

Office workers should use Lifebuoy Soap

Think of the hundreds of dusty, germ laden things you must touch every day! Think of the danger to your skin. You need the best soap—and more—the best disinfectant. You get both in

LIFEBUOY HEALTH SOAP

Its healing, soothing oils and grateful disinfectants thoroughly cleanse and disinfect—particularly useful for bruises, cuts, wind sores, etc.

The carbolic odour in Lifebuoy is a sign of its protective qualities, quickly vanishing after use.

The Western Home Monthly

Published Monthly
Vol. XXI. By the Home Publishing Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Can. No. 2

The Subscription Price of The Western Home Monthly is $1.00 a year, or three years for $2.00, to any address in Canada or British Isles. The subscription to foreign countries is $1.50 a year, and within the city of Winnipeg limits and in the United States $1.25 a year. Remittances of small sums may be made with safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more would be well to send by registered letter or Money Order. Postage Stamps will be received the same as cash for the fractional parts of a dollar, and in any amount when it is impossible for patrons to procure bills. Change of Address.—Subscribers wishing their address changed must state their former as well as new address. All communications relative to change of address must be received by us not later than the 20th of the preceding month. When You Renew be sure to sign your name exactly the same as it appears on the label of your paper. If this is not done it leads to confusion. If you have recently changed your address, and the paper has been forwarded to you, be sure to let us know the address on your label.

A Chat With Our Readers

NOW of all times in the year is the proper season to get up a club for The Western Home Monthly. Mid-winter is the time when people are interested in subscribing for periodicals, and as The Western Home Monthly is conceded to be the best magazine published at anywhere near the price, it is a very easy matter for any one in any neighborhood to get up a club of subscribers. For such efforts in our behalf we give very liberal rewards. Some of these offers were described in recent issues of the journal, but our Complete Premium List, which all who contemplate getting up a club should have, will be sent free to any address on application. If you have not already sent for it, do so at once. It is the most attractive Premium List we have ever issued, and illustrates and describes articles in which everyone will be interested.

The Western Home Monthly is willing at all times to render as great a service as possible to its readers. The editors of the different departments will answer any question that may be puzzling you. If you are in doubt regarding anything that comes under the following headings, write to the Editor. Ask only helpful, practical questions:
Care of Children.
Fashions and Dressmaking.
Knitting, Crocheting and Embroidery.
Home Building and Decorating.
Food and Kitchen Problems.
General Information.

Your Christmas issue best ever. Let me wish you and your good paper a Happy New Year.
Bonnycastle Dale,

December 26th, 1918.
Battle Ridge, Alta.
Dear Sirs:—The Western Home Monthly is the best story paper I have ever read.
Yours truly,
Herman H. Smith

Dear Sir:—I wish to tell you that I received the tray which I was to have as premium, and I can't explain how beautiful I thought it was, and how well pleased I am with it. I do hope I can serve you again in the future.

With compliments of the season,
Yours sincerely,
Tilda Falla

Dear Old W. H. M.—With thankfulness I renew my subscription, thankful to God the war is over and the victory is ours and our allies. Please find $3.00 for two years' subscription. Just got Christmas number and it is good. I am 83 years old, but I long for The Western Home Monthly as I used to long for a letter from my best girl. Wishing The Western Home Monthly a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and all the success it deserves, and that is more than any other magazine in Canada.

Ever yours,
John Flukre.

Dear Sirs:—I received the prize set of dishes and thank you very much for them. They are certainly a fine reward for the small number of subscriptions required to get for them.

Yours truly,
Mrs. McCafferty.

Carlton, Sask.,

Dear Sirs:—I have always found the Western Home Monthly very interesting, especially the Farm Pages, as they are just what a farmer likes to read, also the short and interesting stories.

I extend my heartiest wish towards your success in the future and trust that the business with the Western Home Monthly will be even greater than 1918.

Sincerely yours, Fred Bavidge.

For Dairy Utensils use

Old Dutch Cleanser

It cleans quickly and thoroughly. It is better and more economical than soap or any other cleansing material. Use Old Dutch for cleaning everything throughout the house—it lightens labor.

For the Informal Occasion

SUNDAY night supper—or when intimates drop in unexpectedly—EDDY'S Paper Serviettes are quite appropriate. They lend a certain refreshing, pic-nic-y flavor to the occasion, like when you are seated on the grass, and somebody starts telling stories. And besides they save your linen serviettes—and that's an item nowadays.

Ask your dealer for a package of Eddy's Paper Serviettes today. You'll find them useful and economical.
