LATE LOCALS

A new electric car is being laid on Winter street near St. Paul's (Valley) church.

Francis & Vaughan advertise in their space very interesting bargains in women's low shoes.

Why not have your eyes tested before it is too late? Call at D. Boyaner, optician, 38 Dock street.

Furness steamship Evangeline, Captain Hecley, sailed this morning for Liverpool, via Halifax, with a general cargo.

The Liverpool, N. S., barkentine Milton, Captain R. H. McLeod, cleared today for Annapolis, N. S., to load lumber for the south.

The new north end branch building of the Bank of Nova Scotia is being pushed to completion, and work on the superstructure is fairly under way.

Schooner Katie E. Ludlam arrived in the Beacon eddy last night from the bay, bound outward for a United States port with a cargo of lumber.

St. David's Beaser Corps will meet in the school room of the church tomorrow evening at 7.30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend, as business concerning the church parade on July 22nd will be transacted.

The most sensational prices in clothing and furnishing will be seen at the Union Clothing Co., 26-28 Charlotte street, at their great mid-summer sale. Prices that will surprise everybody. Get there early and get your choice. You cannot run away from their most sensational prices.

Macaulay Bros. & Co. offer, tomorrow morning, several thousand yards of damaged real Scotch gingham and fancy dress muslins. It will be seen by reference to their advertisement that unusual bargains will be found in this sale, such as will pay buyers to buy for this and next season's wants. It will be to the advantage of all to get to this great sale of damaged goods promptly.

ANOTHER BIG HIT

Herrmann Entertained Large Audience in Opera House Last Night.

Herrmann, the magician, delighted a large audience at the Opera House last night by his clever sleight-of-hand tricks. His marvelous manipulation in the variety of his feats presented called forth enthusiastic applause.

St. John's in her mind today excited the wonderment of all her skill far surpassing anything of that nature ever before seen here.

All who have not seen this great wonder worker should not miss the opportunity afforded them during this week, as an evening spent at one of these entertainments amply repays one.

St. John will leave the Opera House at 11 a. m. sharp tomorrow Thursday and will drive blind-folded through the streets of St. John in search of an article previously hidden by a committee of well-known citizens. There will be a special St. John matinee on Thursday 2.15 p. m. for ladies only. No gentlemen to be admitted on this occasion.

PERSONALS

Miss May Holland, of South Boston, is visiting Miss B. Collins, of Pleasant Point.
Rev. R. Oswald Morse of Gloucester, who was in the city yesterday, has rejoined home.
Miss J. Gillespie left last evening for Toronto.

Dr. J. H. Prink went to Bangor last evening.
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tapley, of Marysville (N. B.), are visiting the city. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dowling, 114 Douglas avenue.

Miss Nora O'Brien, who has been starting in "The Heir to the Throne," is in Fredericton to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Fitz Randolph.

Dr. Van B. Thorne and wife arrived here yesterday on the Calvin Austin, and today will go to Havelock to visit Dr. Thorne's father, Dr. B. S. Thorne. Dr. Thorne is a member of the New York Times' staff, and is one of the New Brunswickers who are doing admirable work in the New York newspaper field. He is beginning a well-earned vacation. He is a graduate of the U. N. B., which, by the way, has contributed several successful newspaper men to the New York field.

Miss Harriett DeWitt, of Boston, and her friends, Miss Middleton and Miss Crockett, are visiting Mrs. Chipman at Ketepec.

LADIES NIGHT AT THE RINK
Ladies' night at the St. Andrew's roller rink drew a large crowd of the fair sex, and their graceful friends, and for two hours the City Cornet Band played an excellent programme of music. Nearly four hundred skaters were on the floor, and a large number of spectators enjoyed themselves looking at the rink skating.

The patrons of the rink quickly learn to glide over the smooth surface, and when the band is playing the enjoyment of roller skating is great.

WEDDINGS

Settle-Edgcombe

A very pretty wedding takes place this afternoon in Centenary church when Miss Hester Louise Edgcombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Edgcombe of this city will be united in marriage to John G. Settle, formerly of Fredericton, but now located in Montreal.
Rev. G. M. Campbell will perform the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties. Miss Dorothy Edgcombe, sister of the bride, will act as bridesmaid, and John Neil, of Fredericton will support the groom. The bride will be given away by her father. She will be married in a travelling suit of green chiffon broadcloth, with hat to match, and will carry a bridal bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid will be gowned in green crepe silk with a white picture hat and will carry a bouquet of ferns. Following the ceremony the newly married couple will leave on the Montreal train for a tour through upper Canada, including a trip up the Saguenay river. They will then return to St. John and in September they will go to Montreal where they will reside.

