

Are You Prepared?

For the heavy, disagreeable walking conditions that will be upon us soon now.

Winter is at hand and Fall is here. Our line of Fall Shoes includes many beautiful and practical examples of Footwear, made to withstand the weather conditions of late Fall and Winter.

The Shoe shown above, for instance, is one that is made for outdoor use—for walking about the city streets—shopping, and for general wear. It is a high top, tan lace, dark shade, medium pointed last, military heel, with a slightly heavier-than-usual sole. The Price is $11.00. Same Shoe carried in black at $10.00.

Come into our stores sometime as you are passing and look at the many beautiful models we have to show. It is impossible to properly show all our shoes in our windows. We want you to see the others, and you are under no obligation to purchase when you do so.

CANADA'S FISHERIES.

The fisherette idea is taking strong hold in the east and the number of girls now engaged in cleaning and skinning fish for the market is increasing. Chai in oikins and sou'westers they are bravely plying knives on cumbersome, slimy fish. They are taking the places of brothers and sweethearts who are overseas.

Now that people are turning their thoughts towards Christmas preparations, a recipe for sugarless candy may prove useful.

Peanut Brittle.
One cup white corn syrup.
One teaspoon vanilla.
One tablespoon vinegar.
One cup freshly roasted peanuts, halved.
One-quarter teaspoon salt.
Cook the corn syrup, vinegar and salt in a saucepan until a little dropped in cold water forms a soft ball. Put the peanuts and this syrup into a frying pan and stir until the syrup becomes a golden brown. Have ready a shallow greased pan, pour candy in and spread out in a thin sheet. Allow to cool. Then remove from the pan and crack into pieces.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oaklaos, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 2nd Ave., West, Oaklaos, Iowa.
Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.
