Ireland.

Dublin, Jan. 23.—Cleric's magazine at Limerick was broken into last night and 6,000 pounds of dynamite stolen from it by persons unknown. The robbery creates consternation throughout Ireland.

Dublin, Jan. 23.—At the Munster Assizes to-day the outlaw leader, Connell, appeared as Queen's evidence against James and Jeremiah Twigg, charged with attacking Mrs. Fitzgerald's house. Connell deposed that he had been leader and armorer of a band of men sworn to serve the Irish Republic. Their acts of bravery were rewarded with money sent from Dublin. The brothers Twigg were each sentenced to seven years' penal servitude.

A Dublin despatch says that Dillon is very ill.

Cork, Jan. 24.—During the trial of the Twigg brothers, sentenced to penal servitude yesterday, Connell testified that he would never have turned informer, but he was informed on by some one who swore to the same oath of fidelity to the Irish Republic as himself. He said he was lieutenant of a secret band in Mill-street district, the captain being Jeremiah Ryan. Orders by the captain for clipping certain people and shooting others in the legs were found on Connell. The latter asserted there was no foundation for the statement that he pre-arranged with the police to get arrested. The evidence of Connell created a profound sensation.

Dublin, Jan. 24.—The Lord Lieutenant has refused to permit the presentation of the freedom of the city to Parnell and Dillon within the jail.

Cork, Jan. 25.—Five members of the Connell gang have been sentenced to from one to two years' imprisonment each.

Shelley, employed in the office of the United Ireland, has been arrested for inciting tenants not to pay their rent.

The Lord Lieutenant, replying to a deputation of the Dublin Corporation yesterday, said he regretted that under existing circumstances it would be impossible to release the members of Parliament now confined as suspects.

United Ireland will henceforth be published in Paris instead of London. Summaries in France relating to the land movement will be issued.

Dublin, January 26.—The Home Rule confederation of Great Britain has ceased to exist, being completely merged in the Land League.

At a weekly meeting of the Ladies Land League, Miss Reynolds, recently released from imprisonment, presided. Receipts for the general fund during the week were £101; for the prisoners' maintenance fund, £137.

Dublin Jan. 27.—A large force of military and police aided for arms at Limerick and Loughrea, county Galway, to-day. A number of treasonable papers were found. Twenty arrests were made.

It is stated that Parnell, Dillon and O'Kelly intend to resign their seats in Parliament, so that new members may take their seats before the division of the House of Commons relative to divorce.

Great Britain.

Children's defence of his administration of the army, and Lord Lytton's extremely angry speech at Woodstock directed against Gladstone, have attracted public attention in London. Lord Zetland's session from the Liberals has more real importance than Earl Grey's, being due to the alarm shared by other great Whig noblemen at Gladstone's supposed intention to reform the English land laws.

Italy.

Garibaldi, helpless, was conveyed ashore at Naples in a litter.

A Rome despatch says that Gen. Menabrea, the Italian Ambassador at London, has received most positive instructions not to uphold the Egyptian policy of England and France. Italy holds that if armed intervention in Egypt becomes inevitable it should be effected by Turkish troops.

Germany.

The speech of Bismarck in the Reichstag yesterday created great excitement. It was an enthusiastic reassertion of the doctrine of the Imperial Rescript as to the relations between the Prussian King and people, a direct challenge to the Reichstag, and very aggressive in tone. It caused a tremendous uproar in the House, although otherwise it made a favorable impression.

The defence of the Rescript which was made by members of the Right during the debate, is considered very weak.

Berlin, Jan. 23.—The police confiscated the last number of London Punch, in consequence of a cartoon on the recent Imperial Rescript.

France.

Paris, Jan. 26.—The Chamber of Deputies by 304 to 107 rejected the Government bill for the revision of the Constitution, including the provision of the Reviser de Lois. Gambetta handed to President Grey his resignation and those of his colleagues.

Paris, Jan. 26.—The President has sent to Dr. Pichon and Leon Say.

United States.

The jury in the Spayten-Dryvill inquest have rendered a verdict that George Melius, brakeman; G. Hamford, conductor; and Frank Barry, engineer, and J. M. Lawrence, Superintendent N. Y. C. & H. R. R., are responsible for the loss of life. The first named being guilty of willful and culpable neglect.

Guiteau was found guilty by the jury after one hour's deliberation. The verdict gives general satisfaction.

Canadian.

