

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF THE WEEK IN ST. JOHN

In a little more than a fortnight Ash Wednesday will be here after which, on account of existing conditions, it is thought that people will observe the lent season more religiously than ever before. When not engaged in pious works the women will see, not on patriotic work alone, but also for themselves, for the reason that war or no war, non-combatants as well as combatants must be clothed. Since Dame Fashion has decreed that women may walk—not nance—skirts have rippled from knee to hem also they have shortened perceptibly, nine inches from the ground being the accepted shortage. To compensate for uncovering the lower extremities, the revival of the styles of the first empire, and sleeves have crept down to the ankles. As for evening gowns there is little left but the skirt, as the bodice has almost disappeared beneath the high waistline, the latter marking the revival of the styles of the first empire. Such radical changes in the fashionable world work havoc with the ordinary person's wardrobe, therefore, the lent season provides an excellent opportunity for improving both the quality and the quantity of one's clothes.

In the new showroom at T. McAvity & Sons, Ltd. store, in King street last Wednesday afternoon, nearly all the beauty and fashion in St. John assembled for afternoon tea. The DeMonts chapter, Daughters of the Empire, were in charge of the arrangements and such being the case the entertainment passed off with flying colors. Mrs. Arthur W. Adams, regent of the chapter, with the two vice regents, Mrs. F. E. Sayre and Mrs. George K. McLeod were present to greet the visitors who numbered over three hundred. Mrs. Treasowsky who directed the decorating of the beautifully lighted hall, gained the admiration of everybody by her artistic grouping of the colors as well as by the good taste that prompted the placing of painted posters between the flags representing Belgium, Russia, France and England. From the ceiling great crimson bunting was hung and over the glass show cases built in the hall, dozens of small flags waved in the soft electric light. Appropriately near the palmistry booth a huge palm afforded shelter to Mrs. B. Edwards, who collected the silver pieces from those about to feast their fate. Harrison's orchestra played patriotic selections, Tipperary perhaps, proving the most popular. When the rooms were filled, the scene was not one to be forgotten. Twenty-four small tea tables were placed the entire length of the store—or improvised hall—each one covered with a pretty cloth and centered with small union jacks in glass vases. To the right as they entered several lotteries were noticed by the guests who stopped on their way to the tea tables, "to take a chance," buy a book or guess "how many beans were in the crock." Also they might buy a ticket for the big or small flashlights, for a mere song those who assisted were Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, who was convalescing of the committee, Mrs. David P. Chisholm, who had charge of the tea tables; Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. James U. Thomas and Mrs. Bushy, who looked after the book table; and Mrs. Charles Postwick, Mrs. Simon Jones and Mrs. Walter Foster, who saw that every one "took chances." Miss Elizabeth Furlong and Mrs. George Wetmore were on the tea and coffee committee and Miss Laura Hazen dealt with the mathematical problem of the "Peanut Jar." Others who were on the active committee were Mrs. de Blaviere Carrithie, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. G. M. Teed, Mrs. C. W. DeForest, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. E. T. Shurder, Mrs. A. C. Skelton, Mrs. Walter W. White, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Miss Bayard, Miss Warner, Miss Ethel Sidney Smith, Miss Mabel S. Smith, Miss Helen Sidney Smith made an efficient door keeper. Both at the door on King street and at the entrance within doors, soldiers of the King stood on guard which with patriotic airs filling the room with music and the brilliant display made by the flags, the handsome costumes of the guests and of those who assisted, made the occasion one of great brilliancy. A distinguished visitor, Captain R. W. Glennie, of H. M. S. Charybdis was the guest of Col. E. T. Sturdee at one of the tables. Accompanying him was Lieut. G. Nicholson, of the same ship. Others present were Lady Tilley, Lady Barker, Mrs. James H. Frink, Mrs. Morris Hazen, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. James L. Dunn, Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, Mrs. George McAvity, Mrs. G. A. An interesting and important social event was the dinner given at the residence of Senator and Mrs. Daniel on Wednesday evening to celebrate the Senator's seventieth birthday. The dinner in grey chiffon satin and white lace was present in the drawing room long enough to welcome the guests who arrived to offer their congratulations on the auspicious occasion. In the dining room a magnificent table presented a very beautiful appearance. The brilliant coloring of the yellow daffodils and scarlet carnations, centering the table was reflected in the cut glass and silver used in serving and over all a soft light glowed from the crimson shaded wax candles. When it was time for dessert a genuine surprise awaited the senator and his guests. A friend of the family had provided a beautifully decorated birthday cake having every conceivable good luck token, done in sugar for its relief decoration and the place was placed before the senator who took great pleasure in sharing it with his guests of whom there were nine. The Lieut. Governor, who was present, followed the health of the senator in a very happy manner to which the senator replied also that it is almost unnecessary to add that a very delightful evening was spent. The guests included His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Chief Justice McLeod, Senator Thorne, Judge Armstrong, Dr. W. H. White, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Col. H. McLeod, Dr. Boyle Travers, Hon. John E. TAX COLLECTIONS WERE GREATER THAN IN 1913

Saskatoon, Sask., Jan. 30.—The total taxes collected during 1914, amount to $870,897 or about $70,000 more than the amount collected in 1913. Further, the city's debit balance at the bank on December 31, 1914, was $480,000, against $615,000 on December 31, 1913. The observance of rational economy in every branch has resulted in the enviable financial position of Saskatoon which will still further improve with the passing of time.

This fact has not escaped several American financial concerns which have recently indicated their desire to purchase the debentures of the city. However, no action has yet been taken by the finance committee, who have little reason to hurry in the matter.

The True Safeguard of Baby's Health Allenburys' Foods

The milk of a healthy mother confers a degree of immunity to infection to the young infant. Many mothers, however, though willing, cannot nurse their babies for various reasons. In such cases the greatest care should be taken in selecting a proper substitute. Ordinary cow's milk cannot be regarded as a safe food for infants; it is acid, contains indigestible curd, and is almost invariably contaminated with harmful germs. By using the "Allenburys' Foods, which are free from all dangerous organisms, and effectually replace human milk, security for baby is ensured and vigorous growth and health are promoted. The "Allenburys' Foods are largely used and recommended by the Medical and Nursing Professions; they have stood the test of time and have become a household necessity all over the world.
