

...h annual convention, at East Las Vegas, November 11.)

...sitors were welcomed in an eloquent address by
 ... Whitmore, and Past Grand Chancellor Hart, to
 ... Easley responded "cheerfully" and Supreme
 ... ly."

... report says that "misery untold . . . has lurked
 ... town and hamlet," and that notwithstanding the
 ... rich lands, sufficient to support in luxury many
 ... untouched by the ploughman's hand,—Mother
 ... as scarce been touched—and yet, oh shame that we
 ... s upon thousands are starving!! And this is to
 ... that the growth of the order has been "very slight,"
 ... brother says is "gratifying," all things considered.
 ... its were not indulged in because of the depleted

... a membership of 1020; loss by suspensions 568;
 ... of lodges, $13,808.86. The Grand Lodge balance

... s the Fraternal Correspondence Committee should
 ... atistics to enable them to bring "that feature of ... the standard of Maine or Indiana." He thinks
 ... re to review in the neighborhood of thirty-five
 ... and make the report what it should be.

... e, the third Tuesday in November, 1895.

... . C., Gallup.

... , East Las Vegas.

... airman Fraternal Correspondence Committee,

... venth annual convention, at Catskill, July 23-26,
 ... 6.)

... the Baptist church, and shortly after the opening
 ... discovered in the room and escorted to the plat-
 ... an "eloquent address."

... ancillor, J. C. LaDow, opens his report with

... dinate lodges were in dull and inactive condition,
 ... g were done they would be compelled to surren-
 ... red, with the aid of the State Deputy, to see
 ... sited, some of them several times, to the end
 ... come self-sustaining. I am pleased to report
 ... it, and that we have more active, busy, bustling
 ... They have taken on a healthy growth, and I
 ... m a prosperous year, when if properly looked
 ... ing and prosperous."

... f the lodges, travelled 9000 miles on official