

This will be the fifth specialist conference on educational topics of general concern to Commonwealth members and it will bring together delegates from Commonwealth countries, and observers from a number of international organizations. The Conference will provide an opportunity for those directly involved in the planning, administration and execution of educational programmes in rural areas to discuss present problems and practices, and consider trends and possibilities for future development.