This new Extract is probably stronger than any other on the Canadian Market. It has been put to exacting tests both as to its chemical analysis and its effects on the system, and it compares most favorably with any on the market.

We do not hesitate to recommend it to convalescents and in fact to anyone whose system is run down and needs a tonic.

ALD. AUSTIN SPEAKS. To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,-Will you permit me ome space in your journal in order that I may publicly protest against the action of Colonel Rankin in making the insinuation that animosity towards Principal Twohey was the motive or had anything to do with the recent resolution of the Council re Board of Education. So that your readers may see the point I object to I will repeat the remarks made by the Colonel, as I rinted in Tues-

"There is another matter to which I somewhat hesitate to allude," continued Colonel Rankin, "but I be lieve that this is a time for open, free and fearless speaking. There must be straightforward and plain, outspoken conduct in this wery serious and important matter. There are reasons advanced on the street, there are reasons said to be discussed in 'private caucus—and, moreover, it has been told me on the street several times that this matter is aimed at our esteemed and valued principal, Mr. Twohey. I have been told repeatedly that the aim is to oust Mr. Twohey from the principalship. Is there anything in such a strange and remarkably persistent rumor?"

Now, I also believe in free and "There is another matter to which

Now, I also believe in free and fearless speaking, and it seems to methat the Colonel is not consistent in his remarks, as in one sentence he advocates open, free and fearless speaking, and in the next imputes motives which would only have as their basis religious animosity, to some party whom he, in his fearlessness, does not

Now, if the Colonel believes in free, speaking, why does he not mention the name of the party that is being connected with the story as teld him on the street and in which he places connected with the story as teld him, on the street and in which he places sufficient credence to rejeat it for publication? Why should the Colonel, in order to give expression to personal animus, make a statement of this kind in such a way that the general public might attribute it to any of the Council, as they all supported the measure. As I happened to be the Alderman who introduced the Board of Education question. I feel especially called on to repudiate the Colonel's statement.

I, gave the notice of motion in Council regarding the matter, and had not discussed the question in any form whatever, previously to doing so, with any person, and have not at any time heart any suggestions or references made with respect to Principal Twohey in connection with this question.

I might say that so far as Mr.

Did time and space permit, I could prove that the statements I made respecting the county are substantially specting the county are substantially correct. Dr. Thointon to the contrary notwithstanding; the only error being in stating that of $2.00 expended the city paid $1.20 and the county 80c. The correct figures are 1.111-9 "The Isle of Spice," which played here recently, it was in every sense most enjoyable. Miss Alice Yorke (Codie Hill) was given a most enthusiastic reception to which she gracefully responded and her work was much admired. John Ransone as the "Count" took the house by storm. The staging was quite elaborate and the scenic effects splendid. The company throughout was a good one, graceful girls, stalwart soldiers and admirable choruses combining in a yery agreeable ensemble. ocents and 88 8-9 cents respectively.

If the C. C. I. Board, instead of wasting their time in making comparisons that have nothing to a with the question at issue, had given the public their views of each other's per-sonal qualifications, as expressed at other times and places, it would have made much more interesting read-
