Gasoline Famine On Miramichi Last Week

Not a Drop to be Purchased For Several Days—Joy Riders Disappointed

If you met a man on Saturday with a Rockefeller look and his chest thrown out, you may be sure he was sorry it rained Friday, for he was the proud possessor of a few gallons of the fluid that makes the "buzz wagons" go, called gasoline, while on the other hand, your friend who prayed for rain and was rewarded did not possess the necessary forfeit to get his share while the getting was good. For there was a gasoline famine on the Miramichi last week. It was so scarce that you could not even buy, borrow or steal a gallon. And if you did not have any in your motor car, you had to take "Shank's Mare" for it. The real cause of the scarcity is said to be due to scarcity of tank cars to ship it in. The situation however was remedied by the arrival of a tank car late Saturday, but too late to supply Newcastle users for Sunday motoring.

Many users of gasoline are vowing to instal storage tanks, and we have no doubt were an agent for the latter to visit the Miramichi he would do a rushing business for a few days.

Sudden Death of John Hutchison

Well Known Douglstown Resident Dies Suddenly Saturday Evening

The funeral of the late John Hutchison of Douglstown took place this afternoon at 2.30, to St. Mark's Presbyterian Cemetery. Mr. Hutchison, who had been in poor health for some time, but able to be around about his work as usual, died very suddenly Saturday night, about 8.30. A few minutes before that he had complained of not feeling well and had lain down. His brother-in-law, Mr. Currie, was with him, and while conversing with him Mr. Hutchison quietly passed away. He was 63 years of age, and a most respected citizen. He was the son of the late John Hutchison, and a first cousin of Ernest Hutchison.

He leaves his widow, and the following children: Harry Hutchison, of Winnipeg; Alexander, Barbara, Ruby (Mrs. Clara Geikie, whose husband is overseas), Robert, Mary and David, all at home; also the following stepchildren: Wm. Moar, overseas; John, Chatham; Annie (Mrs. Frank McEwen), Chatham; and Clo (Mrs. John Harrington), Boston. David Hutchison, of Maine, and Mrs. Mary McEwen of Ferry Road are brother and sister of the deceased.

William Henderson Dead At Chatham

The death occurred at his home in Chatham, on Wednesday, of William Henderson, an aged and highly respected member of the community.

Deceased was for many years an employee of the old pulp mill and later continued his work as a pattern maker with the Miramichi Foundry. The late Mr. Henderson was 82 years of age and leaves a wife and the following children to mourn his death—Mrs. Wm. McMaster, Newcastle; Mrs. Sam Kingston, Chatham; Mrs. James Russell of Russelleille; Grace and Alva at home, William of Douglstown and Norman in British Columbia.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon. Rev. Alex Firth conducted services at the house and grave. Interment was in St. James cemetery, Newcastle.

Orangemen Attend Divine Service

Members of the Orange Lodges of Douglstown, Chatham, Loggieville and Newcastle joined together in a church parade at Douglstown on Sunday afternoon. A large number gathered at the Temperance Hall where they formed in a body and headed by the Douglstown band, marched to St. Mark's church for divine worship. At the doors of the church the members of the L.O.B.A. joined the procession. The church was filled to the doors and the large congregation listened to an able discourse by Alex. Alex. Firth, taken from Timothy 3rd:1 "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come."

WILL INSPECT SCHOOL GARDENS
David Gulliver, Jr., of Douglstown, and Principal Harrison of Chatham have been appointed Inspectors of School gardens.
