CZAR STILL IN CONTROL

New Constitution Leaves Final Authority With Him.

Critics Claim the Creation of Cabinet Ministers is Along the Lines of the Old Bureaucratic Regime—Big Issues Not For Assembly—Situation Clearing, Although Slaughter Occurred at Odessa and Warsaw.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—The Imperial decree creating the Cabinet Minister under the Imperial manifesto to grating a constitution to Russia, was gazetted yesterday morning and has already aroused criticism as the machinery is extremely complicated and smacks of the old fashioned bureaucratic regime.

While the Cabinet has no authority to decide matters within the competency of the legislative bodies, no measure of "general importance" can be introduced into the chambers without the sanction of the Cabinet. Another provision requires that when the Cabinet is unanimous the Premier must go to the Emperor and receive instructions. This would seem to make the final authority rest back to his Majesty. Moreover, all questions affecting the imperial court and domains, the army and navy and foreign affairs are specifically excluded from the competency of the Cabinet without direct imperial authority.

Nothing is said in the decree about the Premier of Ministers being responsible to the national Assembly or responding to interpellations, but critics are said to consolidate the power in the hands of the Premier, or as is termed, president of the Cabinet, and especially to prevent an individual Minister from going to the Emperor with a report without previously consulting the Premier. The report the latter not approve of the report he has the privilege of being present when the Minister presents it to his Majesty and stating his objections. This provision is designed to put an end to the practice of a Minister undermining another, which has been one of the most vicious features of the old regime and the cause of untold confusion.

A Terrible Picture. At Rostoff-on-Don, the whole town is in the hands of rioters who are plundering by wholesale. Firing is frequent in the streets. Fifteen persons have been killed and many injured. At Minsk, doctors of the Jewish Hospital worked all night on the wounded brought in from the railroad station, where the troops fired volleys at the demonstrators. Funerals are of half-hourly occurrence, the bodies being conveyed in wagons. Already fifty Jewish cemeteries have been broken, Jewish Cemetery. At Kieff, during the demonstrations within the municipality, five persons were killed and forty-five injured, six of them seriously. At Orel, anti-Jewish riots have broken out and many people killed or injured. At Tashkend, Russia, Turkistan, peaceful celebrations of the issuing of the Imperial manifesto granting Russia a constitution, were dispersed by troops yesterday. Cossacks and soldiers fired volleys. At Radow, the anti-government demonstrations ended in widespread rioting. A mob burned Government property, barricaded the streets and threw bombs at the troops. There were many victims. At Sebastopol six persons were killed and sixty were wounded. The Black Sea squadron Vice-Admiral Birleff's pennant flying, arrived there from the Turkish coast.

Prospects Brighter. The prospects of the court, quieting down for the present at least, are much brighter to-day. While the revolutionary spirit is abroad, the masses of the reds seem to realize that they have reached the end of their tether, and they are afraid to push matters to the point of failure. The leaders of the railroad men have not yet formally surrendered, but trains are already running on the Moscow and other lines, and the backbone of the strike seems to be broken.

The council of the workmen's delegates decided to suspend the political strike at noon to-day, but on the condition that it be resumed if their demands were not granted.

The railroad men's unions, however, have decided to continue the strike. Fighting in Warsaw. Warsaw, Nov. 3.—It now appears that thirty persons were killed and over a hundred were wounded during conflicts here Wednesday night. There was fighting during the course of yesterday at several points, the infantry firing on the cavalry charging the crowds. Three persons were killed and the butts of rifles were freely employed in the dispersal of demonstrators.

Martial Law at Odessa. London, Nov. 3.—A despatch to a news agent from Odessa says that martial law was declared there yesterday afternoon.

Casualties 5,000. The casualties Wednesday, according to The Standard's correspondent, are believed to have amounted to 5,000 killed and wounded. In the Jewish quarters bodies still strewn the streets and sidewalks. Jewish women and children are strangled and hacked to pieces in the streets where the mobs gained the upper hand. The troops wrecked terrible vengeance on the residents of three houses, from the balconies of which shots were fired by unknown persons upon the soldiers. They immediately stormed the houses and with unheard of barbarity massacred all the inhabitants. The massacre of Jews continues.

He only employs his passion who can make no use of his reason.

STOLE CROSS

Midnight Miscreants Enter Catholic Cemetery at Bothwell and Commit Depredations

Further depredations in connection with the Bothwell Roman Catholic cemetery are attracting the attention of the authorities. This case has occasioned much interest. In view of the fact that for 12 or 13 miles there was no Catholic burying ground, the church recently purchased a plot of land just outside the town limits. The project met with pronounced opposition from neighboring residents, who appealed to the Provincial Board of Health. This body, however, gave decision in favor of the church and several burials have taken place. The other night miscreants entered the new cemetery, tipped over a couple of monuments and carried away a cross from another grave.

ALEX. WILLIS ACQUITTED.

Judge Anglin Directed the Jury to Refuse to Convict—Affecting Scene in Court.

St. Thomas, Ont., Nov. 3.—The examination of one witness yesterday concluded the case for the Crown in the Rodney murder case. Counsel for the prisoner, Willis, Mr. St. Clair Letch of Dutton, submitted to his lordship that there was absolutely no case to go to the jury and that the evidence was fully speculative and circumstantial.

The prosecuting attorney, Mr. Staunton, urged that the evidence adduced warranted the case going to the jury, but his lordship thought otherwise. In his mind there was nothing to connect the prisoner with the crime and he took the responsibility upon himself of directing the jury to find the prisoner not guilty. In dismissing the prisoner his lordship admonished him that this should be a lesson to him not to linger about hotels and to cease his drinking habits.