Halifax, Jan. 23.—The tug H. P. Farrington, belonging to Cornell's Towing Co., was blown up to-night while lying at the dock. The crew, seven men in all, were on board at the time. The tug was blown three hundred feet, with pieces of timber. The shock was felt in many houses of a village a quarter of a mile distant. Albert Hemion, second engineer; David Colton, fireman; and Lawrence Connolly, cook, were killed. Capt. Aaron Baynes was cut very much about the face; George Duburs, engineer, was scratched; Patrick Carlin, deck hand, seriously hurt; Walker, pilot, unhurt.

Amherstburg, Jan. 23.—Annie Carman, of Anderson township, was walking down the track from the Canada Southern yard to the depot, this afternoon, when No. 3

Express struck her. She is very seriously injured. No hopes are entertained for her recovery, her skull being fractured, her leg broken, and shoulder and ribs dislocated.

Stratford, Jan. 25.—A man named Neil White was talking across the Grand Trunk crossing to-day, when an engine struck and killed him. He was terribly mangled.

Frederick Johnson, son of Samuel Johnson, Pembroke, N. S., was in a barn feeding cattle when his brother, in putting hay into the manger, accidentally drove a prong of the fork into his head, inflicting a wound which resulted fatally.

C. M. B. A. NOTES.

To the officers and members of the C. M. B. A.—

I find that some of our Branches are slow in remitting on assessment, and on investigating the cause, I find they misinterpret the law on this matter. Branches, in order to comply with our constitutional regulations, must always have an assessment on hand, and when the Grand Recorder notifies Branches of an assessment, said assessment calls for the one that is (or should be, if our Branch work is properly conducted) on hand, and which should be at once forwarded with the Beneficiary Report to the Grand Recorder.

The constitution, in order to be lenient with our members, gives them 20 days to replace this assessment, and such replacement is held by Branches until another assessment is issued, when it is at once paid, and so on. By Branches complying with this arrangement, prompt payment will always be ensured to those to whom the Beneficiary is due, which, for the welfare of our association, is indeed a very important matter.

The time of the appointment of Medical Examiners for Branches expires on the last Tuesday in January; the officers of Branches whose duty it is to attend to this will take prompt action in appointing medical Examiners for the ensuing term, and report at once to the Grand Recorder, with the necessary affirmation. See constitutional amendment on this point.

Branches that have not already done so, must report without further delay, the per capita tax, and the Supervising Medical Examiner's fees in full for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1921, and whatever proposition tax was due on said date. Hereafter the "Quarterly Report" from Branches must be forwarded at proper time, and remit therewith the proposition tax, and Supervising Medical Examiner's fees, due for said quarter.

Hoping it will not again be necessary to call the attention of our Branch-officers to this duty in regard to the foregoing, I remain, fraternally,

THOMAS A. BOURKE,
Grand Recorder,
From St. Catharines Evening Journal.
PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Tuite, who for a number of years has been identified with the registry office in this city, leaves here in a few days to take a good position in the abstract department in Detroit. His experience well qualifies him for this important office, and although we regret losing an old friend, it is a pleasure to know that Canadian graduates are sought after in other places, and the right sort will always be found in St. Catharines.

COOD-MYE.
It having been known for some time that Mr. John Tuite, for many years past the able assistant in the Registry office to the registrar, the late Mr. Powell, a number of gentlemen, members of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Society, and others, determined on giving their old friend a send-off. Shortly after 5 p. m. the members of the society assembled in their hall, and Mr. James Lawrence, the worthy president, after telling them in curt and feeling language the loss which they would have to bear in losing the able services of one of their members, Mr. John J. Tuite, presented that gentleman with a very neat gold badge of the society and the following address:

TO MR. JOHN TUITE:
DEAR SIR AND BROTHER.—Hearing that you are about to leave this home of your childhood, and take up your residence in a distant city in the neighboring republic, we, the officers and members of Branch No. 10 of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association, take much pleasure on this occasion to express to you our high admiration for the very faithful services you have rendered us, and for the kind disposition and brotherly feelings you have always evinced towards us as an officer of our association.

And although we regret exceedingly that the relationship that has existed between you and us as members of our association is about to be severed, and your able advice and counsel will no longer be given us, still we are much pleased to learn that the position you will occupy in your future home will be more profitable, and, we trust, more pleasing to you.

It is therefore with feelings of pleasure and regret that we greet you on this occasion, and though time and distance may part us, we are fully satisfied you will always remember your associates of Branch No. 10 of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association, and as a slight token of our esteem for you we pray you to accept this emblem, which we know you will always hold dear as the future connecting link of friendship and brotherly love between you and us.

