

DISTRICT ORANGE LODGE ANNUAL MEETING.

Large Attendance, and Very Satisfactory Reports Presented.

Addressed by District Master, W. B. Wallace, Recalling Events of the Last Year—Election of Officers and Appointment of Committees.

The annual meeting of St. John District L. O. N. 1 was held in Orange hall, Germain street, Tuesday, There was a very large attendance of delegates, more than 100 members of the district lodge being present.

District Master Wm. B. Wallace occupied the chair. County Master S. E. Moore, P. D. Master C. S. Skinner, P. C. Master Robert Maxwell, P. G. Master McArthur, and P. G. Master British America, A. J. Armstrong were seated on the platform.

After the lodge was opened the district master appointed the following committee—Finance and audit—C. B. Ward, Wm. Simpson and E. S. Hennigan.

Credentialed—Robert Maxwell, Joseph Johnston, and Robert Rubin.

The master then read his annual address, as follows:

Brother Deputy and Brethren—A year ago I was honored by you my brethren and placed in the high and important position of district master. The time has glided away pleasantly and another mile stone on our life's journey has been reached. We are now in the midst of another year, and we are viewing with varying emotions the retrospects of the past year. As we review the year, we are reminded of the many things that we have done, and of the many things that we have yet to do.

From all quarters in this province come reports that the star of our association is in the ascendant, and that the beneficent rays of its sun are unobscured by the clouds of ignorance, prejudice and selfishness. It is being felt that the guiding light of truth is shining brightly, and that the path of duty is being trodden with firm and unshakable steps.

The fraternal caravan, which moves to that mysterious realm, where each shall find his chamber in the silent halls of death.

Among those who have passed into the unknown abyss of the future I have to refer to the decease of our late brother James Kelly, the news of whose sudden death at Halifax was a shock to his friends and a sad message to his wife and family of small children.

He was a past grand master of this jurisdiction and a past district master of this jurisdiction. He was not only an active citizen but an enthusiastic and zealous Orangeman, and one whose aggressive and genial spirit will be missed at our annual meetings. In his character as grand master he was best known to you, and his untimely decease is a great loss to our association. During his term of office he will be remembered by you.

As your representative, I attended the session of the Grand Orange Lodge of New Brunswick held at Fredericton on the 12th of March last. There was some discussion on the matter of proposition and a scheme was adopted, having voted and committee appointed for this important work, but while we all heartily endorse what has been done, yet we should ever keep before us the fact that the great element of proposition lies in publicity and fearless proclamation of its principles, and in putting before the most influential men at the head of our ranks as heralds of those principles and as guardians of our interests.

I also in my representative capacity attended the session of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America, held on the Canadian side of Niagara Falls on 4th June last, when I had the pleasure of meeting with many of the prominent members of our order.

Inside routine business, the exemplification of the royal charter degree under a new seal and the discussion of matters appertaining to the ritual took up so much of our time that many of the notes of motion had to stand over until next session. I also there met some of our American Orange Brethren, who were tending a session of their great lodge in the city of New York. I shall long remember the scene as the members of our two great organizations stood on either bank, bidding each other farewell with that mighty river between us, its picture always before me, and its waters as they rolled tumultuously toward the brink of a precipice and then leapt fearfully and trustfully forward to smother the waters below, assuring its power and demonstrating its usefulness to man, and with generous grandeur proclaiming the busy work of the Great Creator.

On the 21st May last we were called upon to celebrate the advent of peace in South Africa. The war in this country, brought about by the prejudice and arrogance of some, and hatred and fostered by the envy, hatred and display of others, has destroyed many a life, broken up many a home, and made the tears of the widow, the orphan and the bereaved one to water the earth. This acquisition made to ascertain or disloyal regard in this matter, and many of its members and their sons, inspired with feelings of patriotism in their country and loyalty to their sovereign, volunteered their services, and in some instances lost their lives in the heroic and glorious battles.

the honor and integrity of the empire. We welcome the Anglo-Saxons to look forward to the development of that magnificent country, protected in its liberty by British government, and nurtured by and founded on the principles of British institutions.

