In no business election, still proves that Liberalism has a strong hold upon the people. I desire to thank the different ward committees ing. A farmer has so many different throughout the city, Portland, and the things to consider; there is the domestic different parishes, for the handsome way and foreign market, the rates of duties, in which they worked, for they have worked truly and loyally for the principles of Liberalism, which they believed, ability to run a farm. Plain practical and still believe to be the best adapted to common sense is what is needed on a farm serve the people, and that the policy ad- and we are sure that its promptings would ocated by the Liberal party is the true, be in favor of now making diligent Newfoundland Fisheries.

(From the Harbour Grace Standard.) Last week we drew attention to the fol lowing significant facts in connexion with the staple industry of the colony:

1. That the coldishery is stationary.

2. That over 100 per cent more people of engaged in the business to-day than there were 70 years since.

3. That the appliances of capture are doubly as effective as they were then.

4. That the fishery as now prosecuted costs fully 50 per cent more than it did a quarter of a century acc. cordially in the remarks which Mr. Everett has made concerning yourself, and to late years been considerably extended, with no appreciable increase in the catch. 6. That the exporting power of the country has not kept pace with the growth of the population.
7. That the total increase of our fishery this vitally important subject is well fitted to convey to all reflecting minds; and in conclusion expressed the stern conviction, which is forced upon us, that one or other did 190,000 in 1884-nay, 100,000 quintals more! What wonder, then, that poverty and destitution exist among the seafaring population, and that the question is year by year forcing itself with alarming emphasis upon the attention of all wellwishers of the colony- the question, name ed by the uncertain fisheries. This hev trovertibly prove that, notwithstanding our riseatorial food supply?

Murder in P. E. I.

Dr. Stephen R. Jenkius was sent for. He found that one of the bullets had entered above the right groin. The doctor probed the wounds, but was unsuccessful in disa very precarious condition, and chances
