FOUR LAYERS OF FABRIC IN THIS FROCK
The rich chintilly lace, used so much this season demands equal elegance in the fabric combined with it. Such lace may not be draped directly over satin, but there must be a softening "cloud" of chiffon beneath it. In this instance there is also a cloud of black chiffon over the lace, which is draped above white chiffon and that in turn above the white satin. The hat is also black and white, and the gloves are of white, silk embroidered in white and black in a dainty imitation of chintilly effect.

CHAPTER V — (Continued)
"Yes," agreed Gettysburg, "as had they couldn't stand up."

A bright glitter came for a moment in Van's blue eyes.
"If Surry's the only equine paradox on the place, he and I have got to argue a kicking out this afternoon," he said. "But I'll have my dinner first."

Both were listening intently, puzzled to know precisely what the talk implied. She was vaguely suspicious that Van, for the purpose of coaxing her on, would find himself obliged to wage some manner of war with a horse of which the Indian was afraid.

Further discussion of the topic was interrupted now by the cook, who appeared to announce the dinner served. Both and he maid were, therefore, directed by Van to a table set for two, while he, with Napoleon and Gettysburg for company, repaired to a place in the kitchen.

Both was hungry. She ate with all the relish of a mountaineer. Algy, moreover, forming culinary accomplishments into words in a speechless way. Despite her wishes in the matter, Beth could hear the new table matter. Beth could hear the new table matter.

MARINE NEWS.
The British full-rigged ship Timandra, Captain J. A. Bloom, was last Friday granted clearance papers at the custom house, Boston, for a voyage to Buenos Ayres, and the master hopes to get away today. The ship loaded a cargo of 1,470,000 feet of white pine, ash and oak lumber at Mystic in the stream yesterday. The Timandra is well known here.

Bringing in a full cargo of 5,022 tons of iron pyrites the British tramp steamer Tottowood arrived at Boston last Friday morning, after a passage of 17 days from Havana, Spain, and berthed at Mystic wharf. Charleston, Captain Foy, reported fairly good weather on the voyage across. After taking out her cargo at Boston the Tottowood will proceed to St. John to load lumber for Rosario.

The West India line steamship Sobu arrived in port yesterday morning early from Bermuda, the Windward Islands and Demerara, with forty-five passengers, including eight Chinese, and a large general cargo.

The Sobu is now in command of Captain Wiswell. Captain Bridges having gone home to England on a well earned vacation. On the arrival of the Sobu at Halifax she will be loaded off the route for about six weeks to make repairs there. Her place will be taken by the steamship Yola, of the Elder- Dempster fleet.

Parser J. W. Dagnall said while the steamer was at Bermuda all on board the vessel had a fine view of Halley's comet, which was very bright in the east. It appeared, he said, to have two tails extending downwards toward the earth. It was in view several times during the trip.

Why make yourself uncomfortable with an old-fashioned corset when you can have the latest physique effect and be comfortable with the New La Diva Renaissance Corset.

"A pudding bag with a string around it." An old-time description which applies to many figures today—thanks to the ordinary corset. This "pudding bag" effect is bad both for health and for style.

The corset to wear is one which gives that smooth flowing physique—that holds one together comfortably—healthfully.

On the continent of France the new La Diva Renaissance Corset will be a revelation to you. It is a physique no other corset can give. We speak of doing parting this corset. Our designer studied correct corseting in the schools of the world, Rio de Janeiro, Long-champ, the promenades of London and New York, and, finally, moulded on the human form, we evolved the La Diva Renaissance Corset that will give you all the "Chic" and "Svelte" appearance of the stylish French and American women.

La Diva Corset

We're anxious to see how Canadian women will appreciate our endeavor to chain for them a really wonderful corset. For that reason, we have made the price of La Diva only $2.50—it's a $3.50 corset.

Write today for our Corset Booklet. We send it FREE. This booklet will tell you what style of corset is adapted to YOUR physique in order to retain health and give shapeliness.

KING GEORGE REMITS SENTENCES OF PRISONERS
London, May 22—King George has commuted his reign with an act of clemency, granting the remission of short sentences and the reduction of others throughout the kingdom, these including the army and navy. He has also issued a touching letter to "my people" expressing grateful appreciation of the affection and loving devotion the nation has shown in the face of a sorrow so sudden and unlooked for that it might well have been overwhelming.

But the sentiment it has invoked, continues the king, "has made me realize that it is a loss common to me and my people. They share it with me. I do not stand alone. With such thoughts I take courage and hopefully look to the future, strong in my faith in God, trusting my people and cherishing the laws and constitution of my beloved country."

Salons in New York
Today there are fewer salons in the thirteen Southern states than in Greater New York, and only a few more than in the city of Chicago. In New York there are 30,000 places where liquor is sold, in Chicago 28,000, and the entire South only 29,000. In New York state the estimated population in 1905 was 8,160,000, and the government issued in the state that year 34,880 "special tax stamps" to persons desiring to engage in the manufacture and sale of liquor. The thirteen Southern states, with 23,500,000 people, secured in 1902 less than 30,000 stamps.
