Dear Nurses: We have Flo and you'll never see her again unless there are at least 20 nurses at Hammerfest. Remember, Wood burn!

Would the person who picked up the blue K-way from N-105 last Friday Morning please return it. Now, not only am I broke and hungry; I'm cold! Please call 472-8913 if you've found it.

Congratulations to Brian Sykes and his soon to be Mrs.; Carol Fraser. The kids in Forestry wish you large increments of growth together and hope that the future brings you a high sustained yield.

Experience secretary will type essays, letters, manuscripts, etc. Call Dianne 453-4889 or 454-7690.

Scared to party!! Come to a Hallowe'en Social, held by the Biological and Health Sciences Society, Oct. 30 from 2100 to 0100 in the SUB, Room 26. For members and guests. Plenty of prizes and Booze.

Hear, hear! the easygoing and adaptable style of Barb and John, who did another fine feature show last Thursday night. It's that one time during the week I'm compelled to listen to CHSR. How about you?

Want to go to Costa Rica? Come to the next WUSC meeting and get more info. Sunday, 8 p.m. Room 103 SUB. All those who are interested in writing and performing in their own skit in this year's Red 'n Black Revue are asked to please call Karen Haglund at 455-6437 or Lynn Fraser at 457-1826 for an audition appointment.

It's that time of year again my friends

For me to write this invite, Of howls and chills and hair raising screams And blood covered hatchets at night

A party encore is going to take place

At 10 o'clock Hallowe'en night At Brunswick Springs, Yes 189 Where dancing and booze is your plight

But you must be dressed, trying your best

If you are to enter at all So bring your own booze

You've got nothing to lose Just your soul and your mind for awhile.
