Annual Meetings.—The Board held its Fourth Annual Meeting in St. Paul's Church Sunday School House, Portland, on Tuesday evening, July 2nd, under the presidency of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, when Addresses were delivered by the Reverends Canon Medley, E. S. Pentreath, N. M. Hansen, and Mr. H. P. Petersen, lay delegate from New Denmark.

Parochial Missionary Meetings.—During the week of Intercession for Missions (December 2-7), eight Parochial Missionary Meetings were held in connection with the Board in St. John, Carleton, and Portland. On the last day of Intercession, May 20th, a United Service was held in St. John's Church, St. John, when an appeal was made on behalf of the Diocese of Algoma. On the Ascension Day the Annual Service for the Church Sunday School Children of St. John, Carleton and Portland was held in St. Paul's Church, and the Collection was set apart for the Indian Homes for Children at Sault Ste. Marie.

Fourth Annual Report.—Five Hundred copies of the Fourth Report of the Board were printed and circulated throughout the Diocese, and the information thus afforded has not been fruitless. The Collections during the present year are in advance of those reported in 1878, and the Board records this steady increase with satisfaction.
