"My eyes, indeed, are very dim."

The choir, who had been impatiently waiting for a whole line, thinking this to be the first of a common metre hymn, immediately sang it. The good deacon exclaimed, with emphasis:—

"I cannot see at all."—

This of course, they also sung, when the astonished deacon cried out:—
"I really b'lieve you are bewitched!"
Response by the choir: "I really b'lieve you are bewitched."
