

"Wheresoever the body is," said their Master, "thither will the eagles be gathered together." Again, I say, the ministers of judgment find out the subject for judgment. The Judge of all the earth will do right. The arrow of the Almighty will surely reach its mark as it does here, and Ahab, the apostate, the representative of the revolted world, falls.

"He that hath ears to hear, let him hear!"

MARK OF A FAITHFUL SERVANT.

"For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake."—2 Cor. iv. 5.

The following incident recorded of Judson on the occasion of his return to his native land in broken health, after an absence of thirty years, aptly illustrates the above scripture. It affords also an affecting proof of devotedness to the interests of Christ, and is very precious in days like these, when many—who take the place of being servants of Christ—so frequently use similar occasions for the exaltation of man, if not for the display and gratification of self in a greater or less degree :

"Announced to address an assembly in a provincial town, and a vast concourse having gathered from great distances to hear him, he rose at the