The prisoner showed considerable emotion on receiving his discharge and was warmly congratulated by many friends. His meeting with his wife and family in the corridor was most affecting. Willis has been stripped of practically all he possessed in conducting his defence. Accompanied by his wife and family he returned to the neglected little farm in Alborough, which is now no longer his. At the same time the mystery of who killed Eliza Lowry is still unsolved.

DE MARGO GUILTY.

Jury Finds He Murdered John Hoban on September 4.

Toronto, Nov. 3.—After deliberating for four hours, the jury in the Criminal Assizes last evening brought in a verdict, finding Charles De Marco guilty of murdering John Hoban. The affair occurred at Edward and Chestnut streets on Sept. 4, when Hoban was stabbed in the stomach. He died three days later.

The verdict caused some surprise, and J. M. Godfrey, prisoner's counsel, announced his intention of appealing the case on four different grounds. The main objection, which is one submitted by him at the conclusion of Crown Prosecutor DuVermet's case, is that there was not sufficient evidence for Justice MacMahon to allow the case to go to the jury.

The evidence is the same as presented at the coroner's investigation. The evidence was purely circumstantial.

Passing Raised Bills. Kingston, Nov. 3.—Another case of passing raised money was reported yesterday. At Haffner's grocery, an Italian gave an American $2 note which had been raised to $10. He got away. Last week the same party worked off a similar bill in a second-hand store.

TREASURER $8,000 SHORT.

Allegation on Which P. D. Hamel of Montreal is Arrested.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—Yesterday afternoon High Constable Cinq Mars arrested Philip D. Hamel, of Blue Bonnets, charged with having stolen within the past three years sums of money aggregating $8,000 from the Order of Railway Telegraphers. Hamel was assistant treasurer of division No. 7.

It is alleged that in September last he resigned the position of treasurer and declined to send in the books and records connected with the position from the beginning of 1892. It is charged that the stolen money was the property of division No. 7, which covers the whole of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Hamel, arraigned yesterday afternoon before Judge Lafontaine, pleaded not guilty. He was twice at Pullman Porter. Brandon, Nov. 3.—W. L. Laprak, a well-known bookmaker and follower of the western turf, had an altercation with the porter on a Pullman car at the C. P. R. depot and suddenly drew a revolver. The porter closed with him and Laprak fired twice at him, but without injuring him. The negro then overpowered him and took his gun. The police interfered at this juncture and arrested Laprak. It is believed he was irresponsible owing to drink and domestic trouble.

FOR KEHOE'S EVIDENCE

Kingston Election Case Adjourned Till 27th November.

Judge Street Anxious to Hear Explanations From "The Source" of Much of Money Spent—The Gilderleeve Charge Dismissed, the Judges Disagreeing—Evidence Found of Treating—Five Charges Made Good.

Kingston, Nov. 3.—Kehoe, Montgomery and other important witnesses, were absent from the election petition trial yesterday, and John McIntyre, K. C., filed an affidavit to that effect, which he subsequently wished to withdraw, but Justice Street emphatically remarked that nothing of the kind must be done. The case would be adjourned until Monday, the 27th inst., at 9.30.

Kehoe, said his lordship, was a man to whom a considerable sum of money had been traced, and it was not unreasonable to suppose that he could afford some particulars about it. "In the face of what you have sworn," said the judge to the counsel, it is your duty to get Kehoe, Montgomery and others here before the 27th. Let us know if you cannot do it."

A number of charges stand over. Certain numbers attended to include Kehoe were pronounced as proved, these being regarding the hiring of cabs from Joseph and Daniel Eves. Another charge—No. 145—was not proceeded with.

Speaking of charge No. 147, Justice Street expressed the opinion that Augustus Thompson had the intention of hiring his horse to Gilderleeve and thought he would be paid, and also that Gilderleeve was aware of the purpose for which Thompson requested the $10, but paid the sum in the form of a loan. He was unable to permit such fellows to believe the money could be disbursed under such conditions.

Justice Teetzel dissented from this view. While there was serious suspicion about the bona fide character of the loan, a sense of obligation must have led Gilderleeve to compensate Thompson when he presented himself. Bearing in mind results which to Gilderleeve must be very serious, he hesitated to find him guilty of corrupt practice. The charge was dismissed.

As for charge 22, the charge of giving money was not established. The court found that there was evidence of giving refreshment on treating under section 157 of the act. To embrace the finding the charge against Halliday must be amended.

Five charges have already been made good, and it is the belief that the evidence already adduced will make the election void.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Stanley, the sixteen-year-old son of Horace Black, of the 5th concession, Raleigh, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon about 3.30.

Stanley was clearing the stocks away from a corn shredder and, reaching his right hand a little too far, got it caught in the cog-wheels of the machine. Mr. Black quickly drove to town, arriving at the office of Dr. Rutherford at four o'clock. The fingers are so badly crushed that it will be necessary to amputate the first three at the second joint.

MEN'S SHOES IN CORRECT STYLES

Bend your mind for a moment toward the THREE great qualifications of footwear:—

STYLE—QUALITY—PRICE

STYLE is no more than tinsel without quality to perpetuate it.

QUALITY is essential, but at any but a fair price it is not economical.

PRICE is a splendid test but must have both style and quality to warrant it.

We have studied these problems for years—they're our daily business and we flatter ourselves that we have accomplished much in each of them. Our styles are new and correct—many of them exclusive with us. Our quality is kept rigidly to the highest standard. Our price is the lowest that can consistently be made.
