Miscellaneous.

Mothers Watch the little Feet. Patter, patter, all day long, What an eager, restless throng! Out among the birds and bees, Out among the flowers and trees: In among the toys and books, Spying out the quiet nooks;

Hither, you, and everywhere-

Who shall guide each busy pair? Who shall curb the sports and plays Teach the lady's gentle ways, Help them, as with noble will On they strive up learning's hill? Teach them their brave strength to share For the week, the old, to care; Lead them, till, in turn they stand Leaders in a royal band.

Who shall on the lassies wait, Knocking at youth's morning's gate? Guide the hands to deeds of love, Keep their hearts all wrong above. Teach them kindly words and ways. How to help and when to praise; Guide them, till they make of home The brightest spot 'neath heavens' dome

Mothers who could wish to ask E'er a sweeter, holier task! Yours it is to guide youth's feet Through life's meadows, pure and sweet; Yours to make fair, bright, and good, Gentle tender womanhood. And remember while you plan, As the boy so is the man.

Mothers, lest your feet may stray, Walk beside them while you may, Sports and plays are wiser far Under love's pure guiding star. Books will sweeter meaning take When they're read " For mother's sake 'Hither, you, and everywhere," Mothers, watch with prayerful care.

The Toryism of the Grits.

Montreal Star, Independ The relative qualities of respective arty leadership in the Dominion are has given by a Western contempo.

Nos. 5's to 10's. party leadership in the Dominion are thus given by a Western contempothe Government is moved by a Tory of the most pronounced and unyielding type. Not one particle of liberaof the most pronounced and unyieldlity, civil or religious, ever attached itself to the skirts of the dictatorial manipulator of Grit Wires. How then can it be expected that legislation demanded by exceptional circumstances will be attained so long as a man with but one idea is allowed sway? The country is suffering under unusual strain, unusual measures are required to meet the necessities of the hour. Cast iron ideas as to free trade in a country so peculiarly situated as Canada are simply absurd. But it is Canada are simply absurd. But it is quite clear that so long as the present Government holds the reins, not one iota of relief will be afforded to the people." The personal references are of course to the Hon. Geo. Brown, who, assisted by the Globe, rules Mr Mackenzie with a rod of iron, and is as pronounced a fossil as anyone or anything of which his followers com-

" No Irish Need Apply." Mr. M'Kenzie last night seemed determined to complete the injury done to his party by Mr. Cartwright. There was no necessity whatever for him to go out of his way to denounce Sir John, and to do so by declaring that Sir John's Government was held together by the "SHILLALY." When Mr. M'Kenzie referred to "shillaly" everybody understood that it was a gratuitous and wanton attack upon the Irishmen of Canada, for according to Sir John, in common with other nationalities, a warm and generous support. Common decency should have prevented Mr. Mackenzie from making this attack. The storm of hisses that followed showed the disapproval of the audience.—Hx. Herald everybody understood that it was a proval of the audience .- Hx. Herald.

THAT HORSE ILLUSTRATION .- A that suits my purpose in the States for $100, I can bring it over to Canada free of duty. But if from any cause I wish to resell it to the man from whom bought it, he will only give me $80 for it; because he tells me that when he takes it across again he will have to pay $20 duty. What many farmers are 49 0 asking themselves just now is, whether good crops with a poor price are any better than poor crops and a good price. 41 9 They have now a good crop, but can-not look for a very good price. They need never look with certainty for that until we have built up a good home market by the adoption of a National Policy.'

A MINISTER'S SPEECHES .- It is stated that the speeches published in the Telegraph (always some days after they are alleged to have been delivered) as those of Hon. Issac Burpee, Minister of Cusoms, are the work of Mr. J. E. B. Mc-Cready, a Bohemian writer for the New Brunswick Grit M. P's. at Ottawa last winter. Rather rough on a Minister of the Crown .- Courier.

* MACKEREL.-Reports are current this week that the mackerel have again struck in St. Mary's Bay. It is said that on Sunday last such a large and powerful school passed through Petit Passage that it was densely packed, and that the noise made by the rush was plainly heard at a distance of two miles. One of our captains states that just outside the Gut there were "acres of 'em." - Digby Courier.

The Toronto Mail is confident of the elections. It says: "As sure as we are of anything human we are sure that the general election is going to reverse the state of parties in the Dominion, and we base this certainty of assurance on the testimony of shrewd men and experienced politicians of every province of the Confederation, as well as in our own observation."

The Rev. G. D. Mackay, of the Canada Presbyterian Mission in Formosa, has astonished the natives by marrying ne of their number, Miss Chang Mia Tsong.

Mr. Devlin will not run as a Govrument man in Montreal Centre. But, still, the Government is "more popular than ever," &c.!

Mr. Greenway has retired from South Huron as a Grit candidate. He was a deserter from the National Policy; and had no show.
