TORONTO ENJOYED AN DEAL HOLIDAY

Solendid Weather Attracted Thousands to Places of Amusement.

PARKS WERE FILLED

carboro Beach, Hanlan's Point and Woodbine Report Record Crowds.

A brilliant sun shining from a cloudless sky, with the temperature of the air like that of a midsummer afternoon, made ideal weather conditions for the holiday yesterday. Victoria Day, in honor of the late Queen Victoria, was observed in Toronto as a public holiday, and the day was given over to recreation and pleasure. The perfect weather coming after a long period of rain and cold made the day especially enjoyable, and all who could spent the day out of doors. All nature seemed to call and Toronto's ditzens responded nobly.

The various breathing places of the cky were througed from early morning. Thousands visited High Park and spent the day among the trees and flowers of that beautiful spot. Everyone carried a lunch basket and picule parties were numerous. Queen's Park attracted many, and the beautiful tulip beds, which are at their best, aroused the admiration of all. Hanlar's Point, and Scarboro Beach were each crowded with eager sightseers, while those keen on speculation, and there were thousands, found their way to Woodbine Park. Others who possessed cars left the city and passed way to Woodbine Park. Others who possessed cars left the city and passed the day amid rural scenes.

A refreshing breeze blew off the water and enticed many from the hot-city streets. All boats were crowded. The Canadian Steamship Lines re-ported the heaviest passenger traffic for Victoria Day ever experienced. Hundreds spent the day at Niagara-Monthe-Lake, Queenston and Buffalo. However, officials at the Union Station stated that the number of No. 70 Yonge Street engaged in celebrating, much to the annoyance of the neighbors, who were thus rudely interrupted in their slumbers. The industrious citizen did not engage in frivolities, but used the occasion to plant his garden.

In the afternoon the police patrol boat, under Captain Chapman, was called to Hanlan's Point. A returned soldier had collapsed and was taken across and was transferred to a hospital.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

AT THE ALEXANDRA NEXT WEEK

Edward H. Robins has secured for presentation at the Alexandra Theatre, next week, another first release for stock, "Inside the Lines," the sensational war play which registered such a smphatic success at the Longacre Theatre, New York, from the first of this year to the end of the theatrical season, "inside the Lines," by Earl Biggars, is a drama of adventure, romance, intrigue, secret agents, etc. The action takes place at the rock of Gibraltar, the most famous fortress in the world, and deals with spies, secret plans and American tourists who are supplied with letters of credit on which it is impossible to obtain money. Altho a story of stern war, not a single shot is fired, no mines are sprung and no drop of blood is shed. The proceeds of the opening night will be given for the benefit of the 201st O.S. Battalion, C.E.F. The regular matiness will be given on Wednesday and Seature of the procedule.

The Moral of it is that a married woman who, however innocently, accepts financial assistance from a man who is not her husband, is liable to find herself on the edge of an awkward precipice, and very convincingly is the moral driven home. The woman who accepts the dollars acted more from want of the thought than from want of the heart, but she brings heaps of trouble on herself and others, notwithstanding. The play is admirably constructed and tensely interesting thruout. Edward H. Robins has secured for Battalion, C.E.F. The regular matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday, the Wednesday matinee being

CONSTRUCTION UNIT COMING

No. 1 Construction Battalion is rapidly filling up from the various recruiting centres. The feature about this battalion that seems to be popular is the fact that it is to proceed overseas immediately it is up to strength. Lieut.-Col. Ripley has returned from a tour of the eastern portion of Ontario, and reports good progress, many men from the construction centres coming in to enlist and "do their bit" at their own job.

The headquarters, at 189 Queen street west, Toronto, has received a number of applications from Western Ontario railroad men who will shortly join the Toronto company.
