Jonn Knox. A very able and interest-ing estimate of the character and work of the great Scottish Reformer, will be found in the last number of the Westminister Roview. 'We are glad to find that this lalented quarterly is exchanging some of its dangerona speculations for so healthful a theme as this; and we conso healthful a theme as this; and we con-fess that we have been both surprised and gratified to see such ample justice done to a man who has perinaps been more reviled by historians than almost any other, of the good and great men whose characters they have delighted to blacken. "The time is coming, when even secular history will regard the old Scotch here in his true light. "Posterity will do instice" to him as well as to others. others.

Fleeing with horror, from the thought that we are unfit to die, if God should take us this day, and hour out of the world, keeps off the discovery of our true state more than any thing else, and fatally hinders our preparation ---Rev. T. Adams.

Truman Smith, of Connecticut, has perpetrated a very petty bon mot. He has lately married a Southern lady, it will be recollected. Some one, by way of quizzing him, asked him how many slaves were owned by his wife. "She has but one slave," was the gallant reply of the Senator.

Mr. Hopkins being imprisoned in the Tower for declaring against some articles which the King's Majesty had sought to be established, and having written his apology in verse to the king, upon which followed his deliverance, a companion of his remarked; that "He went into the 'i owerby reason but came out by rhyme.'

A Siz-Mile Sermon .- All cannot be ministers, but all can preach by their example. A man who lived far from the sanctuary once complained to his minister of the distance, while many others had but a few steps to walk to enjoy divine ordinances, "Never mind" said the ordinances good pas or remember that every Sabpath you have the privilege of preaching a sermon six miles long. All the resi-dents and people you pass, you preach the Gospel to?"

CHARACTER.-We may easily judge of a man's charater by what he loves what pleases him. If a person manifests plea-sure in low and sordid subjects; in vulgar songs, and. debasing language; in the misfortunes of his fellows, or cruelty to animals, we may at once determine the complexion of his character. On the contrary, if he loves purity, modesty, truth, if virtuous pursuits engage his heart and draw his affections-we may be satisfied that he is an upright man.

Wherever I find a great deal of grati-tude in a poor man, I take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.

" Mr. Smith, don't you think Mr. Sheesicks is a young man of parts?" "Decidedly so, Miss Brown; he is part number un part knave and part fool."

Miss Dobbassys that the first time a coat-sheeve ensireled her waist she was in a pavillion built of rainbows, the window-sills of which were composed of Æolian harps. IRM LOR SALE
