Sixth Witness - 13017616, Sgt. Wallace, H., 506 Coy, Pioneer Corps, having been duly sworn, states -

I was walking down the main road outside the R.A.S.C. Serjeants' Mess when I was attacked by four men. There were no words and no arguments; they just beat me up and left me on the ground. It was dark and the approximate time was 2335 hrs, 19th Aug., 1943. I now recognize these men, pointed out to me as the accused as being my assailants. I did see the flash Airborne Canada under their shoulder straps.
