BASKET OF LETTERS LEFT ON STEPS OF PARLIAMENT BUILDING
 Toronto, Oct. 24.—It has become known that, as Hon. Dr. Payne, minister of education, was leaving the parliament building he observed a basket containing about half a bushel of letters on the steps of the eastern entrance awaiting the mail

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Athletics Champions.
 Chicago, Oct. 23.—The base ball championship of the world belongs to the Philadelphia club of the American League. They clinched the big pennant today seven runs to two from the Chicago Nationals, and there was none in the big overflow crowd to say that they had not won it fairly and squarely. Five games were played and the eastern youngsters took four of them by outbattling, out-slugging and out-slugging the veteran Chicago Cubs. They "got the jump" at the start, and although Chicago halted their progress with a defeat yesterday, it really did not change the situation a bit.

While the series was not the most profitable ever played, the players' share of the money amounts to $70,071. Of this amount 60 per cent, or $42,043, goes to the winners, and $28,028 to the losers. As there are 23 players on each team eligible to participate, each of the Philadelphia players is entitled to round numbers to $2,922, and each Chicago to $1,219.

The performance of Coombs in pitching and winning three games in a five game series, is probably unique. He had but one day's rest between the second and third games, but three days intervened between the third contest and today's exhibition. He had better control today than in the previous contests, and felled the opposing batters when hits meant runs.

Sinking Spells Every Few Days

"At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I was having sinking spells every few days. My hands and feet would get cold; I could scarcely breathe, and could feel myself gradually sinking away until I would be unconscious. Those about me could not tell there was life in me. After these spells I would be very weak and nervous, sleepless and without appetite; had a burning in my head and heart. After taking the remedy a short time all this disappeared and in a few weeks all the heart troubles were gone."

MRS. LIZZIE PAINTER
 803 1/2 3d Ave., Evansville, Ind.

For twenty years we have been constantly receiving just such letters as these. There is scarcely a locality in the United States where there is not some one who can testify to the merits of this remarkably successful Heart Remedy.

DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Toronto.

Frank Brown converted the goal, this being the local's only score. About fifteen minutes later Mount Allison secured a try but Capt. Cochran failed to convert. This ended the scoring.

Upper Canadian Games.
 Toronto, Oct. 23.—(Special)—In the soccer football game here Saturday Varsity beat McGill, five to two.

Neither Team Scored.
 The St. John High School played a tie game with the Rosedale College team at Rosedale on Saturday, neither side being able to score. The game was fast throughout and followed as the lineup of the teams:

High School. Forwards. Rosedale, Sinclair; Dalhousie, Lockhart; St. John, Nelson; Kingston, Rankin; McGill, McGearty; Queen's, McKelvey; Argonauts, R. McKay; Montreal, McKelvey.

Halves. Brown, Dalhousie; Nelson, St. John; McKelvey, Montreal; West, Argonauts; McKelvey, Montreal; McKelvey, Montreal.

Full-back. McKelvey, Montreal; McKelvey, Montreal.

Alexander, Morrissey, halves, Wetmore, Morrison, Cunningham, Woods, quarters, Cunningham, Gilbert, full-back, McGowan.

Quite a few enthusiasts thronged out to see the game.

Nine New Brunswickers in Halifax Race.
 Halifax, Oct. 23.—(Special)—Nine runners for the New Brunswick title have entered from New Brunswick. They are: Stealing, Horsman, Stubbs, Cromwell, St. John; White and Coward, Fredericton; Harris and Maynard, Moncton, and Fawcett, Mount Allison.

The Rifle.
 High Scores Were Made.
 The St. John City Rifle Club had their weekly noon match on the range Saturday afternoon. The attendance was small and only the match in A Class was shot. The afternoon was an ideal one for shooting and some big scores were put out. These present greatly enjoyed the afternoon's sport. The following were the winners and their scores:

Moncton Club Prize Winners.
 Moncton, Oct. 23.—(Special)—Saturday was field day on the Moncton golf links, some thirty-five players participating. The afternoon's match against bogey, Hon. C. W. Robinson, vice-president's match, W. A. Cowperthwaite, prize presented by Dr. Smith, J. M. Cooke, 1st; J. McKnight, 2nd; R. W. Simpson, 3rd; ladies' golf, Mrs. M. Moore, Dr. Smith's special prize was won by Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Maddison, Mrs. McNaughton, Miss Condon.

