SEMI-WEEKLY SUN, ST. JOHN, N B., AUGUST 4. 1900

Now began one of the most difficult operations in the face of an enemyretirement. The Canadians had assigned to them the most difficult part of that difficult manoeuvre - of the rest of the force. Under the steady fire of our men the Imperial Mounted Infantry quietly withdrew, and then equally quietly our men went after them, followed all the way by the enemy's shells, until finally, and without the smallest tide of hurry or disorder, all were across the bridge safely. Meanwhile, a couple of our fifteen pounders had taken up a position on the south side of the river and they kept the Boers from following us too closely. As our men withdrew, I could very clearly see from my position a swarm of mounted Boers come riding over the ridge that our men had so recently occupied. If they had had any real determination in them they could have followed up our men and have made things pretty warm for them. But the two guns on the south side of the river just dropped three shells among them, and that was enough-they simply turned and bolted for all they were worth.

THE COVERING OF THE RETIRE-MENT
