

AROUND THE CITY

LOCALS

(From Thursday's Bulletin.)
Work on the new R.N.W.M.P. guard house at Fort Saskatchewan is proceeding satisfactorily. When this is completed the guard room will have double its present accommodation.

Delegates of all labor unions in the city are requested to attend a meeting in the plumbers' hall, opposite Jasper House, on Tuesday evening July 22d, at 8 p.m., to arrange to the Labor Day celebration.

To accommodate a large number of prospective new settlers, the Edmonton, Pembina and Paddle River stage line has extended their trip thirty-five miles further west, through the Peace River district.

Commissioner Perry, of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police at Regina is expected to be in Edmonton on Saturday. The commissioner will go north to the end of the Peace River trail on a trip of inspection.

The real estate section of the Board of Trade had a meeting on Wednesday afternoon, at which Mr. J. C. Dickson, president, presided, but as business was detained until the next session of the board.

The first meeting of the Provincial Board of Health is to be held here tomorrow. The members of the board are: Dr. Mewburn, Lethbridge; Dr. Lafferty, Calgary; Dr. Cobbert, Edmonton; Dr. Irving, provincial health officer, and Mr. Owens.

The Canadian Club of this city will have a special luncheon at the Alberta Hotel on Monday, 22nd inst. at 1:30 o'clock sharp. Justice Lardry, of Dorchester, N.B., who is visiting his son here, will be the guest of honor. All the members are requested to attend.

Mr. Wilson, who has been spending some time in the city en route from Scotland to Australia, has booked to the "Moana," which sails shortly from Vancouver.

A meeting of the provisional committee to discuss Y. W. C. A. work will be held on Saturday, July 20th, at 4:30 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Biddell.

Sir H. Montague Allan, who is in the west making a tour of inspection of the branches of the Merchants bank, of which institution he is president, is expected in the city today.

Inspector West, of the R. N. W. M. P., Lesser Slave Lake, came to the city yesterday, and goes to Banff where he will remain for some time on sick leave, owing to an attack of rheumatism.

Rev. Z. L. Fash, M.A., of Hillsboro, N.B., is in Strathcona, visiting his sister, Mrs. A. S. Gainer. The reverend gentleman will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church, Edmonton, on the coming Sabbath.

Chas. Porter's act at the Kevik theatre this week is particularly good. The set consists of a wall, back and wing stunt, and imitations in this part of his act he imitates best whistles and railway engines.

The Commissioners of the City of Edmonton will sit as a Court of Revision to revise the Assessment Roll of the current year on Thursday, 20th inst., at 8 p.m., in the Council Chamber, and will hear appeal against the Special Franchise Assessment on Tuesday, August 6th, at 8 p.m.

Mr. Beecher Smith, the emigration agent of Great Britain's Y. M. C. A. will arrive in Edmonton Saturday morning. Mr. Smith is making a tour of the West with an idea of ascertaining the most suitable places for the location of members of the Y. M. C. A. who emigrate to Canada. He will address a men's mass meeting in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

A. G. Isherwood and E. G. Logan of Saskatoon, are spending a few days in Edmonton en route for Vancouver. They have visited Moose Jaw, Medicine Hat and Calgary and report that the climate in these cities can compare with Edmonton either in present or prospective evidences of expansion. Mr. Isherwood is circulation manager of the Daily Capital and Mr. Logan is in the real estate business in Saskatchewan's railroad centre.

Messrs. Wallace Firth and Edw. F. Qua, of Edmonton, have established a general store at Tete Jaune Cache, B.C., which is at the western entrance to the Yellow Head Pass. This store will provide supplies for parties going north on the other side of the mountains. It is the first general store to be established in this district. Tete Jaune Cache is on the proposed line of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Mr. J. A. Campbell, 536 Tenth street, died this morning.

Inspector Perry, R.N.W.M.P., Regina, who is now en route to the Peace River, is expected to arrive in the city this afternoon.

Rev. A. S. Tuttle, who returned this week from a holiday in the mountains will occupy the pulpit of Grace church at both services tomorrow.

COURT OF REVISION.

The city commissioners will hold a court of revision on the assessment roll for the current year on Thursday, July 26th, at 8 p.m., in the council chamber.

WILL GO TO THE COAST.

