RUSSIAN LEFT
$20,000,000 ART
COLLECTION TO PARIS

Paris, Aug. 24.—The will of Baron Basse Der Schlichting, one of the notable Russian residents of Paris, who died recently, leaves his magnificent collection of paintings, bronzes and sculptures, valued at $20,000,000, to the Louvre. Among his objects of art are 114 snuff boxes for which the late J. Pierpont Morgan is said to have offered $2,000,000. One of these boxes, painted by Fragonard, is valued at $100,000.

A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION
Married men, and those having dependents, serving in the territorial or reserve forces of army and navy, in the employment of Mackie & Co., Distillers Ltd., White Horse Bonded Stores, Argyllshire, Glasgow, Liverpool, and London, will, till further notice, receive full pay, which will be given to their dependents. Their berths will be kept open for them on their return, and in future preference in employment will be given by the firm to men who are serving or have served in the defensive forces of the country.

COUNCILOR OF GREEK EM-BASSY HERE
Soterios Nicholson, councillor of the Greek embassy at Washington, is visiting Colin H. Livingstone at the latter's summer home at Carter's Point. The secretary of the Japanese embassy at Washington was his way to St. John to visit Mr. Livingstone when his country became involved in the war and he was caught at Portsmouth by a telegram which recalled him to the capital.

SOFT COAL

We consider there is no soft coal as good as Broad Cove for general household use. An ideal kitchen stove coal and perfect for open fires in the early fall. Fresh mined coal, well screened ready for immediate delivery.

ENTERTAINMENT TO HELP SWELL PATRIOTIC FUND

It is expected that a great number of citizens will show their interest in the fund being raised to aid those left behind by the soldiers leaving for the front, by attending the patriotic concert being given this afternoon in the Opera House. This is not only showing concern for those left behind by the volunteers, but appreciation also of the efforts of the Americans at the Opera House to aid in swelling the fund.

The theatre has been given without charge by the Thomson-Woods Co. lessees through W. C. McKay, local manager; Miss Akerstrom and the members of the services, and the orchestra and attaches of the house also expressed their willingness to assist. Mrs. Wood, wife of Hon. Josiah Wood, lieutenant governor, and Mrs. J. H. Frink, wife of the mayor, are acting as a reception committee. The entire proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the patriotic fund.

Canada In The War

Newsy Notes of Activities in Many Parts of Dominion

Sergt. Major James L. Lamb, one of the volunteers from the 8th Regt. C. A., and a member of No. 1 Salvage Corps, was remembered by his fellow members of the Salvage Corps and No. 8 Hose Company last evening when a valuable military wrist watch was presented to him. The presentation was made by ex-Captain Frink in a few well chosen words. Sergt. Major Lamb replied briefly, thanking the men for their gift. Speeches were also made by Messrs. Green, Tonge, Nixon and others.

Harry B. Brant, of Norton, who has enlisted with the Princess Patricia Light Infantry, left yesterday morning for Ottawa to join his regiment. Before going away he was given a hearty send-off by the people of Norton. Mr. Brant is a S. A. John Railway Company, was among the number who left last Thursday with the Signalling Corps.

Employees of the Canadian Express Co. who desire to enlist for either home or foreign service and who have been more than six months with the company, are guaranteed six months' pay and their former positions at the close of the war. The admiralty has asked that a hospital ship be applied to a supplementary naval hospital at Portsmouth to be known as the Canadian Women's Hospital.

On Thursday last 675,000 bushels of grain were loaded at Montreal into ships about ready to sail for England. During the week ending August 20, 42,851 sacks of flour, 1,842,724 bushels of wheat and 144,126 bushels of oats were exported from Montreal for ports in Great Britain.

No more potatoes will be shipped from Germany, which is the source of the world's supply, and this will very seriously affect the fertilizer industry for a time.

A Toronto dealer says he would not be surprised to see sugar go to ten cents a pound, or at least twelve pounds for a dollar.

Nova Scotia has offered the British Admiralty 100,000 tons of coal, and the value of the gift is estimated at nearly half a million dollars.

Lieut.-Col. Duff of the army medical corps was thrown from his horse at Val-

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are made according to a formula in use nearly a century ago among the Indians, and learned from them by Dr. Morse. Though repeated attempts have been made, by physicians and chemists, it has been found impossible to improve the formula or the pills. ing 1,500 men in those two cities for the first contingent.

An attempt is being made to raise half a million dollars by subscriptions in Toronto this week for the Toronto and York county patriotic fund.

Sir Adam Beck announced that all the horses for the first contingent would be purchased by the end of last week.

On a Montreal street one day last week two girls were drilling twenty or more boys six to nine years old, armed with toy guns, swords, broom handles, etc.

When questioned one of the girls said her father had said the war might last twenty years, and she said these boys would then be men ready to take their fathers' places.

Publications from the United States emanating from German sources and designed to incite German citizens against Great Britain have been distributed in Montreal. The police have been instructed to prevent a repetition.

The city hall clerks in Montreal are so much interested in the war news that the heads of departments have forbidden them to have newspapers during working hours.

R. H. Howard & Company of Toronto to have contributed $1,000 to the Canadian war fund.

When the C. P. R. special for Valcartier pulled out of Montreal with a contingent on board this motto was placarded on a car window: "Don't worry, we will write from Berlin."

Col. Hughes intimated to parliament last week that many of the manufacturers who are completing contracts for equipment for the troops going to Europe are making the goods at cost price, and instructing their employees to be unusually careful as to the quality of the work.

The deputation from Toronto which waited on the government at Ottawa last week, to urge that the government make arrangements for the relief of unemployment, will return to the capital this week for another conference.

Five hundred women, forming fifty groups of ten members each, have organized in Montreal to assist in the work of the Red Cross Society.

The Quebec Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, has granted $5,000 of its funds, and will appeal to the six thousand Oddfellows in the province for voluntary contributions to a special fund for the benefit of the families and dependents of members who may go to the front.

The Dominion Trades and Labor Congress appeared on the government and parliament to afford protection to working people by preventing unemployment.

The Montreal Gazette says there is a steady growth of confidence in the shipping world in the ability of the British fleet to handle the situation, and that all the Canadian lines out of the St. Lawrence are renewing their services.

In parliament on Saturday W. M. Gernon, recruiting and mobilizing after the first contingent sailed. The prime minister replied that no decision had been made yet about a second contingent to go abroad, or for home defence, but such recruiting would be done as seemed necessary.

Also Inconvenient. Wife—Well, then, I'll just buy what I want and ignore the bills sent to you. Hub—Yes, but couldn't we to agree to some limit as to the amount? Wife—Certainly not. Combinations in restraint of trade are illegal.

PREPARING FOR EMERGENCY
Regina, Aug. 24.—On Tuesday, September 15, an emergency session of the Saskatchewan legislature will open to enable the government to obtain certain powers which, in view of the contingency, and which may arise while the country is in a state of war, is in existence during the period of emergency. It is not anticipated that session will last more than a few ten days. No legislation of a tentative or partisan character will be placed before the house.

War Service

First—No extra premium will be charged on policies now in force on the lives of any policyholders of the Canada Life Assurance Company who may engage in military or naval service, in or outside of Canada, irrespective of whether such policies provide for an extra premium or not.

Second—In the event of any policyholder not having paid any premium falling due during his absence, the Company will keep his policy in full force and effect during his term of service abroad, the unpaid premium being treated as a loan upon the policy. Policyholders should notify the Company upon entering foreign service.
