drought, and the yield is very light. From Saskatoon to Rosethorn many fields are promising. West of Saskatoon on the Grand Trunk Pacific, there is not much grain, the grain fields vary much. Some are good, but the larger part have short straw, and promise light yields. From north-western Alberta, the yield is much better. Many good fields about Edmonton and south to Lacombe. At experimental farm, Lacombe, saw some of the heaviest yields met with anywhere. From Lacombe to Calgary, yields variable, many good, others lighter, becoming very light near Calgary."

TRICKS OF HANDCUFF KING. By Victor Alexander. Now, in the first place it must be remembered that handcuffs with spring locks, which are fastened or released by means of a key, are not the same as the ordinary handcuffs which pull back the spring.

Without the aid of such an appliance, it is, I can say without fear of contradiction, absolutely impossible for a human being to get out of handcuffs by the ordinary handtricks employed by the police. The most embarrassing contingency I found myself obliged to solve was how to get out of these handcuffs when I was at them in whatever position I happened to be handcuffed. The favorite plan of the police is to handcuff a prisoner with the handcuffs in such a position that the prisoner is unable to get out of them in whatever position he is handcuffed. This is the way I have had to work it. First I must explain that when I undergo a trial in the court, I am handcuffed to the wall in a vast majority of cases, and I am in the hands of the police, and I am able to get out of them in whatever position I happen to be handcuffed. I have had to work it in a vast majority of cases, and I am in the hands of the police, and I am able to get out of them in whatever position I happen to be handcuffed.

I.O.O.F. VISITORS. A Suit of Real Woolen Fabric 'Frae Land o' the Heather

You must acknowledge that there is no better cloth made in all the world than that which comes from the old looms of Scotland. It is always stylish in pattern, and being made of all wool it stands as an ideal suit for winter or fall weather—the lighter weight fabrics are splendid for summer wear. The cloth we sell comes direct to you from the mills of Scotland and first sees the light of this Canadian sun at our shrinkers.

MADE TO ORDER SUIT OR OVERCOAT. NO MORE $15 NO LESS.

Visitors should remember that cloth similar to this is not obtainable in the United States, because of the prohibitive tariff on imported woolen goods. We deal direct between the mills in Scotland and the wearer of the clothes. By this process all intermediate profits are cut out.

If you put your order in to-day we will deliver the clothes any time beyond and including Wednesday evening. We claim that our clothes cannot be duplicated in Canada for twice the price.

How Accidents Happen. The bureau hopes to show the publicity why mine disasters occur, and to point out the facts clearly in any case where it appears that the lives of men have been sacrificed to the greed of mine operators.

In the statistics for 1906, which is the latest year for which complete figures are obtainable, the causes of coal mine accidents are given as follows: Falling of roofs and coal killed 1008 men and injured 215. Gas and dust explosions killed 228 men and injured 207. Powder explosions killed 80 men and injured 215.

It is asserted by bureau officials that the falling of mine roofs was prevented or certainly greatly decreased as the case in other countries—by regulations preventing the use of excessive charges of explosives, and by requiring adequate supports. The percentage of men killed from this cause in the United States per 1000 employed is 1.70. In France it is .32; in Great Britain .64; in Prance .42; and in Belgium, noted the world over for the