Now, in conclusion, we wish to say adieu to you as a member of Branch No. 10, and wish you and Mrs. Tuite in your new home, health, happiness and prosperity.

We remain fraternally,
On behalf of the officers and members of Branch No. 10.

Mr. Tuite replied to the feelings expressed in a few well-timed remarks which were well received. The party then adjourned to the Grand Central Hotel, where an ample repast was spread for the members and their guests, and one which did much credit to Mr. McCarthy, the proprietor of the house, for the excellent manner in which he made his impromptu arrangements. Around the table, besides the chairman, Mr. J. E. Lawrence, and the vice-chairman, Dr. Sullivan, we noticed the guest, Mr. Tuite, Mr. George A. Begy, W. Devanny, A. Bain, H. Duffy, H. Vizard, T. Duman, M. Daly, J. Kilroy, J.

Patterson, Capt. Clifford, A. Finnegan, D. D. Oliver, of Hamilton, J. McCarthy, P. Conley, Thomas O'Donnell, a JOURNAL representative, and a number of others.

After full justice was done to the splendid dinner, Mr. Lawrence, proposed the usual standard toast of "The Queen and Her Representatives," which was heartily drunk and replied to.

The toast of the evening, "Mr. Tuite," brought out a few excellent remarks from that gentleman, which showed that the old Canadian spirit always existed with our young men wherever they went.

Dr. Sullivan, in his usual good-humored remarks, proposed the health of the gentlemen around the table, the learned societies, the press, and the guests, all of which brought a number of gentlemen to their feet, who responded in fitting terms. Without particularizing, we may state that the speeches were short and to the point, and as a real good send off Mr. Tuite may well feel flattered at the kind opinions expressed toward him. The party broke up about midnight, and afterwards adjourned to the hotel parlor, where a few well rendered songs, with excellent piano accompaniment by Mr. Oliver, concluded a very well and temperately spent evening.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.
Resolved, That we the members of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association have heard with deep regret that our worthy Brother, Napoleon Gervais has suffered a severe affliction in the death of his beloved wife, and that the Branch sincerely sympathize with him and his family in their hour of affliction.

William Primeau,
Chairman, Jan. 26, 1922.

TAKING THE BLACK VEIL.

An Interesting Ceremony.

A very solemn and interesting religious ceremony took place in the beautiful chapel of the Sisters of Charity, Quebec, at an early hour on Thursday morning, in presence of a considerable congregation—the occasion being the taking of the final vows of the Sisterhood of two young ladies, Miss Guay, of Levis, and Miss Sarah Hogan, daughter of our worthy fellow citizen, Mr. John Hogan, of H. H. Customs, Monsignor Desjardins, of Levis, officiated, assisted by Rev. Fathers Plamondon, of St. John's Parish, and McCarthy, C.S.R., of St. Patrick's. A number of other clergymen, including Rev. Mr. McGrath of Levis, were present in the Sanctuary and the immediate relatives and friends of the ladies, among whom we noticed Mr. John Hogan and Mrs. Hogan (parents of Miss Hogan), Messrs. B. McGrath, Granary, H. McHugh and Batterson, of H. H. Customs, J. McCloskey, J. Murtagh, Mrs. Jas. McCullough, &c., &c., assisted at the affecting ceremony in the body of the sacred edifice. After the celebration of a low mass by Monsignor Desjardins, during the course of which several beautiful canticles were sung to harmonious accompaniment by the choir of the Sisterhood, a most appropriate discourse was delivered in French by Rev. Mr. Desjardins, a relative of Monsignor Desjardins, and also of Miss Guay; followed by another in English by Rev. Father McGrath—the latter reverend gentleman dwelling eloquently and feelingly upon the sacrifices and the eternal rewards of a well spent religious life and urging upon those who entered it the advantage of imitating, as far as possible, the beautiful character of the Virgin Mother of God.

The ceremony of receiving the final vows of the two young ladies was then proceeded with—Miss Guay entering the Sisterhood under the name in religion of Sister St. Valerie, and Miss Hogan under that of Sister St. Patrick.

A Tribute of Respect—Visit of Bishop Cleary.

A very interesting service took place at St. Mary's church, Levis, on Thursday morning last, the occasion being the celebration of a requiem mass to the memory of John Fleming, who died at Waterford, Ireland, some four weeks ago. The deceased was father of Father Fleming, who is now at Levis, and was assisted by Father Kelly as deacon and Father Hanigan as sub-deacon. There were also present Father Connolly, Downeyville; Father Fitzgerald, Fenelon Falls; and Father Browne, Port Hope. His Lordship the Bishop of Kingston was also present, as well as Rev. Father Stafford of St. Mary's. The attendance of the congregation was very large. At the conclusion of the service His Lordship addressed the congregation.