The 15th day of July, the one day all Orangemen are so solemnly bound to keep in grateful remembrance, was duly celebrated by a parade through the streets of our city from the hall to Indiantown, where we embarked on the good steamer Victoria and were swiftly conveyed to Fredericton. There we were received by our York county brethren and joined in with them and after we had traversed many of the streets and avenues of that city, to the inspiring strain of semi-martial music, the procession broke ranks and we dispersed, each one going to the different places of interest according to the best of his inclination. The day was perfect, the turnout excellent and I have no doubt the brethren thoroughly enjoyed themselves, although it is much to be regretted that there was no opportunity of understanding as to public addresses at Fredericton on that occasion.

The 23rd June was appointed for the coronation of His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward VII, but as critical illness caused a postponement of that great event until the 9th August last. This occasion was celebrated by our members and I have the auspices of the St. John county L. O. L. Beneath the glorious sunbeams, beaming out from the depths of the magnificent hills adorned with royal flags and designs; along streets lined with cheering crowds, rally decked in holiday attire with cannon thundering plaudits in our ears, we marched with them in procession to St. James' Episcopal church, and there attended divine service, thanking our Heavenly Father for the recovery of our beloved and dearly loved royal subjects, rejoicing in the presence of representatives from all parts of his great dominions beyond the seas, and flanked by the envoys of other powers, he had been crowned and proclaimed King of this realm according to the rights and ceremonies as the British established and acknowledged by the British nation.

After the address was read it was handed to a committee composed of George Jenkins, James Keys and James Holman, to report on.

W. J. Armstrong, secretary-treasurer of the hall trustees, then read his report, showing the hall to be in a very good position financially, there being a large balance on hand, and we have not a cent in debt. The district secretary read his reports. They were handed to the finance and audit committee.

After all the committees had reported, the lodge proceeded to the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

W. D. M. Wm. B. Wallace.

W. D. M. George R. Baxter.

D. Chapman, C. P. Robinson.

D. sec. M. A. McLeod.

D. fin. sec. D. B. Webster.

D. D. C. Joseph Sullivan.

D. D. C. J. W. White.

D. lecturer, Wm. Irvine.

D. inside Tyler, Fred. Dick.

The election and installation was conducted by the D. G. M., A. J. Armstrong.

After the officers were installed there were speeches by C. N. Skinner, Hon. H. A. McKeown, the newly elected officers, J. B. Morrill and other members of the order.

ment striking out the words "for a period of one year," which was voted down. He then proposed an amendment placing all coals on the free list, which was likewise voted down.

Alexander Dick Talks in Boston.

The Boston Herald of yesterday has the following: "The Boston market has taken about all the coal we have been able to produce, outside our contracts, this winter, and even if the duty of 75 cents a ton were removed, and I do believe it will be, we couldn't help you much in the way of staying off a coal famine in Boston."

This statement was made by Alexander Dick, a member of the Dominion Coal Company, to a Herald reporter last evening. Mr. Dick is now in Boston looking after some shipping contracts. He says that just before he left the shipments are, where they are consigned, what the price is, or anything else about them, but he can't say.

"We," he said, "and have to be very careful about what we say for publication. You have to be very careful about what you read the newspapers, and if I should go into prices and other details it might get into trouble later on. You can say, however, that all the coal we can spare, after supplying the home market will come to Boston and other New England ports."

We have been sending some here during the winter, but we are looking forward to the Boston and Maine and the New England Gas & Coke Company, and we have also sent some to Portland (Me.), and Portsmouth (N. H.).

"We have six collieries running, and the output is 12,000 tons a day. The demand in Canada has increased greatly in the winter, but this has resulted in a shortage of anthracite, and it is our duty to supply this demand before looking for outside markets. That the Canadian people expect, and they would look upon it as a species of treachery if we should send coal to Boston while there was a shortage of coal here."

