London, Eng., Feb. 11.—A young man complained to Magistrate Symonds that his former sweetheart annoyed him. "She is only trying to woo you. I shan't stop a love romance," said the magistrate. The man said he did not want her attention. "But she will win," replied the magistrate.

Who Pays the Penalty?

Last April two of our representatives solicited applications for life assurance from a prominent Toronto wholesaler merchant and his son. They succeeded in selling to the father a policy for a considerable amount, but the son could not be induced to protect his dependents in this way against the financial loss which would result from his early death. Less than two months afterwards the daily newspapers recorded the tragic story of the younger man's accidental death. His failure to act when action was possible deprives his family of the insurance money which he could have secured to them so easily. Have you made any provision for your wife and little ones in case you should die suddenly? An Imperial Home Protection Policy will do it. Write for particulars to-day; tomorrow may be too late.

YOUNG LADY SLEPT NEARLY SIX WEEKS.

Dartmouth, N. S., Feb. 10.—About six weeks ago Miss Nellie Dooks, a well-known North End young lady, who was apparently in the best of health, complained of an unusually acute desire to sleep. Since that time Miss Dooks, despite all efforts to keep her awake, has slept almost without interruption. As soon as the young lady's slumbers lasted beyond a normal time, a doctor was summoned. After an examination he said he was convinced that Miss Dooks was not suffering from sleeping sickness. Strenuous methods were resorted to in order to feed the patient, whom it was possible to rouse but not to keep awake for a period of several seconds. On one occasion when she revived for a slightly longer period Miss Dooks told the doctor that she was not in pain nor did she feel the least ill. She was only conscious of an intense desire to sleep. Miss Dooks is recovering slowly, and although medical attendance has determined that she must be under observation for some time, she is apparently not in the least the worse for her long sleep.

SIR ROBERT IS

London, Feb. 11.—(Canadian Press)—Premier Borden, walking rather slowly but looking well in the face, was in the distinguished strangers' gallery at the House of Commons last night when the prime minister replied to the Independent Liberal and Labor leaders in the debate on the address.

"I am getting on very well indeed," remarked Sir Robert to the Canadian Press correspondent.

THEIR CROWNING EFFORT

In Originality, Quality and Scenic Effect the 1920 Attempt Will Be Truly Wonderful.

For catchy songs, snappy choruses and bubbling wit and humor, the annual Review of the Loyalist Chapter, I. O. D. E. has always been famed, but this year's attempt, the "1920 Review," promises to exceed anything heretofore undertaken.

From the time the curtain rises on the beautiful and elaborately staged prologue, until the closing chorus of the final number, the programme is one continuous succession of delightful surprises.

DEFENDS COCKROACH.

New York, Feb. 11.—Justice Mullau decides that cockroaches are not a menace to health, are not disease carriers and are easily and quickly exterminated. He made this decision in a suit in which a prospective purchaser sought to break a contract to buy a house because it was infested with roaches.