It is probable that Chief Davidson of the Fire Department will attend the firemen's convention to be held at Centria, Wash., on Sept. 10th to 13th. This convention will embrace all the districts along the upper part of the Pacific Coast, and representatives will be present from Seattle, Vancouver, Victoria and other western cities.

No official action has yet been taken by the City Council, but the commissioners will strongly recommend that the chief be sent.

WORK ON HOIST BEGUN.

Work has been begun on the First street hoist, and today four teams and about twenty men are at work on it. It is estimated that the cost of the hoist will be about $17,000. Tenders are now being called for the machinery.

Electric motive power will be used for the operation of the hoist, and the power-house will be situated beneath the hoist and about ten feet high. The hoist will carry up two teams with loads and two teams down at the same time, or about ten tons in all. The company are taking all available precautions to prevent accidents.

WILL TEST THE BY-LAW.

Since the new early closing by-law came into effect a few weeks ago there have been a number of violations which have come to the attention of the police.

After several warnings Chief of Police Major Beale has decided to make a test case against S. Nankin jeweller and watchmaker, who has been conducting a business at 1075 Jasper street for some days, at his store on Jasper avenue.

The case, which will be a test case for the new by-law, is being heard in the hands of the City Solicitor, and an information has been laid.

ALDERMAN MACAULAY INVESTIGATION.
No date has yet been definitely arranged for the hearing of the charge referred by City Health Officer Dr. Irving against Alderman Macaulay. The investigation will likely take place during the evenings of next week at the supreme court, but nothing will be decided until the return of City Solicitor Beck from Calgary.

TABBED WITH AN UMBRELLA.
As the result of a quarrel between Valentine Singer and a Galician named Hikoski and his two comrades there was considerable dickered, but ultimately they secured a saw which he thought was suitable. After some discussion, however, it was not proved satisfactory. Hot words ensued, and Singer endeavored to push Hikoski out of the store. The attempt at forcible ejection resulted seriously for Singer. The Galician who was armed with a steel hand saw, made a jab at the cleric's head, and the latter, in a moment, was through his left wrist. Singer, after further parley, hastened to physician and had the wound dressed. Subsequently he laid an information at the police station, charging the Galician with assault and inflicting actual bodily harm.

The Galician retaliated with a charge of assault, and the cases are now being heard before Magistrate Wilson, who is acting in the absence of Magistrate Wade.

THROWN OFF TRAIN.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred last night at Albert, when the evening train derailed into the station, and stopping with a jerk, threw off the rear of the car two passengers who were sitting, ready to get off. These two, Mr. H. B. Dawson, the well known merchant, and Mrs. McDonald, fell under the train, but the other passengers quickly intervened and pulled them out of their perilous position. Both are reported to be doing well, but Mr. Dawson is suffering with a badly wrenched back, while Mrs. McDonald is believed to have sustained internal injuries.

STRUCK NATURAL GAS.

The Canadian-American Oil Company boring for oil at Morinville has struck a strong flow of natural gas 1-2 feet deep. The strike was made two days ago, and since that time the pressure has steadily increased. The city commissioners are invited to go to the well with a view of preparing themselves for an application which the company may make for a "natural gas" franchise.

TEACHERS ORGANIZE.

A meeting of the examiners in connection with the provincial examinations for teachers' licenses was held yesterday to consider the advisability of organizing a Provincial Teachers' Association. Mr. Wm. Ross was called to the chair and pointed out many of the benefits secured by the Territorial Teachers' Association. Mr. B. S. Jenkins also spoke in favor of organizing. After some further discussion, Mr. Parker moved, seconded by Mr. Hamilton, that the Provincial Association organized in Regina was to be continued under the name of the Alberta Provincial Teachers' Association. The motion carried, and the business of electing officers was proceeded with. The following were chosen: President, Wm. Ross, M.A., principal of Edmonton High School; principal Calgary High School; 2nd vice-president, W. A. Hamilton, principal Lethbridge school; secretary-treasurer, W. Scott, B.A., McKay avenue school, Edmonton; resolutions committee—R. S. Jenkins, M.A., principal Strathcona schools; N. E. Caruthers, principal Lacombe school; G. E. Pentland, M.A., principal Medicine Hat school; W. J. McLean, principal Red Deer school; J. A. Fife, B.A., schoolmaster Edmonton; High School.