"What is your coal selling for now in Sydney?" Mr. Dick was asked. "I would rather not give prices," he replied. "There has been very little advance on account of the strike."

"The statement has been made that anthracite coal, brought from the Pennsylvania mines during the present winter, has been selling at Canadian ports at a lower figure than the people of Boston have been compelled to pay. Is that true?"

"I do not know, of course, what you have been paying for coal here, except in a general way, but I have heard that anthracite coal has been selling in St. John (N. B.) at from $12 to $15 a ton."

"What is the duty on coal going into Canada from this country?" "There is a duty of 50 cents a ton on bituminous. There is no duty on anthracite. There is very little bituminous coal shipped to Canada from this country, but a small amount goes to Toronto."

Mr. Dick said that Sydney coal is very much like our bituminous, some of it a little better, but there is no anthracite mined in Canada.

THE EXTRAORDINARY CONDITION OF AFFAIRS EXISTING IN DIGBY.

Town Without a Government, Mayor and All Resigning.

ESTATE OF JOHN FRASER IN PROBATE COURT AT HAMPTON

Interesting Points Arise in Passing Accounts of Late St. John Resident.

Hampton, N. B., Jan. 15.—Judge Gilbert was engaged today on the return of the citation to pass the accounts of the late John Fraser, who in his lifetime was a well-known shipbuilder in St. John. Previous to his death the deceased was in financial difficulties, and a number of judgments were entered up against him, but the sheriff failed to discover any property and the executions were returned "no good."

Since Mr. Fraser's death, nearly $8,000 has been collected by the executors. A further large sum has been found in his credit in the hands of William Thomson & Sons.

A George Fraser, of Australia, claims the money in Messrs. Thomson's hands, and has forbidden Messrs. Thomson paying the money over to the Fraser estate. The executors have not rank over ordinary debts in insolvent estates. In the proceedings today, the lawyers for the judgment creditors insisted that judgments rank among secured debts, and therefore should be paid in full or so far as the estate would permit over ordinary debts.

Judge Gilbert decided to hear the argument on the matter of judgment on February 21 next.

A. H. Hamilton, K. C., represented James Collins, of King's Quay, Macaulay Bros. & Company; Geo. H. V. Belyea, C. Flood & Sons; H. H. Pickett, Alex. Fraser, James Hamilton; and Chapman & Tully the ordinary creditors. W. A. Ewing represented the estate.

It is said the town is in the best shape financially since the days of incorporation and that the future prospects are good.

The trouble has occurred just at a time when the railway is looking forward toward increased shipping facilities, which are bound to give the town a big boom. The Digby-Sydney line of railway will also be seeking terminal facilities here.

Judge Holdsworth declines to talk to a newspaper man. The reason that the papers were taken from the police officer is, the judge claims, that a prosecutor under the Temperance Act has no right to serve his own papers.

Ex-Mayor Sprague is president of the Liberal Association here and Councillors Jonathan Lettice, Geo. H. Peters and W. Hayden are also Liberals in politics as well as Judge Holdsworth. Councillors J. H. Syda, S. W. Tutin and C. A. Dakin are Conservatives. The latter will not align themselves with either party.

PROBATE COURT.

Citation was returnable Wednesday in the matter of the estate of the late Margaret A. Hazen. The application, which was for the appointment of George M. Anderson and David H. Anderson, brothers of the deceased, as administrators, was opposed, and the court was adjourned to the 21st of January.

The late Sir J. Douglas Hazen was suggested for the appointment as administrator, but as an interested party, Dr. L. A. Curry, K. C., S. A. M. Skinner, and Hon. C. N. Skinner appeared for David H. Anderson and George M. Anderson; Attorney-General Pugsley for Sarah Lettice, a sister of the deceased; Dr. A. O. Earle, K. C., for John Johnston, a niece; and J. Roy Campbell, for Charles V.