Favor Golf Merger.
 The option offered members of the Westmount Golf Club to be taken into the new Mount-Royal Country Club at St. Lambert was considered at a meeting in Montreal last Thursday. Some high in sending notifications at the meeting resulted in only about fifteen of the Westmounters turning up, but all who were there entered their names for membership in the new club.

Organization of the new club is proceeding apace, the Ranelagh Club having already ceased to exist, and the incorporation will be applied for when the legislature opens. No difficulty is anticipated in securing recognition of the new club, the $30,000 required for the immediate taking over of the Ranelagh property.

The Westmounters.
 The Westmounters, the present negotiations being with individuals only, though their property will probably be taken from them within a year or two.

The Ring.
 Young Corbett Fails to Come Back.
 Another ex-champion made a futile attempt to "come back" in New York last week. Young Corbett, conqueror of "The Ring" Terry McGovern, entered the arena against Willie Beecher, the vigorous East Side lightweight, at the Langens A. A. Club. Corbett was to go ten rounds, but after four sessions Referee Mike Newman stopped the bout to save Young Corbett from a serious injury. The second round Corbett was in a boxing posture after scrambling to his feet from his second knockdown during the first round. He offered and offered no defense at all. Had Beecher been permitted to land the final blow the ex-fighter would have been out of the ring for good.

Corbett was in anything but fighting trim. He was fogged and slow in his movements. That he managed to survive the first three rounds was due to Beecher's nervousness. Corbett, in fact, had been in the next and final round Beecher took Corbett on his back with a left jab, a mix-up down and was content to box at long range.

The second round was even, Corbett being the gainer over several of his lifts. In the third the tide of the battle began to turn. Beecher took the lead by cutting out Corbett's face with slashing jabs, and with one of these blows gashed Corbett's left eye.

After the first minute of fighting in the third round Corbett began to fade. He simply "blew" and let himself open to Beecher's attacks. The bell saved him from further disaster in this round. Early in the next and final round Beecher took Corbett on his back with a left jab, a mix-up down and was content to box at long range.

Stanley Ketchel Buried.
 Stanley Ketchel, the murdered middle-weight champion pugilist, was buried at Grand Rapids, Michigan, in a new vault. The body was escorted from Ketchel's farm by a delegation of Elks and a large number of friends. Eight flower girls preceded the white hearse.

De Oro Retains Title.
 Alfredo De Oro, the Cuban, is still the three-division carom champion of the world. In the final block of his match with Lloyd Jevne, the Salt Lake player in New York, De Oro ran out his string of 50 points in the final block of his match, in seventy-six innings. The challenger made 44 but, an improvement of four points over his previous night's play. The total of the three nights' play was De Oro, 150; Jevne, 121. Albert Cutler presented De Oro with a diamond trophy awarded by John Doyle, De Oro in the closing match, once more showed himself to be a past master at carom. He was the only man to reach the end of the table in the closing match. He was the only man to reach the end of the table in the closing match. He was the only man to reach the end of the table in the closing match.

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS
THE HOUSE.
 Reserved seats for the Jessie MacLachlan concert at the Opera House next Wednesday are now on sale. The celebrated prima donna is in better voice than ever this season and is meeting with great success everywhere she has sung in the province. Her numbers are all attractive, embodying Scotch, Gaelic and Irish songs. Of Mr. Sherry, the entertainer, too much cannot be said, the Halifax papers referring to him as the finest artist that has ever been seen in that city. His numbers are from grave to gay, including selections from the Bonnie Blue Bush and other Scotch numbers. Mr. Sherry also ranks high as a vocalist. One thing he demonstrates that it is possible to be funny and entertaining without vulgarity. Mr. Buchanan is the accompanist.

