

three months from the date of your letter the sale to him will be cancelled and the land otherwise disposed of by the Department.

You will report the result at the expiration of the time indicated.

The money paid by the last purchaser may be refunded if he desires it. Should he however elect to wait until the expiration of the three months and the conditions of previous sale be not then complied with he will be recognized as the purchaser and the money paid by him placed to his credit as a part of the purchase money.

I am,

Sir,

Yours very truly

A. M. Smith

Director of the Department of the Interior
