

WHERE GREEK AND TURK ARE BATTLING

Turk Nationalist forces have launched a great offensive movement against the Greeks in Asia Minor. Their purpose is to drive the Greeks out of the area known as Anatolia and subsequently to oust them from Smyrna (Shown on the map above the word "Mediterranean Sea"). Strategic points on the Bagdad railway, held by the Greeks for more than a year, have been captured. These include the towns of Eskişehir, which will easily be located on the map. The Greek forces, which were to have made a march on Constantinople before the powers forbade them, were withdrawn and rushed to Smyrna for its defense. The big powers having confirmed Greece in the possession of Smyrna and other territory are greatly alarmed over the development. The flanking illustrations show King Constantine of Greece, whose throne is endangered by the recent adversities in Anatolia, and M. Venizelos, (with the beard), former premier and one of the greatest of modern Greek statesmen. There is said to be a strong demand for his recall to office in this crucial hour for Greece.

MR. FOSS SHATTERS SOME INSIDIOUS PROPAGANDA

Did Not Know Who Owners of Musquash Land Were When He Recommended Development There.

C. O. Foss, chief engineer of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, yesterday asked the newspapers to publish the following:

To the Public:
As I am informed that it is being claimed by some people that the reason why the development on the Musquash proceeded with first was in order that some parties holding an interest in the Inglewood Pulp and Paper Company might get a big price for such interest, I wish to make the following statement:
When I discovered on the first of July, 1920, that we could divert the west branch of Musquash into a common power-house with the east branch and could develop practically the same power as in two power-houses on the Lepreau, with the storage more easily secured and more accessible to operate and the whole undertaking seven to eight miles nearer the city, I quickly decided to have made the slightest difference in my decision and recommendation, but I am merely stating a fact.

The matter is now being prepared for arbitration as provided in the act governing the procedure in such cases, and in the end the Inglewood Company will be paid only what the court of final resort awards them. If any one doubts the truth or sincerity of this statement, they have only to watch the proceedings to have their doubts removed. This statement having been shown to the premier, he fully corroborated the part referring to the government's action and that referring to the determination of damages.

REGRET RETIREMENT OF DR. THOS. WALKER

A resolution of sincere appreciation of his work for the institution and of regret at his retirement from the office of president was presented to Dr. Thomas Walker at the meeting of the directors of the Home for Incurables held yesterday afternoon in the home. Dr. Walker was the first president when the home was opened in 1900 and held that office until the present year. His resignation had been accepted at the previous meeting. F. B. Ellis read the resolution, which was feelingly expressed and told of the very high esteem and regard in which Dr. Walker was held by his fellow members on the board. Routine business chiefly occupied the meeting and James S. Gregory, the newly elected president, was in the chair. There are no vacancies in the home at present.

A ST. JOHN SINGER.

To The Editor of The Times:
Sir,—I am a stranger in your city, for a few days, and feel I would like to pay a tribute to one of your singers, of whom St. John might well be proud of. I have had some difficulty in finding out the singer's name as it was not announced at the Exhibition opening, where I had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Blake Ferris, truly a very great dramatic soprano, with wonderful tonal quality, her high notes are simply marvelous, especially in the soft passages, also great sustaining power. I am of the opinion that this singer could be one of the great singers of the day and to attain but height means the larger cities. I am in a position to hear the great artists all the time and can truthfully say that this singer is in a fair way to be one of the great.

REORGANIZATION OF AMES HOLDEN

Bond Holders of Two Companies Ratify Plans—Tire Concern to Act Soon.

The ratification by the second mortgage bondholders of Ames Holden McCready, Ltd., and the first mortgage bondholders of the Ames Holden Tire Company of the plan for the reorganization of this old-established footwear enterprise leaves only two more steps in the proceedings before reorganization can be accomplished.
Following ratification of the plan by the shareholders, there remains only the final action of the Ames Holden Tire Company to make the plan complete. The latter company has already outlined its policy, i. e., to remain a separate entity, and perhaps use the new company, made up of the parent company and the tire company, as a distributing agency for its products.
In common with the boot and shoe trade generally, there is considerable improvement reported in business, and it is said that means have been found for the effecting of substantial internal economies.

LONGSHOREMEN TAKE WAGE CUT

New Agreement Signed in Montreal—Fifty Cents for Day and Sixty Cents for Night Work.

Montreal, Sept. 8.—A general cut of ten cents an hour is provided in a new wage agreement signed here yesterday between longshoremen and shipping companies. The new scale is fifty cents a hour for day work and sixty cents for night work, with double time on Sundays and higher rates for the handling of certain commodities. Both parties have undertaken to deposit a $2,000 bond to be forfeited in the event of a breach of the contract by either side.

K. K. K. SENDS HUMAN HAND.

Negro Editor Gets Warning With Mail Enclosure.

