PRAYERS.

In pursuance of the order of yesterday, the House resolved itself into a committee of the whole House, to take into consideration "the bill for regulating Apprentices," and after some time spent therein, the President resumed the chair, and the chairman reported, that the committee had gone through the bill and agreed to the same with amendments. The said bill was read a third time with the amendments, and ordered to be sent to the House of Assembly for their concurrence.

The committee appointed to examine into the state of the Public Accounts made the following report:

Your committee having met the committee of the House of Assembly to examine the Public Accounts and report thereon, beg leave to state, that after the most careful investigation, they have found them to be correct.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 1 o'clock.
