

CARTIER MONUMENT

This is the memorial to the late Sir Georges Etienne Cartier, one of the fathers of confederation, on the slope of Mount Royal, Montreal, which was unveiled by King George pressing a button at Balmoral Castle, Scotland, which started an electrical current which crossed the Atlantic by cable and drew away the folds covering the statue of Cartier.—British and Colonial Press Photograph.

Victories of Peace

If Canada is to share in the Victories of Peace she must translate into industrial activity the spiritual valor of her men. War developed untold possibilities in human energies.

Men who did big things are not going to let their energies lie fallow because the conflict is done. Already they are grasping industrial opportunities, and the driving force and the unconquerable spirit that kept them at the big task overseas will make them formidable competitors here.

We welcome them back into industrial life, and we offer them the best that we have to aid them in re-establishing their industrial footing.

They and we know the part that engineering played in war, but they and we know that its part will be infinitely greater when applied to the arts of peace.

Men contemplating new enterprises or the re-establishment of old industries are invited to visit us and draw upon our experience in all matters pertaining to Power Transmission Engineering.

We have made great strides in productive capacity in the past four years; and we are eager to match this capacity with the initiative and ability of new forces in the industrial world.

FALL FASHION DAYS PRESENTING THE HATS OF A NEW SEASON

The Marr Millinery Co. Limited are now holding their second opening display of correct millinery for autumn. Yesterday their greatly enlarged showrooms were thronged with delighted ladies. As here is assembled a most complete showing of all that is new in millinery for fall. One is safe in saying that practically all the famous American designers' models are on display in their showrooms and such a variety of styles, too, surely all may find many models best suited to their individual tastes. They are showing an endless variety of tailored and untrimmed hats in all the new colors and materials and in these hats they are presenting a complete range of qualities from the most moderate to the highest quality obtainable. One new feature that is winning instant favor is the New York display racks that the Marr Millinery Co. Limited have introduced to the St. John ladies in their new showrooms. These racks display, in a most pleasing way, velvet hats, pressed beaver hats, the much wanted tams, children's hats, etc. A compelling sense of quality was the first impression as you entered the Marr Millinery Co. Limited spacious showrooms yesterday and this was more fully impressed on you as you critically inspected the different sections of this, we think, the largest exclusively millinery store in Canada. A visit will prove most interesting, they invite your inspection.

Eat Three Tons of Cakes.

London, Sept. 17.—Three tons of cake were eaten at a recent children's fête at Swindon, which was attended by about 20,000 persons.

Town Loses on Pigs.

London, Sept. 17.—The Southgate council's venture into the pig industry has proved to be a keen disappointment to the sponsors of the movement, which was intended to stagger the high cost of living. A report on the venture shows that the council lost $11,000 through it.
