Men's Tan Waterproof Boots.

Men's Black Waterproof Boots.

The most satisfactory boot a man can have is a pair of Dry Foot Boots. The selection of our fall and winter boots gives us a good deal of consideration. We are particular where the leather comes from, how it is put together, and by whom. The DOCTOR'S "SPECIAL," made by J. & T. Bell, of Montreal, who have been making good shoes for a hundred years, is a boot we can fully recommend. They are as near being absolutely waterproof as it is humanly possible to make boots. Imported calfskin in uppers. Leather lined throughout. Viscolized bottoms. Goodyear welt.

MR. CARVELL'S OWN BANQUET HONORED BY BAR AND JURY DURING COURT YESTERDAY

Hard work mustering up a bunch for a showing at Fredericton today.

(Fredericton Gleaner.)
Mr. Easily Satisfied Carter, the man who didn't get that $10,000, arrived from St. John last evening in his official capacity as chief press agent and general manager of the Carvell-Dugal Hippodrome. He is at the Queen Hotel today and has kept the telephone wires hot endeavoring to get a crowd here for the banquet which ex-Capt. Carvell is to give himself tomorrow evening.

When Mr. Carter conceived the idea of Mr. Carvell giving himself a banquet he told Sir John French's critic that they could get a crowd of 400 here and make the affair a big success. Mr. Carter has since found his difficulty to deliver the goods. A conference of friends of "Good Government" was called for the day following the banquet in the hope that the small army of grafters who feasted on Central Railway funds and other public monies prior to 1908 would assemble and a good many of them are expected to be on hand tomorrow. But not any 400—Mr. Carvell's friends admitted that tearfully today.

Mr. Moses Mitchell, Mayor of Fredericton, had asked for the job of chairman, and it may be that Mr. Carter will be unable to avoid giving His Worship the job.

GOIN FOR THE WOUNDED ALLIES

Allies' Aids doing well in unique undertaking - Furs for some lucky winner.

The Allies Aids were at the Sign of the Lantern tea room in Germain street, last night, meeting with much encouragement in all directions in their endeavor to raise $1,000 before Christmas, to be distributed in coin amongst the wounded soldiers of the allies. The ladies in charge of the undertaking, headed by Miss Violet Whitaker and Miss Lois Grimmer as a committee, have no doubt that at least the sum named will be available by the 25th inst. It is the intention to forward the money collected to Dr. Murray MacLaren to be distributed amongst the allies.

Last night the set of pony and seal furs, consisting of a mink and the, donated by a King street firm, was on view at the tea room. This set is being raffled for the punch board plan. There are 300 squares on the board; a hole is punched, and the sum payable is determined by the figures on the corresponding square at the back.

To punch number 1 square means that a cent will be exacted; if a hole be made in number 299 square the cashier will be delighted to hand the puncheon one cent in exchange for three dollars. When all the holes have been punched the numbers will be placed in a hat and the handsome prize drawn for in the usual way.

Nearly $700 had been collected up till late last night, and as there are yet several nights set apart for collecting money for the object in view, it is thought that the $1,000 will soon be forthcoming. The meetings of the Aids are held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights. On some of these nights dancing will form a feature of the general plan of entertainment.

AUTHOR OF "LIFE AND TIMES OF STRATHCONA" MAY FACE LIBEL SUIT

London, Dec. 2.—The painful impression caused by the publication of W. T. R. Preston's "Life and Times of Lord Strathcona," is deepening, the Daily News denouncing the book as a piece of muddling.

A prominent official in the High Commissioner's office stated today that he contemplated suing the author for libel because of the groundless accusation on page 261, that the official had supplied information concerning Sir Frederick Borden to a London journal which, if true, would have caused Sir Frederick's retirement from public life.

WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Fairville, when Charles Frederick McCuskey, of West St. John, was married to Miss Ethel M. Symest of Fairville. The bride, who wore a handsome dress of pale blue silk, with maribout trimmings, and carried a bouquet of white roses, was given away by her father, William Symest, and was attended after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Gilbert Earle, supper was served. The happy couple will reside at 146 St. John street, West St. John. They received numerous presents, including a chair from the choir of the Fairville Methodist church, of which the bride was a member, and a dining room set from the parents and brothers of the bride; a cheque from the Partington Pulp and Paper Company, with whom the bride had been employed, and cash from the parents of the bridegroom.

Pleasing recognition of new Chief Justice's promotion to head of King's Bench Division, a feature of his first local appearance in that capacity - A well merited honor.

A pleasing incident "not on the docket," occurred in the Court Room yesterday afternoon when members of the Grand Jury and representatives of the legal profession, took occasion to extend a cordial welcome to Chief Justice Landry, on the occasion of his first appearance on the St. John Circuit since his appointment to the Chief Justiceship of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Richard O'Brien, foreman of the Grand Jury, read the following address to His Honor:

To the Honorable Pierre Armand Landry, K.C., D.C.L., Chief Justice of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of the Province of New Brunswick.

May it please your Honor: We, the Grand Jurors of the City and County of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, now in session, take great pleasure in offering you our congratulations, on this your first appearance, at the present sittings of this Honorable Court, in the capacity of the Chief Justice of the King's Bench Division of the Supreme Court of the Province of New Brunswick.

For a period of forty-four years you have faithfully and honorably discharged public duties of great importance. These duties, whether acting in the halls of the Legislature of New Brunswick as a representative of your native county; or acting as chief of the Department of Public Works, in the Executive of the Province; or Provincial Secretary of the same; or as a representative of your native county, in the Dominion Parliament; or as County Court Judge; or as Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, were performed with marked ability and unflinching courtesy.

It is our fervent wish that your Honor may be spared to discharge the important functions of the position so worthily won, and in the enjoyment of the respect and confidence of the community at large.

RICHARD O'BRIEN, Foreman.

The Recorder's Tribute
Recorder Baxter who came into court during the presentation of the address, then said:

On coming into court a few minutes ago I was pleased to learn from my friend, Mr. Mullin, that the grand jury of this city and county had chosen this occasion to record their appreciation of the wise and judicious decisions of the late Chief Justice.

For upwards of twenty years subsisted between your Honor and the public. He was good enough to suggest that I, as President of the Barriers' Society of New Brunswick, should take this opportunity of saying a few words on behalf of the Bar and I gladly avail myself of the occasion. I am sure that for the entire bar when I say that throughout your judicial career there has never been an instance when there has been any other feeling towards you than that of respect and admiration. Your kindness toward the younger members of the bar, especially towards the officers of the court, the witnesses and everyone connected with the administration of justice has been notable. Reference has been made to your position in public life as a representative of a race which comprises nearly one-third of the population of this province. Permit me to say that, as the exponent of that race, your Honor has done much to bring us all together. English and French speaking alike. You have demonstrated that, after all, neither race nor language makes a real difference, but that we have all essentially the same feelings and the same aims. When we know each other better all thought of external difference passes away. At no time in the history of the world has this idea been so freely exemplified as at the present time, when the distinction of race and creed have been swept away and the lovers of justice in the human race have united their forces to demonstrate that a pledged word should be inviolate and that a solemn treaty is not a scrap of paper to be torn up and lightly cast aside. Whether it be administered in the courts of the nations or in private tribunals the idea of justice is fundamentally the same with that justice which your Honor has so long and so wisely administered in this province. Let me say also that we join in the hope that your Honor may yet be spared for many years to discharge the duties of the high office which you hold and to enjoy the distinction which you have so honorably won.

There was a distinct lapse from the usual decorum of the court room when the Recorder was loudly applauded for his graceful tribute to the Chief Justice.

Dr. Mullin

Dr. D. Mullin, K.C. who is a past president of the St. John Law Society and who is representing the Crown at this Circuit, followed Recorder Baxter. Mr. Mullin stated that Mr. Baxter has expressed the sentiment of the entire bar of this province. He said that litigants as well as members of the profession who came before him recognized the eminent judicial qualities of the Chief Justice of King's Bench. Mr. Mullin referred to the reception given his honor at a dinner tendered the late Chief Justice Tuck at Fredericton, which, to a small extent, was the sentiment of the entire bar of this province. He said that the affection in which Judge Landry was regarded by the bar.

