AT CENTENARY.

Rev. T. J. Delmstadt delivered a very eloquent sermon before a large audience in Centenary church last evening.

After the service a sacred concert and organ recital was given.

Miss Hea played three selections in her usual acceptable manner. Solos were given by Miss Jennie Trueman, Mr. Knowles, and C. H. Barnes, and a duet by Mr. Knowles and Cameron Bogart. Mr. Knowles' solos were King of Kings and Face to Face. He has several times been heard in St. John, but never to better advantage than in last evening's recital.

Mr. Barnes, who is a St. John boy, though at present living in New York, was a pleasing surprise to the congregation. He is the possessor of a remarkably sweet and clear high tenor voice, not particularly powerful, but making up in richness of tone for what is lacking in vigor.

DANGEROUSLY INJURED.

J. J. H. Scovill, a prominent farmer at Queensdown, Queens county, who was seriously injured last week, is said to be still in a critical condition.

He was assisting at a barn raising, and was working on the ground when a sledge used by one of the men in securing the rafters came off the handle and, falling fifteen or twenty feet, struck Mr. Scovill on the head. He was rendered unconscious and was conveyed to his home where he now lies. It is hoped that he may recover under the care of skillful surgeons, but it is difficult to say what the end will be.

LOCAL NEWS.

Special.—Soft wood and kindling cut in stove lengths, $1.15 per big load at Watters', Walker's wharf. Telephone 612.

The young son of Mrs. Jeremiah Watt was christened yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's church.

A telegram received here from Vancouver, B. C., Saturday, brought joy to a number of St. John men who are financially interested in the Princess Royal gold mine in British Columbia. The news which the wires brought was that the first shipment of ore sent from the mine to the smelter at Tacoma had been heard from and it had shown $125 to the ton.

W. K. Mollison, of Boston, is paying a short visit to his former home at Brookville. Mrs. Mollison, with her daughter, came some time before and have been staying with friends at Drury's Cove. The Mollison house at Brookville, purchased recently by W. B. Tennant, has been in the hands of carpenters, painters and plumbers, and there will soon take up his residence there.

PROBATE COURT.

This morning in the probate court letters testamentary of the last will and testament of Wm. Bramhall, deceased, were granted to Margaret Bramhall, his widow, Wm. Bramhall, his nephew, his son and the executor named in the will. The estate consists of $1,500 real estate, and $1,500 personal property. By the terms of the will the income from the property is to go to the widow during her lifetime, and on her death to be divided between child of Wm. Bramhall and two children of his daughter, Mrs. Frank W. Ford, of Bridgetown, N. S. Chapman and Tilley appeared for the executor, and Barnhill and Sanford for the testator's legatees.

In the matter of the proving of accounts in the estate of the late John McCarthy, D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the executors, T. Collins and Michael Donohue; W. J. Mahoney for Mrs. Case, one of the legatees; and H. H. Pickett for Mrs. Dickie, another of the legatees. The matter will probably be continued this afternoon.

HIS FIRST MASS.

Rev. C. P. Carleton celebrated his first mass in Holy Trinity church at eight o'clock this morning. A large congregation assisted. Father Carleton is the first priest from Holy Trinity parish since it was made a separate parish.

Yesterday at ten o'clock mass, Father Walsh spoke words of praise for the new priest, expressing his sincere conviction that Father Carleton would prove himself worthy of the high dignity to which he had been raised.

DOUGLAS AVENUE WAITING ROOM

The street railway company has at last decided to build a waiting room for passengers at the end of Douglas avenue. There did not appear to be any convenient drug store which could be at small expense converted into a waiting room, hence the present movement. The new building will be 24 ft. by 14 ft. and is now being erected.

NEEDS PROTECTION.

The ladies of the North End W. C. T. U. have been working long and earnestly towards the completion of the memorial park on Douglas avenue, and feel that when they have done so well the results of their work should receive at least some protection from the city. This does not seem to be the case, for the drinking fountain in front of the park is given over to the hands of miscreants who regularly injure it. The fittings are broken off and carried away, and for half of the time the fountain is out of order. Plumbers have to be engaged every little while to make repairs, and the outside of the expense this is very annoying.

BALL AT THE CHALET.

The ball game at the Chalet on Saturday was fully equal in some respects to any put up by national league teams. The boys paid ten cents each and bought a mask. Next week if they can afford it they are going to have a new catcher's mit, for the stuffing is all knuckled out of the present one. The game was all that was expected, and those spectators who had not paid to see it got the worth of their money. This side beat the other side by 14 to 8. The other side had a good battery, but this side's fielders were up to the mark and did some wonderful work. If the white horse is not at pasture in the ball grounds next Saturday there will be another game.

RINGLETS FROM RED HEAD.

