

WINTER. AN ODE.

NO more the morn, with tepid rays

Unfolds the flow'r of various hue;
Noon spreads no more the genial blaze,

Nor gentle eve distills the dew.
The ling'ring hours prolong the night

Usurping darkness shares the day;
Her mists restrain the force of light
And Phœbus holds a doubtful sway.

By gloomy twilight half reveal'd
With sighs we view the hoary hill,
The leafless wood, the naked field,
The snow topp'd cot, the frozen rill.

No music warbles thro' the grove;
No vivid colours paint the plain;
No more with devious steps I rove
Thro' verdant paths now sought in vain. Aloud
