two in British Columbia. A Notable Figure

Mr. Tanner has had a long experience in public life and was for more than 10 years leader of the Liberal-Conservative party in the Nova Scotia legislature. His long and intimate acquaintance with public af-fairs and his well-known ability as a debater will render him an important addition to the Senate, Mr. Tan-ner is one of the leaders of the Nova Scotia bar and is a resident of Piztou where he was born in 1857. He was elected to the Nova Scotia Legislature in 1894. He is an Anglican.

The other senator from Nova Scotia is Adam B. Crosby, at present of Halifax, but he is a former resident of Cape Breton. It is understood that Mr. Crosby will resume in the early future his residence on the island from which he came to Halifax as a young man. He has had considerable experience in public life and was a member of the House of Commons for Halifax during one parliamentary term. He has a wide acquaintance with business and public questions. Mr. Crosby was born in Belfast, Ireland, in 1859. He is a Roman Catholic.

New Brunswick Man The newly appointed senator from New Brunswick is Dr. F. K. Bourque of Richibucto, who is widely known and respected in his native province end has had considerable experience in public affairs. He is a French-Canadian. Sen. Bourque was born corded to labor interests in making

Senator Richardson is also a man of wide business experience and he has been especially associated with the export trade in grain, in which he has engaged with great success on a large scale for many years. His experience and well-known ability will make him a most valued member of the Upper House.

Senator Lynch-Staunton was born in Southampton, Ont., in 1853 and was called to the bar in 1882. He was chairman of the N. T. R. board of investigation 1912.

Senator Robertson is a prominent ember of one of the great railway labor organizations, the Order Railroad Telegraphers, and is held in high regard by all who know him for the ability which characterizes his activities in all questions arising between great railway corporations

Recently his good offices were placed at the services of both parties in a serious dispute between the C. P. R. and a large number of its em-ployees in the West. Both parties to the controversy assured the Government that Mr. Robertson's service3 in this dispute were exceedingly valuable and aided greatly in the settlement which was eventually reacn-

To successfully sell goods there are two outstanding rules to follow:

1st. ESTABLISH THE QUALITY OF YOUR PRODUCT. The best advertising on earth will never sell an inferior article.

2nd. ADVERTISE. And do it continuously. People have short memories these days. Don't think for a moment that because you or your business are well known you do not need to advertise.