(Special correspondence of the Star.) John S. T. Hatt, of Marysville, arrived by steamer on Saturday with the pacer Rufus, 228-1-2, and a light driving turn-out. Mr. Hatt is on his vacation and will be the guest of John R. McConnell, Red Head. He will use Rufus for a driver while in the city and will also give him some track work. Mr. Hatt will take in the summer races and will likely drive to Sussex from St. John. Rufus is a fine looking dark bay horse, seven years old, and can easily beat his mark.

A CURIOSITY.

There is on exhibition in D. Magee's Sons' window on King street quite a curiosity in the shape of an old military helmet of the style of a hundred years ago. It is made of leather, and beaver cloth, the sides being of the latter. The helmet is fully a foot wide across the top, and is a rather clumsy contrivance. It was found by one of the workmen who are engaged in tearing down the old King house on Germain street, and was very dirty, but has been cleaned and is in good condition.

SHOE FACTORY FOR ST. JOHN.

U. S. Capitalists Propose to Start on the old Queen Biscuit Factory

Site Erin Street.

It is rumored that St. John is soon to have a boot and shoe factory. Capitalists of Haverhill, Mass., have delegated Charles Vaughan, formerly of this city, to look over the ground and decide as to the advisability of starting a shoe factory here.

Mr. Vaughan, who is a brother of John Vaughan, of the firm of Francis & Vaughan, has in his mind the old Queen Biscuit Factory on Erin street as a suitable place for the new enterprise. Mr. Vaughan managed a shoe factory on Princess street before the great fire of 1877. It was swept away in that conflagration. At one time before the fire there were seven factories in the city, but there has not been one here for three years. The last one was run by J. T. Hurley on Prince William street, near the Bank of British North America.

There are only two boot and shoe manufacturing establishments in the city, and one in New Brunswick, and the one now proposed will be larger than either of these.

PRINTER IN ST. JOHN WANTED FOR BIGAMY.

St. Stephen Police Here Searching For Chas. Merrill, Who Married one Woman Too Many in Milltown.

Provincial Officer Bailey, of St. Stephen, aided by the police of this city, is scouring St. John today in search of one Charles Merrill, who is wanted in the border town on a charge of bigamy.

About May 30th, Merrill was married at Milltown to Miss Francis Milligan, whose people lived at Bailey's Settlement in Charlotte county, where the family is highly respected. For several weeks after the ceremony Merrill resided with his wife's relatives and then came to St. John in search of work.

After his departure there arrived in St. Stephen on July 12th, a lady from Philadelphia in search of the missing Merrill, whose wife she claimed to be. Learning of his second marital adventure she laid information against him.

PREACHER'S MEETING.

before Police Magistrate Wells of St. Stephen, who issued a warrant for his arrest on the charge of bigamy, which warrant Officer Bailey arrived in the city Saturday to execute.

Merrill is a printer by trade and is described as rather short with light moustache, of a gentlemanly appearance and usually well dressed.

A man answering this description applied for work at some newspaper offices about two weeks ago and is believed to be working at his trade with some printer in the city. If this is so his arrest will be made soon.

Merrill is known here as Jay C. Merrill. The woman he married in Milltown came here with him and has been staying with relatives. Some of these were in St. Stephen July 12, and hearing the story of Merrill's crime, informed the police of his whereabouts.

ANOTHER LABORER NEARLY KILLED.

One of A. L. Goodwin's fruit teams ran away on Charlotte street this morning and though the frightened horse was stopped before doing any damage, serious consequences might have followed had not a scavenger on the street acted with great presence of mind.

The wheel of the sloop to which the horse was attached, caught in the car tracks and gave the animal a sudden twist. He became frightened and started to run.

An old man was working on the street between an electric car and the sidewalk. He espied the horse when the animal was almost on top of him, he immediately dropped his shovel and spring for the sidewalk landing safely just as the wild steed sped by. The poor old man seemed to suffer from a nervous shock for a time, but he soon recovered sufficiently to swear the vengeance of Cain on the horse, sloven, horses, streets and a few other things.

THE GLENCAIRN'S OWNER.

Sydney Flyer Has Been Purchased by W. B. Ganong, Proprietor of the Cedars.

For the past week or so there has been much speculation as to the purchasers of the fast Sydney yacht Glencairn. The Sydney papers in speaking of the sale have referred to the St. John syndicate which had bought the yacht, and in St. John it seemed impossible to learn who the parties were.

The Glencairn has been bought not by or for a syndicate, but privately by W. B. Ganong. Mr. Ganong is the proprietor of the Cedars and is now in Fernie, B. C., where he has been since the Cedars closed last fall. The yacht will be brought to St. John. Mr. Ganong is a sailor and will use his new flyer on the river.

Miss Tonge's portrait has recently been published in one New York and two Boston papers, which also gave her great praise for her ability as a singer. Miss Tonge's friends in St. John are delighted to hear of the splendid success she has achieved.