Among the guests from outside the city who are here to attend the wedding, are: Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, Miss Bona Johnson, Miss Hazel Edgcombe, Miss Jean Neil and Mrs. James Neil of Fredericton.

Hastie-Sinclair

A quiet, but very pretty home wedding takes place at the residence of Arthur E. Henderson, 80 Orange street, at five o'clock this evening, when Miss Edith Sinclair, youngest daughter of Mr. William Sinclair, and sister of Mrs. Henderson, will be married to John Hastie, a native of Gordon, New Brunswick, Scotland, and instructor for the Cavalry at Cavalry and Boiler Insurance Co., of Toronto.

The ceremony, which will be witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties, will be performed by Rev. Donald Macrae, D. D. The only attendants will be the bride's niece, Miss Alice Henderson, who will act as flower girl, and Master Harold Fowler. The bride's costume is of cream velvet, over accordion-pleated silk chiffon and trimmings of green velvet.

A dainty luncheon will be served after the ceremony and the newly wedded couple will leave by the seven o'clock train for a trip through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. In about four weeks they will return to St. John and take up their residence at 100 Mecklenburg street.

The bride has been the recipient of numerous costly and beautiful gifts, many having come from "Bonnie Scotland," Toronto, Montreal, Halifax, New York, Boston and a goodly number from St. John.

McInerney-Murphy

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at 10 o'clock in the Cathedral, when Rev. A. McInerney united in marriage Miss Edith Murphy, daughter of Edward Murphy, and Frederick J. McInerney.

The bride looked handsome in a white silk dress, with hat to match, while she carried a gorgeous bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Murphy, sister of the bride, looked very pretty gowned in grey silk with black picture hat, while she carried a large bouquet of many kinds at her disposal.

The groom was ably supported by Frank Flaherty, formerly of this city, but now of Boston.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bridal party were driven to the residence of the bride's father, 82 city road, where a wedding breakfast had been made ready. The dining-room presented a beautiful appearance, being decorated with palms and cut flowers, and all present enjoyed the many viands at their disposal.

The young couple are very popular among their large circle of friends, who expressed their good wishes by means of many handsome and costly presents. The groom is a member of the Hibernian Knights, who remembered him by sending a beautiful silver service.

The groom's presents to the bride was a substantial cheque and to the bridesmaid a pretty ring.

The happy couple left on the Huron this morning for a ten days' stay in Boston and New York. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue, and she wore a white leghorn hat.

On their return the young couple will reside at 148 Mill street.

Hefferman-Kane

Miss Esther Blanche J. Kane, only daughter of J. J. Kane, of the Bay Shore road, was married yesterday afternoon to Thomas Hefferman, of the same service. The ceremony was performed in St. Patrick's church by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan.

Mr. and Mrs. Hefferman left by steamer for the States on a honeymoon trip and in their return they will reside on the Bay Shore road.

Machum-Boyd

A nuptial event of interest to St. John people takes place today at Sydney, C. B., when Arthur W. Machum, of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Co., will be married to Miss Millie W. Boyd, daughter of Mrs. Thos. Boyd. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Coning.

Both bride and groom belong to St. John and have the good wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Boyd, mother of the bride and Albert J. Machum, the groom's brother, left for Sydney on Saturday last, to attend the wedding.

Sullivan-Flood

A very pretty wedding took place this morning at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception when Miss Sarah Flood, daughter of James Flood Sr. Brimley St., was united in marriage to William P. Sullivan, of Madawaska County, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. McInerney.

The attendants were Miss May McCarron and Norman L. McInerney. The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk trimmed with Irish baby lace and wore an all lace hat trimmed with an orchid plume and Scotch roses. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and carnations.

The bridesmaid's costume was of white silk with chiffon trimming. She wore a very becoming picture hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom's present to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the bridesmaid a ring set with opals and pearls. Numerous beautiful presents were received, including cheques from the bride's father and brother. Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother, James Flood, Jr. Brimley street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left by this morning's boat on their honeymoon. They will reside in Boston.

Gue-Hattie

HALIFAX, N. S., July 18.—(Special.)—The marriage took place at 11.30 today, at the residence of the bride's father, of Miss Daisy Gue, daughter of T. R. Gue, president of the Acadia Powder Co., and R. M. Hattie of the Maritime Merchant. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thos. Fowler, assisted by Rev. J. W. Falconer. The happy couple left this afternoon on a trip through the Maritime provinces.