He presented the pleasure it gave him to see such a large gathering on a week day, and it spoke volumes for the regard the people had for their curate, Father Fleming. He esteemed it as a strong indication of the piety and the regard for their religion that they should have left their duties and come together as they had done. His Lordship gave a short disquisition on the doctrine of purgatory. If faults were not expiated by good works in life they must be atoned for by penance. But where? Not in heaven, for heaven is the pure could enter there. Not in hell, for just souls by the mercy of God, could not go there. Therefore God had himself provided a medium where souls could atone for their sins and grow white and clean. The service to-day was a tribute from the heart to the dead, and a bond that held us when other bonds had slipped. The Catholic people should reverence their clergy as the priests freely gave up their life and services to the church, and for their souls. It was this principle of love that urged them to meet and give this token of their regard for Father Fleming, and would remain with the clergyman ever a green and pleasant memory. His Lordship was sure that it would be additionally helpful in cementing those bonds of love between the pastor and his people. At the conclusion of his address His Lordship announced that he would address the people on Sunday morning next, after mass.

FROM CAYUGA.

On Sunday, the 29th ult., Misses Maggie and Aggie Cantillon and Miss Mary Anne Quinlan, of Brantford, took a prominent part in the choir of St. Stephen's Church, Cayuga.

The singing of these young ladies was much prized by the congregation, especially the "O Salutaris" of Miss Maggie Cantillon. This young lady possesses a sweet voice which evinces considerable cultivation, and with more practice, the lady fair to become a fine vocalist. Miss Quinlan and Miss Mary McMillen (formerly) presided at the organ, and creditably sustained their reputation as players of that instrument.

A CANADIAN LAW BOOK.

A Manual of Practical Conveyancing. By D. A. O'Sullivan, LL.B., of Osgoode Hall, Barrister-at-Law. Toronto: Carswell & Co., 1922.

The author of the above treatise is already well-known to the public by his "Manual of Government in Canada," which has been adopted by the law society as one of the text books for students, and which has already become a standard authority. The want of a work upon conveyancing had long been felt in Ontario. With the exception of a small collection of precedents, no Canadian work upon the subject existed. Conveyancers referred wholly to English publications, and in many ways these were unsatisfactory, as the Canadian laws of property in general have drifted widely away from the English laws in the last few years. As the name of the book implies, it is intended as more particularly adapted for the use of the student or young practitioner. The first 250 pages treat of the laws affecting the transfer of real and personal property, including agreements, sales of land, leases, mortgages, wills, etc., and contain the practical directions to the conveyancer. The text is in the most concise form, and it is wonderful what an amount of useful information has been compressed into so small a space. The remainder of the work contains forms and precedents, one or two of the most important statutes and the index, the whole forming a handy volume of about four hundred pages. The chapter on wills contains an admirable set of directions for the drawing and execution of wills, and a brief sketch of law relating to wills in general, which will prove most useful both to lawyers and laymen. We should like to see this chapter published separately for the use of physicians and clergymen who are often called upon to prepare wills, where it is impossible to consult the services of a lawyer. The book, in plan and subject matter, is highly original, and so far from being a mere Canadian adaptation of some other work, is completely different from any known work on conveyancing. It will supply a want that has long been felt, and will afford much assistance to the practitioner.

It bears ample marks of care, originality, and research, and the assistance which was given the author, by leading members of the bar, and which he acknowledges in the preface, is in itself a sufficient guarantee of the value of the contents. The price of the book is $4 per copy.—The World.

Rev. Meinrad Leuthardt, O. S. B., of Melrose, Minn., died on November 25, and Rev. Peter Portz, of Bellevue, Iowa, on November 27; of small-pox caught while attending some members of this flock who were stricken with the pest. May their souls rest in peace.

The Right Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Bishop of Ross, will be translated to the Bishopric of Kerry.

An Only Daughter Cured of Consumption.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. JAMES was experimenting with the many herbs of Calcutta, he accidentally made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country enjoying the best of health. He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives the Recipe free, only asking two three-cent stamps to pay expenses. This herb also cures night-sweats, nausea at the stomach, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address, CRADDOCK & CO., 1032 Race St., Philadelphia, naming this paper.