New York, Sept. 8.—A human left hand, the back covered with red hair, evidently that of a white man, was found in a package sent to a Negro monthly magazine, The Messenger. Randolph, fearing the package might be a bomb, had asked the police to open it.
The wrapper was marked "From a Friend, New Orleans," and bore nine 2-cent stamps. The postmark had been washed off by water in which the package had been put when Randolph first suspected it might be a bomb.
In an envelope inside was a letter signed "K. K. K." In part it follows: "Listen Randolph: We have been watching your writings in all your papers for quite a while, but we want you to understand before we act. If you are not in favor with your own race movement, you can't be with ours. There is no space in our race for you and your crowd. We have sent you a sample of our good work, so watch your step or else you—Don't worry about lynching in the south. If you were here you wouldn't talk about it. Now be careful how you publish this letter in your magazine or we may have to send your hand to some one else. Don't think we can't get you and your crowd. Although we are in New York City, it is just as easy as if you were in Georgia."
The letter is thought to refer to a controversy between Randolph, in his publication, and Marcus Garvey, self-styled president of the Provincial Republic of Africa.

O'CONNELL PICNIC FOR HAVELOCK

J. D. O'Connell, "the orphan's friend," will gladden the hearts of hundreds of Havelock children tomorrow when he will tender them one of his picnics. The event will take on added significance in view of the fact that Havelock is Mr. O'Connell's native place and is the village where he first gave one of these picnics fifty years ago with the first four cents he ever earned. The fifteenth anniversary, needless to say, will be celebrated in right O'Connell style. Since leaving St. John, he had given picnics at Sussex and Renous. He gave one at Charlottetown, (P. E. I.), on August 26 last and one in Halifax. Mr. O'Connell says that all will be well.

WHISKEY CARGO SEIZED BY POLICE IN EAST RIVER

Yacht Had Eight Hundred Cases of Liquor Aboard—Seizure Valued at $130,000.

New York, Sept. 8.—Harbor police, yesterday seized a yacht loaded with 800 cases of whiskey and arrested her crew of five on charges of violating the state prohibition enforcement law.
The yacht was the Glendover, a palatial sea-going vessel, said by the police to be worth $50,000 outside of her cargo which was valued at $70,000. She was seized in the East River, after having slipped up stream in a heavy mist.
Much of the liquor was marked "Canada." Police believe the cargo was smuggled in from the dominion. The quietest arrested aboard the vessel disclaimed all knowledge of her ownership or her cargo. They all gave New York addresses. Four of them claimed to be seamen and the fifth a cook.

WOODFILL TAKES A JOB.

His Sergeant's Pay Insufficient to Meet Mortgage on Home.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 8.—Sergeant Samuel Woodfill, chosen by General Pershing as the greatest single hero of the World War, has gone to work on the Ohio River government dam at Silver Grove, Ky., a short distance above Cincinnati.
"My husband went to work on the dam because he finds it necessary to raise the money to meet the payment on our home that will fall due on Jan. 1," Mr. Woodfill said. "He could never do it on his sergeant's pay and the work at the dam opened a way for him."
Sergeant Woodfill was assigned to carpentering work at the dam. His pay will be $6 a day, which is just twice as much as he receives as a sergeant in the U. S. army. He expects to remain at this work during the three months' leave granted to him by Lieut. Col. Turner, commanding officer at Fort Thomas, Ky., where Sergeant Woodfill is assigned as a duty sergeant.

TO UPLIFT PRISONERS DURING LIFE TERM

Herbert Wilson Says Future in God's Hands.

Los Angeles, Sept. 8.—Herbert Wilson, ex-evangelist of London, Ont., convicted here last week of the murder of Herbert Cox, as they tried to escape from prison, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Notice of appeal followed the sentence. Motion for a new trial was refused.
"I am a man of God; I trust my future in His hands," said Wilson when sentence was pronounced. Then he asked for a Bible. If he is forced to spend the rest of his life in prison, he is quoted as saying, his plan is to devote time "to uplift of my fellow prisoners."

STEAL SAFE NEAR POLICE.

Robbers Get $10,000 in Heavy Loot Opposite Patrolman's Booth.

New York, Sept. 8.—Undaunted by a police booth less than twenty feet away, burglars entered Arnold Wetzel's restaurant in Sixty-seventh street and the Boulevard, Arverne, Queens, stole a heavy safe, which held $5,000 in cash, $5,000 in jewelry and valuable papers, and escaped.
The store faces the police booth. Wetzel closed the shop a little after three a. m. He placed the three days' holiday receipts in his safe, together with all his valuable documents. Some time later burglars rolled the safe from near the front window to the rear, then hoisted it through a window diagonally facing the police booth. The robbers left no clue.
The safe was found in a small alley off Gaston avenue, in Arverne, less than two blocks from the scene of the robbery.
A meeting of the Knights of Columbus was held last evening in their rooms
