

W. J. McDevitt Fined $4 Or Ten Days, In Police Court Yesterday Afternoon—Magistrate's Caustic Remarks.

In the police court yesterday afternoon, W. J. McDevitt was fined $4 or ten days in jail with hard labor by Magistrate Ritchie for neglecting to send his year-old son James McDevitt to school. The boy was also remanded to jail until the fine was paid.

McDevitt told the magistrate that he could not afford to buy boots for his boy in order to send him to school, as he had been out of work for the past seven weeks.

His Honor remarked that if McDevitt would spend less money for whiskey he could afford to send his boy to school. "You have a duty to perform to your church, to the state, and to your children," said His Honor, "and you are neglecting them all."

The magistrate then imposed a fine of $4 or ten days in jail.

James Watson, the 10-year-old colored boy, who was sent below on Saturday, promised to attend school regularly and was allowed to go.

Raymond McLeod, aged thirteen, since the opening of this term in September, had attended school but three times, while Wm. Jackson, aged twelve, had not attended at all since school began.

Judge Ritchie ordered them to be taken below and placed in separate cells.

THE HITTITES IN THEIR RELATION TO GREEK HISTORY

Professor Hogarth of Oxford Gave Interesting Address Before Archaeological Society Last Evening.

That the Hittites who for many years were regarded as one of the minor nations of antiquity have been found by modern archaeologists to be one of the two great nations of their time and that they formed an important link in the development of the civilization of Greece, was made evident last night by Professor David G. Hogarth, M. A., in his lecture before the local branch of the Archaeological Institute.

Professor Hogarth is curator of the Museum at Oxford University and is well known as an archaeological explorer, geographer and author. He has come to America to lecture before the branches of the Archaeological Institute.

Professor Hogarth's subject was "Hittite Discoveries in Relation to Early Greek History." The pleasure of his lecture was increased by a splendid set of views which were used to illustrate different facts in connection with his subject.

It had only been in recent years Professor Hogarth said, in the opening part of his address that the idea that it was impossible to look behind Homer and find out many of the early development of the Greek race had been done away with.

LIBERAL PARTY DAY AT COMMONS

Continued from page 1. So far the discussion has been amicable; but now Mr. Curvell, as a prominent member of the Blockers brigade, issued a defiance. He declared that no proper question had been presented. The committee had never refused papers or refused to call witnesses. The Opposition would wander off into side issues and members who had some regard for the decencies of public life would restrain them. His own name had been bandied about from the Atlantic to the Pacific as a leader in the dark lantern brigade. He had never objected to a proper question or based his objection on technical grounds. If the Opposition continued to try to drag out matters which had nothing to do with the question, to get information which would benefit them in their constituencies they would be treated with the same treatment in the future as they had experienced in the past.

Mr. Barker gave two examples of improper blocking. He himself, often in examining witnesses as to the value of property which they had sold to the government, had asked what they had paid for the property, often only a few weeks before the sale to the government took place and it would be objected. "You are trying to compel the witness to disclose his private business."

Mr. Curvell demanded an instance. Mr. Barker retorted that one such case had been brought, before the House. Another sample of obstruction was that the committee would be investigating the price of articles sold to the government and witnesses would be asked what they had paid for them, thereupon the reply would be, "You are prying into his private business."

For a whole week they had struggled to make a witness produce his invoices, in the end they had to bring a man from Galt to show at what price he had sold things to the recalcitrant witness.

Mr. Sproule observed that if the Opposition only asked the question which Mr. Curvell thought proper, they would ask nothing else.

Mr. Blair's Motion. Mr. Blair followed up Mr. Curvell's defiance by moving Mr. Lennox's suggestion as an amendment to the motion.

In speaking to this he recalled the specific case of Montreal, who was retained in his refusal to tell the price he had paid for articles until the Opposition found means to bring evidence on the subject from another source.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he would not object seriously to the motion, but Mr. Lennox had made it. It was worthy of consideration. As for Mr. Monk's remarks, it always had been the custom in Canada to have the chairman of the committee a minister in the government. It was regrettable that they did not follow the example of the Mother Country in all things. He would suggest that Mr. Blair let the matter stand to see if they could not come to an agreement.

THREE ARE TIED FOR BILLIARD TITLE

Clive Sutton and Demarest to Play Off For Championship—Finals in Big Match To Be Played Friday.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 29.—A triple tie for the world's professional 18.2 ball billiard championship resulted from today's play in the tournament at Madison Square Garden. At the afternoon session George Sutton, of Chicago, defeated Firmin Cassignol, the French champion and this evening Calvin Demarest, of Chicago, won from George Slosson, the New York player.

