

but few. He has, in the above book, given the public a thrilling story of adventure; the scene is laid in Germany, and the characters being mostly persons of rank, which makes their lives and experiences to the reader doubly interesting.

"THEN, AND NOT 'TIL THEN."—A novel, by Clara Nevada McLeod. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00. We take pleasure in introducing to the reading public, this new and promising writer, whose pathetic story is certain to create widespread attention. This book has been written with a purpose, and the authoress has handled her subject in such a comprehensive manner, that the reader will not only be delightfully entertained, but have the opportunity of considering thoughtfully with her, one of the most important problems of the day.

"THE BLUE RIDGE MYSTERY."—A novel, dealing with Southern events, since the war, by Caroline Martin. Cloth, 12mo. 75 cents. Without question, all lovers of good fiction will want to read the above story. The author's ability of description, drafting of characters, and picturing the pleasures and vicissitudes befalling the people of her imagination, tends to produce a volume of unusual interest.

"Scarlet, or White?"

A NOVEL, BY Dr. Willis Mills.

CLOTH, EMBOSSED IN SILVER, 12 MO., - $1.00.

"So delicately has Dr. Mills handled his story, that not a single instance can be found from cover to cover where there is any disposition to minister to bad taste"—Atlanta Journal.

"Dr. Mills, in his book 'SCARLET, OR WHITE?' insists that there is neither reason nor common sense in society blindly following the customs of ages in its treatment of fallen women. He has handled the question very delicately."—Houston Post.

"Dr. Mills treats with ability and discretion a question of great delicacy—that of social purity. This subject needs just such handling as the author gives it, and is deserving of consideration and attention."—Christian Herald.