KNOX CHURCH

OWEN SOUND, ONT., June 7, 1924

My dear Willie,

I have not had an opportunity since the Budget was passed by such a magnificent majority of dropping you a line of congratulations. You have set the pace in this wonderful accomplishment for a great step forward and have gone a long way to restate the Liberal Party in the position, which many feared was threatened, of still being the custodian of the key to Progress and the friend of the common people. There is hard but one note of approval in every word. So far from following capital, the laws removed from so many articles require in the basic interests of our country will set free many millions of capital which will seek investment and so bring new life into the stagnant pools of investment activity. Coming up this country with several hundred Commissioners from all parts of Canada, it
