

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

Alfred Bowen, of Wheatley River, P. E. I., came in on the Boston express from New Hampshire, says a St. John despatch. At Vaneboro he was held up by a plain clothes man, who examined his luggage, and finding a box of cigars, demanded two dollars duty, which Bowen refused to pay. Then he was taken to a building in which another alleged official decided that a dollar and seventy-five cents would be enough. Bowen again refused to pay and they threatened to seize his baggage. He threatened legal action and the officials then gave up his suit case, but kept the cigars. Bowen is wondering whether it was a bunco game.

Pretending that they came on an errand of mercy, three men gained entrance to the home of Warren Munday in the outskirts of Lincoln, Ill. between 10 o'clock Saturday night and 2 o'clock next morning, and after binding and torturing Munday and his wife secured all the money and silverware in the house and made their escape. While standing in the dark on the porch one of the men told Munday, who had responded to the door bell, that his daughter was ill at her home and that he had been sent to bring the father and mother. When the man was invited into the house two others followed all wearing masks. Munday was at once overpowered and bound, as also was his wife, who hastened in to learn the cause of the commotion. Lighted matches were held to the feet of the two victims. Threats also were made by the robbers that they would burn the house with the couple in it and the barns. The robbers secured several hundred dollars.

The New York World Saturday said: Swenson and Swenson, real estate dealers, at Flushing, gave out yesterday a letter to have been written by their brother Carl Swenson, a boss employed on the Quebec bridge which fell on August 20. Swenson's letter is dated the day before the disaster. He was killed. The letter reads:—"I doubt very much whether the bridge will ever be finished, since the first and second panels of the bottom chord of the cantilever, Quebec side, are buckling. I want to be in New York when she falls. If the bridge goes it will be the worst wreck that ever occurred. Don't show this to anyone. This part is no foolcatcher's story."
