

Address of the Canadian Conference

Of the Primitive Methodist Church,

TO THE ENGLISH CONFERENCE.

—o—

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through God the Father, Son, and Spirit.

Another Conference year, with all its vicissitudes, hopes, and fears, has passed away, since we had the pleasure of addressing to you our annual letter from this far-off field of labour. We are glad to hear of your success in the Master's work; and still pray for your prosperity and increase in all that concerns the interests of our Zion. The Lord of the harvest has wonderfully owned your labours in our Father Land; and likewise granted considerable success to your Missionary allies in America, Australia, and other places whither you have sent them; which consideration affords great cause for gratitude and humility. In this great work of the world's conversion we are inseparably one. Our temptations are one: our trials are one: our fears are one: our hopes are one: our enemy is one: our prospects are one: and above all, and in all, and through all, the Captain of our salvation is one.

It affords us unspeakable pleasure to be able to inform you of our prosperity in this land of all nations, where even many things are against us, as a Religious