The two winners are therefore tied with Harry P. Cline of Philadelphia, each of the three having completed his schedule with four games won and one lost. The scores of the six contestants for the championship are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Won Lost P.C. Cline 4 1 800 Sutton 4 1 800 Demarest 4 1 800 Slosson 1 1 250 Cassignol 1 4 200 Cutler 0 4 000

One game is still to be played in the regular series between Slosson and Cutler, and this will be decided Tuesday afternoon. The play-off for the first place will be played off in three games. Demarest will play Cline on Thursday; the loser of that match will play Sutton on Thursday and the winners of the two matches will play on Friday.

The Demarest-Slosson match this evening was close at first, but toward the latter part of it Demarest scored heavily, going out the 32nd inning with a brilliant unfinished run and winning by a score of 500 to 364. Slosson made a remarkable run of 123 in his 110, finally missing a three cushion try by the narrowest margin. This sent the Slosson score up to 321 against 115 for Demarest, but the Chicago player overcame this lead with a series of two figure runs and kept his lead to the end.

Going Home for the Winter. Among the passengers on the Boston train last evening were nine Italians from Plaster Rock, who were returning to their native Italy to spend the winter. The men were well supplied with money, some of them bringing over $400 in their possession. For the past month there has been a steady exodus of Italians, Assyrians and other foreigners from Plaster Rock, Andover, Chipman and various points in New Brunswick. The men are for the most part returning to their own countries to spend the winter. Many of them are well supplied with money which they have earned in railroad construction or other work.

RECEIPTS ARE GREATER—EIGHTY MORE LICENSES ISSUED IN ST. JOHN THAN IN 1908—THE LARGEST HEADS.

The big game season of 1909 comes to an end today. For two months and a half sportsmen from many parts of the world have invaded the province. Accompanied by the famous guides of New Brunswick they have pooled up swift-running streams and travelled along stiff lumber roads strewn with autumn leaves in the pursuit of big game lured on by the mystic clamor of the forest, and the cry of the sportsmen.

This season, it is believed, an unusually large number of moose, deer and caribou have been shot. The total number is not yet available from the office of the Surveyor General, but in spite of the wet weather that prevailed during a great part of the season the receipts from hunting licenses are known to be greater than in any previous year.

Eighty More Licenses. Mr. J. H. Nobles, the local vendor of game licenses issued 430 licenses this year, or eighty more than in the previous season. Some dissatisfaction is reported, has been expressed about the issuing of twenty-five cent licenses for shooting deer by farmers on their own land, as it is claimed it is apt to lead to infringements of the law.

The game law has been well enforced during the past few years, and the opinion is frequently expressed by those interested in the preservation of big game that if Surveyor General Grimmer has charge of the department for a few more years there will be three animals for every one now in the forest.

The heavy rains that prevailed during the season made it unpleasant for the sportsmen in the woods but most of them met with success. Mr. Adam Moore, the guide, speaking with The Standard a short time ago said that although the weather has been unfavorable the sportsmen he had taken to the woods had obtained heads.

The Record Moose Head. The record moose head of the season it is believed was shot by Mr. Phillips of Tracey Station and measured 68 inches. There were only about three heads with a spread of sixty inches or over. One of these was shot by a gentleman guided by Mr. Arthur Pringle, on the southwest branch of the Miramichi. The largest head to be shot in St. John county measured 58 inches and fell to the gun of Mr. English near Lepreau.

A freck head with a double set of antlers was shot by Mr. Muller near New River. During the past two days the firm of Simbaldi and Ogden Smith, taxidermists, have received six moose and ten deer heads. The heads received during the close of the season Mr. Simbaldi says were larger than those sent in at first. He reports that a ten o'clock moose and deer have been shot but on account of the weather few caribou have been captured.

Notes. During the past fiscal year, 256,189-380 cigarettes were manufactured in Canada and 12,263,928 imported. The bulk of the manufacture was in Quebec, that province having to its credit 326,712,280 as against 29,477,100 in Ontario.

Dr. Schoenfer brought out the fact that the Imperial Government spent over $10,000,000 in Canada during the South African War.

The Department of Agriculture expended $3,142,742 on its behalf in purchasing supplies, and the Department of Militia for horses, equipment, etc., and $600,000 for clothing, saddlery, etc., purchased in Canada for imperial troops.

The North Atlantic Trading Company is selling the Government for $70,000 for the contract. Mr. Uriah Wilson brought this out.
