

- (i) his father was born within His Majesty's allegiance; or
- (ii) his father was a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted; or
- (iii) his father had become a British subject by reason of any annexation of territory; or
- (iv) his father was at the time of that person's birth in the service of the Crown; or
- (v) his birth was registered at a British consulate within twelve months after its occurrence or within two years after its occurrence in any case where the registration was made with the consent referred to in paragraph (b)(v) of subsection one of the British Act ..... and
- (c) any person born on board a British ship whether in foreign territorial waters or not;
- Provided that the child of a British subject, whether that child was born before or after the commencement of this Act, shall in the Union be deemed to have been born within His Majesty's allegiance if born in a place where by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage or sufferance or other lawful means, His Majesty exercises jurisdiction over British subjects:
- Provided also that any person whose British nationality is conditional upon registration