Berlin, Jan. — Advices received here from Forska show that that country is on the brink of revolution. In the districts where Russian and British interests most conflict a dissolution of the central authority and the conversion of the provinces into independent States are anticipated. It is asserted that the new Shah's rule has reduced the country to desperate property. The immense trea-

WAR FERLING IN NORWAY.

Swedish Officers Said to be Spying on Fortresses.

Christiania, Jan. 4.—The bellicose spirit has been revived here by the Verdensgang, the organ of the party of the Left publishing a report upon alleged clandestine enquiries made in both countries.

Influential Swedish officers regarding several Norwegian fortresses. The publication has caused a sensation in both countries.

Influential Swedish newspapers indulge in war threats. Coincident with these threats is the establishment of great Swedish depots for war munitions at Osterund, on the Norwegian frontier. The indignation in Norway has been increased by this action on the part of Sweden.

Mrs. Sternaman Hears the News.

Cayuga, Jan. 4.—The news was broken to Mrs. Sternaman this morning, through her spiritual adviser, Rev. J. G. Foote, a Methodist minister of this village, that the decision of the Divisional Court at Osgoode Hall yesterday would not allow her a new trial. On hearing the news she wept silently. She still claims that she is an innocent woman and retains hope of a reprieve from the Supreme Court. Mrs. Sternaman has falled rapidly since the death sentence was passed upon her. No reporter has been granted an interview with her, and the prospects age that no such favor will be granted.

Marriage was His Habit.

Chicago, Jan. 4.—David E. Bates, accused of having six wives more than the law allows, and who as a result of his arrest several months ago has had steady employment at the dime muscums, was this afternoon convicted of bigamy in the first of, the numerous cases against him. He was given a fine of $1,000 and an indeterminate sentence in the penitentiary. Upon the amountement of the verdict the examination of jurymen to hear the second charge against the prisoner was begun immediately. It is also proposed to press a charge of perjury against Bates based on admissions made by him to-day on the witness stand. Three of the wives were present made by him to-day on the witness stand. in lieu of the system at present carried on.

Hon. Mr. Davis, in reply, pointed out that this question had frequently been threshed out thoroughly in the House, and the arguments were pretty well worn. It would be suppo ed from the remarks of the hon, gentlemen opposite that the large bulk of the supplies required by the various public institutions were purchased upon the open market without tend r at all. The fact is that large quantit es of the supplies are purchased at present by the tender system, while at the same time there is a large list of articles that cannot be purchased by tender at all; it would be utterly absurd to think of ching so.
