COL. McLEAN AND HIS CONSTITUENCY.

To the Editor of The Telegraph: Sir,—Now that the smoke of the campaign has blown away and the political horizon is clear, we in our moments of leisure, can look over the battle fields of Queens county and Sunbury.

An outsider might think it was a great blow to the Conservatives, but this would be far from a just estimate of the feeling, for from the writer's experience in discussing the situation so many Conservatives are remarked: "Our old friend, Mr. Wilnot, has had a long run and undoubtedly in the opinion, but now that we are with the government and have a keen business man like Col. McLean to look after our interests, it will probably be for the benefit of the two counties, which is a strong redeeming feature for us for all back."

It is generally conceded that Col. McLean put up a strong, clean fight, never descending to anything that was small or mean, just a straight businesslike fight, it speaks for itself when you consider Messrs. White and Hay tried to gain this seat and were defeated, and just here we have a point for Mr. Hazen's consideration—in each case Mr. Wilnot won out without Mr. Hazen's aid.

The writer has found that so many that worked and voted for Mr. Hazen regret that he had not given his attention to some other county and allowed us to fight on our own battle, or to put it as expressed: "I am with Mr. Hazen and stood at his back last March but want him to allow us to run our federal politics as we think best. By his interfering he will do himself more hurt than Mr. Wilnot could."

Hazen cannot help but recognize, speaking from results.

Let Col. McLean run today and his majority would be 220 instead of 22. This is not fiction by any means.

Thanking you, sir, for space.

Yours truly,
FARMER.

Deceased, who was a native of Ireland, was aged seventy-four years, and came to this country when a young man with his family and for many years resided in the employ of Alexander Gibson at Marysville, but had to retire from active work some time ago, and has since been residing on the Woodstock road. He will operate the mill at Debe this winter and in the spring the machinery will be brought to this city and placed in a new mill to be erected on the property on Campbell street, below the Estey mill site. The present mill at Debe is thirty feet wide and eighty feet long, and is fitted with rotary planers, lath and shingle machines. About twenty-five men are employed.

The death of John Good, a well known resident of the lower city, took place this morning, after he had been in poor health for some time. He was a native of Ireland and was aged seventy years. County Roads. A St. Martins correspondent writes: "The roads near Ten Mile Creek, parish of St. Martins, where the government's new expert road commissioner expended $800 last summer, are now in a shocking state. There have only been a couple of small rains, and no frost coming out of the ground, but it seems that mud on the roads won't stand thin any longer under Tory rule than under Grit. I presume Mr. Hazen and his party are quite busy now in Northumberland and Carleton counties, and in Albert things look not too rosy."

Mrs. J. J. Davis, jr., and daughter, of Charlottetown, are registered at the Victoria.

AVERAGE GAIN IS ABOUT $100

(Tuesday, November 24.)

The question of increased stipends for the Church of England clergymen in New Brunswick was taken up at a special meeting of the board of missions held here last evening and a schedule of increases averaging about $100 was submitted.

The stipends in New Brunswick have remained the same during the last thirty years but at the meeting of the synod last month it was decided that the question of increases must be faced because of the increased cost of living. This will be presented to the rural deaneeries by deputations from the board of missions in St. John, Fredericton, St. Stephen, Woodstock, Moncton and Chatham.

The meeting for St. John will be held in Trinity church school room at 10:30 o'clock this morning and will be addressed by Rev. Canon Smithers, Rev. Canon Cowie and H. B. Schofield. It is believed that the revised schedule of stipends will give general satisfaction.

MR. HAZEN HAS TROUBLES HERE, TOO

A Pretty Little Row Over an Ante-Election Promise of Office

FOLLOWER TO OUST FACTORY INSPECTOR

Fulfillment of Promise by Some Local M's P. Demanded, But Dr. McInerney Puts Foot Down, and is Said to Threaten Resignation.

While Mr. Hazen has been having his own troubles in various counties, as reported from time to time, St. John is not without its share of vexatious incidents.

There is a story current that there has been a pretty row in the ranks over the position of factory inspector, held by Captain John McInerney, who was appointed some years ago.

It is said that previous to the March elections two of the Conservative candidates and some other party men agreed among themselves and promised one of their adherents that if Mr. Hazen was returned to power Captain McInerney would be ousted from his place and that this man would get the position.

A third one of the quartette of candidates is said not to have been enthusiastic over the matter, while the fourth, Dr. McInerney, was not directly consulted at all, and when he learned of it was not at all pleased. If there was to be a change he had another appointee in view.

The elections came off with the result known, and the Hazen government was returned to power. Then came demands for the fulfillment of the promise which had been made and which, it was said, Mr. Hazen, though not without some reluctance, had agreed to. It is now stated that Dr. McInerney has put his foot down and has even gone as far as to say that if this is carried out there will be a representation to the Legislature.

There is also a report from other North End sources intimating a further loss of friends in that quarter if the deal goes through. Upon the whole, it is believed that Captain McInerney will remain in office.

LOCAL NEWS. The treasurer of the S. P. C. A. acknowledges the receipt of $10 from Mrs. Gilbert Murdoch.

High Toner, of Missou, while hunting on the Black River road near West Beach Monday, shot a fine moose, weighing 400 or 1,000 pounds. The antlers had a spread of fifty-eight inches.

On Friday last two accidents happened in the streets of St. John. One was a horse belonging to Ald. Rowan, while being driven near the Provincial Hospital, took fright at a passing street car. The driver attempted to check the horse, but the reins broke and the animal ran across the elevated sidewalk, leaping five feet into a field. The harness was broken, but no other damage was done.