Mr. Mullin closed his brief address with an eloquent reference to the French Acadians of New Brunswick whose forefathers are now fighting shoulder to shoulder with the soldiers of the King in Europe.

Dr. Quigley Speaks in French

Dr. Quigley, speaking in French, followed Mr. Mullin and said that as a member of the bar he was delighted to be present on this occasion and it afforded him sincere pleasure to join in the felicitations of the Grand Jury to the Chief Justice. He felt that on this occasion an honor had been done to the Acadian race (La Maison d'Acadie) in his person and in the position which he discharged with such profound satisfaction to the public, of which this gathering of today must be a most gratifying testimony. He would characterize it as an expression of the homage of posterity to the race, which he represented and to their qualities and achievements which beckon to the future. It was fitting that this homage should be paid in the metropolitan city of our province. It augurs well for future relations and is but the beginning of the great new era.

Judge Landry's Reply
His Honor replied as follows: Mr. Foreman and gentlemen of the Grand Jury:

I did not require this genial demonstration of courtesy on your part to convince me of the unfeigned kindness of the people of my native province towards me, and to cause me to fully appreciate the thoughtfulness and generosity of your expressions.

Just about twenty years ago at the first circuit court over which I preside in this Court House, a generous address of welcome with expressions of hope that I might well discharge the duties I assumed on accepting a seat on the Bench, was presented to me by the Grand Jurors of this city and county. It is with pride I note that this address, twenty years afterwards breathes the same spirit of friendship with expressions of satisfaction.

Your flattering references to my career starting from my first entering into public life, lead me at once to remember that before I was twenty-five years old I was honored with the mandate of my native county, as its representative in the local legislature. From that day to this in whatever capacity I have been called to act in the public service I have been actuated but by one motive, that of serving the best interests of the public as I understood them. And today, after forty-four years' service, it is most pleasing to me to have this expression of confidence and approval. It is the more gratifying because my efforts were to win by faithful and honest service, just such confidence had appeared.

While I feel flattered and honored by your generous testimony of good will, I do not fail to realize how far short I must have fallen of giving full return in value of service for the long and continuous moral and active support always given me by the people of this province. No act of importance was ever committed by me without first seeking approval. Will my conduct meet public approval? You generously say it has; I accept the assurance humbly.

I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good."

dress brings dear and cherished memories, my relationship to the French Acadians of this province. During my whole career, I will admit to you, that my greatest concern in working to advance the public good, was always and acutely my desire that my compatriots should profit by any influence I could exercise. This was not in a selfish sense. No desire on my part to deprecate my neighbors, descendants of other races; no concealed opinion that we were as a race their superiors; no attempt at taking from others to give to me; but a sincere desire to bring up to a level of equality my compatriots so long working under the immense disadvantage of their surroundings and condition. At twenty-four, when I entered the legislature I found them entirely poor, uneducated, void of political, social, commercial or professional influence, unrepresented by their own by-standers, that goes to give prestige, influence or voice in the affairs of one's country. And what was perhaps more to their disadvantage, not as favorably known to the English-speaking people as their good qualities entitle them to, but being looked upon as a negligible quantity, and in many quarters as a draw back to the general progress. Hence my efforts to bring about a better condition of things. And I will say it to the credit of the English-speaking people of this province, I never appealed to them on those grounds on behalf of my compatriots but I received generous and warm response, which has been accomplished by my wholesome influences outside of mine in the direction towards which my efforts tended, and I am proud of the humble part I took to facilitate such accomplishment. Today we are working hand in hand for the general good—and the matter of language is not taken as a mark of inferiority or hostility.

You have my assurance that my best efforts will be made in the future to deserve in part at least, the measure of approval you kindly bestow. I thank you most sincerely. Judge Landry gracefully spoke in French in acknowledgement of Dr. Quigley's congratulations in the same language.