THE LYRIC.
 Much interest was created a few days ago when announcements were made to the effect that Huber's International Troupe of trained bears would perform at the Lyric Theatre for the first three days of the week. The act, though not given to a detailed description, is said to contain a great many funny and clever things by the grizzly family. They have been in the large city for the last three years, always proving an attraction out of the ordinary.

THE GEM.
 So that nothing will mar the vaudeville portion of the bill, a picture programme of excellent quality is promised in four fine films—"Dixie," a war story; "The Street Sweeper," farce; and splendid travel study, "From Laganos to Ponte Trosa."

THE HOODOO.
 The Hoodoo, a comedy by the American Pathé Freres players wherein some old Biograph favorites play the leading roles. Two other stories and the singing of F. Louise Tufts in "The Silent Violin," will make up an ideal programme. Wednesday and Thursday Steve Hurley, electionist will offer one of his best lecture films in the Edison classic, "The Bellringer's Daughter."

THE GEM.
 There are times when even the most hardened of persons may be touched by a responsive phase of human heart interest, and a splendid instance of this is shown in the big Vitaphone production, "Brother Man," at the Grand Theatre today and tomorrow. This is a fascinating playlet in which two men of opposite points of view, a young society man and a burglar, recognize the fine qualities of each other from a man-to-man viewpoint, and extend a hand of fellowship in the betterment of the brotherhood of man.

THE STAR.
 The "Iconoclast" is one of the Biograph Company's most powerful productions and presents the best actors and actresses in the world. The story is plainly told how a socialistic printer seeks to bring about happier conditions by methods which fail and have a great wrong was righted by gentler process. As an effect to this strong drama there will be some of those laughable "Hank and Lank" pictures. Western dash and excitement will be furnished in "The Pony Express Rider," and delicious comedy of the highest class in Edison's film de luxe, "The Great Secret." Al. Weston will sing "You Look Just Like a Girl I Used to Know."

THE STAR.
 At this time, very clean theatre, a good bill is provided for tonight and Tuesday night. "The Writing on the Wall" is a comedy. "The Curse of Gambling" is a strong drama, well acted. "The Woman Hater" is another good comedy. Miss Mae Dunphe of New York will sing "If I Knew."

NEWS OF SACKVILLE
 Sackville, N. B., Oct. 23.—A very successful shoot was held on the range of the Chequocton Rifle Association last Friday. The winners were—Class A, 1st, R. Read; 2nd, C. McNutt; 3rd, Samuel McKay; 4th, J. H. McNutt; 5th, Arthur Oulton; 6th, Estey Chapman; 7th, Fred McKay; 8th, Walter Anderson. Class B—1st, Roland Murray; 2nd, John Crawford; 3rd, Scrimgeour; 4th, W. D. Doherty; 5th, August Sander; 7th, Hugh Brown; 8th, Wilfrid Anderson. Class C—1st, William Blacklock; 2nd, George Field; 3rd, William Strating; 4th, Albert Davis; 5th, Clarence Amos; 6th, M. Taylor; 7th, Cecil Taylor.

The dredge which has been undergoing repairs, is now at work in Port Eglis harbor. The general opinion is that the dredge has done excellent work this season.

Mrs. Charles Audet, wife of Conductor Audet, and her daughter, Miss Charles H. Campbell, spent a few days in town last week as the guests of Philip A. Audet.

The report that A. W. Doe, of Bermuda, has lately been coaching Mount Allison football team is entirely without foundation in fact. Mr. Doe never was nor is now a coach for the Mount A. team.

City Wallace of the office staff of the Enterprise Foundry, will probably be one of the competitors in the Halifax Herald's road race on Thanksgiving Day.

Dr. Grant, of Vancouver, a famous preacher, and lecturer, will lecture here on Friday evening, November 4, on Art and Ruins in
