KING ANNOUNCES NO SURRENDER POLICY
In Course of Speech Proroguing House His Majesty Says Purpose Must be Achieved Before Peace is Declared

BRITISH SOLDIERS WERE REAL DEFENDERS OF PARIS
Were Strongly Supported by French Cavalry, but Bore Main Brunt of German Attack.

BRITISH SOLDIERS WERE REAL DEFENDERS OF PARIS
(Special to The Journal of Commerce.)
London, September 18.—Official account of the operations of the British army in France has heightened the pride of the English in their soldiers for the part they have been held upon the battle line at critical points where fighting qualities were at a premium.

GENERAL SIR JOHN FRENCH.
In the course of his speech before the House of Lords, Earl Kitchener, commenting on the work of General French, said: "Thanks to his superb leadership, the British Army has been able at all times to fight a fight that has thrown terror into the enemy."

WAR SUMMARY.
Official reports and press despatches indicate that neither Allies nor Germans have gained any successes in the four days' heavy fighting which has been raging along the new battle line extending from Noyon along the River Oise to Meuse, north of Verdun, and on the whole the situation remains unchanged.

GERMANS DEFEATED AT NANCY.
Bordeaux, September 18.—Official announcement of the defeat of the Germans in their attack on Nancy is given in a dispatch received at the War Office from General Durand, the Military Governor there.
"Thanks to success of our armies and brave resistance of the troops all danger to the former capital of Lorraine is averted."

NO PEACE TILL GERMANY IS CRUSHED.
Petograd, September 18.—Russia will enter into no peace negotiations until Germany is thrust into a position where it can no longer disturb the peace of Europe, according to an official inspired editorial printed here.

FOURTEEN WERE DROWNED WHEN STEAMERS COLLIDED
Families of Lighthouse Keepers Die in Waters of St. Lawrence When Collier Rammled S.S. Montigny.

QUEBEC, SEPTEMBER 18.—Fourteen lives were lost shortly before five o'clock this morning, when the Government steamer Montigny was rammled by the Black Diamond collier "Lingan" at Beaujeu Banks, a mile below Crane Island, and some 25 miles below Quebec City.

WOULD NOT RECEIVE THEM
President Wilson Declined to Give Audience to Delegation of German-Americans who Carried Protest.

WASHINGTON, SEPTEMBER 18.—President Wilson declined to receive the German-Americans from Chicago and other points in middle-west who come to protest against the alleged cruelties on Germans by Belgians and others.

BOYS IN GERMAN ARMY.
London, September 18.—The Exchange Telegraph Company's correspondent at Bordeaux sends the following despatch:—
"I saw among the prisoners a beardless Teuton boy, who was 15 years, and 9 months of age. He was a student in the Technical School at Mannheim and was wounded in a prisoner at the battle of Marne. He declared, in broken English, that all the students of his school who were over 15 years of age had been mobilized and placed in different regiments."

GERMANS DESTROY HOSPITAL.
London, September 18.—A Reuter despatch from Petograd says a report from the front declares that German troops destroyed the hospital at Janow, Galicia, filled with Austrian wounded in the belief that the patients were Russians.

ARRANGE TRADE EXHIBIT.
In addition an announcement has been made of a "foreign trade exhibit" in London on unique lines. While the United States is talking about exhibits here and there the British Board of Trade has arranged for its exhibits. These are to comprise a collection of merchandise such as is demanded by each country.

GERMAN FORTRESS DEPLETED.
Genoa, September 18.—All German fortresses along the Rhine are depleted of troops. Every man who could be spared is being rushed west to stiffen the centre between the rivers Meuse and Oise.

CANADIAN CAPTAIN KILLED.
(Special Correspondence.)
St. John, September 18.—St. John has given the life of a son of one of her most prominent families to the cause of the Empire. Captain Ernest Rae Jones, who was with the Cheshire Regiment, was killed in action in one of the engagements during the retreat from Mons. He was at first reported missing, but his death was confirmed in a telegram from his brother-in-law in London, that he was officially reported as the killed. He was aged 37, and the fifth son of Simeon Jones, a wealthy St. John brewer, one time mayor of this city, who now makes his home in England. Capt. Jones leaves five brothers and two sisters, besides his wife and two little children. One brother is Andrew Jones, of Jones and Glasco, Montreal.

PROGRESSING SLOWLY NORTH OF AISNE.
Paris, September 18.—It is officially announced that the French armies north of the Aisne are progressing slowly and that British have repulsed German counter attacks.

SAYS ALLIES' ATTACK HAS FAILED.
Berlin wireless to Sayville, September 18.—The attack of the Allies between the Oise and the Meuse is failing, says an official announcement.

GERMANS DESTROY HOSPITAL.
London, September 18.—A Reuter despatch from Petograd says a report from the front declares that German troops destroyed the hospital at Janow, Galicia, filled with Austrian wounded in the belief that the patients were Russians.

ALLIES STILL HAMMER AWAY BUT GAIN LITTLE
Progress on Left Wing Is Slow But Counter Attacks on Part of Germans are Repulsed

STRENGTHEN THEIR POSITION
On the Centre Between Rheims and Argonne Germans Maintain Purely Defensive Position—Russian Successes Continue All Along the Line.

Paris, September 18.—Official announcement has been made here that the left wing of the Allies is making slow progress at certain points, and that counter attacks by the Germans against the English army have been repulsed. The statement says, however, that there has been no important change in the situation. The official statement follows:—
The battle has continued along the whole front from the Oise to the region of Woivre during the entire day of the 17th, without important changes in the situation at any point.

GREAT BRITAIN BEGINS CAMPAIGN FOR WORLD'S TRADE
United States Will Have to Move Quickly or They Will Find Markets Forfeited by Germans Occupied by Britons.

New York, September 18.—Reports were received in New York city yesterday indicating that the United States will have to reckon with England commercially as it starts out to capture the trade of the outside world demoralized by the war.

GERMAN MOVE FOR PEACE.
London, September 18.—The Daily News announces it is in a position to state that the determined move for peace being made in the United States is officially inspired from the highest German quarters.

The accompanying map shows the daily retreat of the German army and the steady advance of the Allies. In one short week the Allies have forced the Germans back about seventy-five miles. According to to-day's despatches, the Allies are slowly but surely forcing the Germans back from their entrenched position along the River Aisne.

White Books' Show Chances.
An extract from the "white books" now being issued by the Board of Trade will show how the British are going about it:—
"The following information has been received from His Majesty's Consul at Alexandria:—
"If the cotton crop is successfully financed the conditions and prospects of trade will be favorable. The United Kingdom should secure a large proportion of the German Empire's very valuable trade with Egypt. In all manufactures of good quality, such as machinery, especially articles of apparatus, canvas hose, machine tools, gauges, wrought iron pipes and tubes, files, bolts, etc., and in textiles imitating popular patterns. Successful competition is improbable in inferior 'cheap and nasty' goods, such as crockery, pewter, ironmongery, haberdashery. Our serious difficulty is that long credit (six or twelve months) is indispensable, as fellahs pay only by installments."

commercial travellers to South America, especially to Brazil, Argentina, and Chile, with a view to capture of German trade in those markets.
"The passenger steamer Sterling has arrived at South Shields from Christiania with several Norwegian merchants, who have hitherto done business with Germany. Since the stoppage of the textile trade with that country Norway has been directing attention to Great Britain. Norway has for many years done an enormous business with German firms in textiles and the arrival of some of her merchants at South Shields en route for Lancashire aroused keen interest in commercial circles."
