

purity, quality and fitness for consumption inferior to such standards, shall be deemed within the prohibition of the laws relating to the Customs ;

As to
transportation
of goods in
bond or duty
paid.

“(s.) For prescribing the rule and conditions under which goods imported in bond or duty paid, and products or manu- 5
factures of Canada, may be transported from one port or place in Canada to another port or place therein, over any territory or waters outside the limits of Canada ; provided that the goods so transported shall, upon arrival in Canada from any place beyond the limits of Canada, be treated with regard to 10 the liability to, or exemption from duty, as if the transportation had taken place entirely within the limits of Canada.”