WANTED IN CALGARY.

A young man named Arthur Carmichael, aged 22, has been arrested by Detective Griffith on a charge of theft preferred by Chief English of the Calgary force.

He is charged with having stolen money from the pocket of another man in the swimming bath at the corner of 10th and 11th streets. Carmichael will likely be taken south tomorrow.

ANOTHER REMAND FOR MIKOTA.

Before Magistrate Wilson this morning Frank Mikota being held on a charge of attempted murder of Chas. Semerak, came up for hearing. D. H. McKinnon, who is acting for the Crown prosecutor, asked for another remand until next Tuesday morning.

The further adjournment of the case was strenuously opposed by Mr. Jewell, the prisoner's counsel, but was granted by the magistrate. Mr. Jewell stated that he would apply to the Supreme Court for a mandamus, but on the assurance of the Crown that the case would be proceeded with on Tuesday, he consented to the adjournment.

STRATHCONA NEWS

LOCALS.

From Wednesday's Bulletin.
Mr. Arthur Gainer is attending the exhibition in Winnipeg this week. Miss Cora Grant has returned to the city after a two months' visit with her friends at her home in Colingwood, Ontario.

Messrs. Jenkins and McNally are at present correcting examination papers in Edmonton, and expect the work to be finished by August 1st.

Mr. John Carmichael and Alderman McKenzie are shooting at the annual territorial matches in Calgary this week.

Mr. James Connelly has moved his real estate office into the Douglas Block.

The Alberta Employment and Commission Agency have opened up an office next door to the Plaidinlet office. Mr. Ole C. Pedersen will be in charge.

There was no meeting of the council last night. Apparently this is the holiday season with the "civic fathers," as four of the seven members are out of the city: Alderman Gainer is spending a vacation in the west; Alderman McFarland and family are spending a few weeks at the coast; Alderman McKenzie is attending a shooting competition at Calgary, and Alderman Hulbert left for Vancouver yesterday.

The lawn social held yesterday evening by the young men's club of Knox Church, at the residence of Mr. H. Davis, was a great success, and a great many people attended.

Preparations were made today to block on the south side of the main street, for the laying of the granite sidewalk.

Miss Lyle, of Strathcona, is visiting friends in Lament.

The law society held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. H. Davis, a meeting, at which a great many people attended.

The new directors of the Strathcona Cemetery Company, appointed at the last meeting, are Messrs. Robert Ritchie, O. Bush and W. H. Sheppard.

D. W. Warner left yesterday afternoon for Winnipeg, where he will attend the exhibition. Mr. Warner was examined before the Beef Commission on Tuesday.

The improvement and additions being made to the Strathcona Brewery are on a large scale and will add considerably to the capacity of the buildings. Work will shortly be completed on this.

Mr. Jeremiah Daly and his family left for the coast tomorrow. Mr. Daly will reside permanently at the coast, which is drawing away so many former residents of Edmonton and Strathcona.

The isolation hospital at Richmond park has now been put in excellent working order, under the supervision of Sanitary Inspector Turnbull. At present the city is very free from infectious diseases, one case of measles only being reported.

From Friday's Bulletin.
D. H. Clark, the city secretary, treasurer and also secretary of the Agricultural Society of Strathcona, stated today that there will be no exhibition in Strathcona this year, although the published list of fairs to be held in the province this year puts Strathcona fair down for July 24. Next autumn a full day of sports and races may be arranged.

Work has been begun on the west side of Whyte avenue, between West Railway and Main streets.

A special convention of the Northern District of the Canadian Society of Equity will be held in the city hall, Edmonton, on Wednesday, July 24th, at 2 p.m. Important business is to be transacted.

A show given by a circus troupe in a tent just north of the railway station attracted a large crowd last evening. The accompanying band attracted large numbers of hearers during the afternoon and early part of the evening.

John S. Fraser has been appointed assistant immigration agent by Mr. Bennett, and will take the place of Malcolm McIntyre, who leaves for Scotland tomorrow. He will continue immigration work. Mr. McIntyre will take charge of the Canadian immigration office at Glasgow, Scotland.

CORNER STONE OF NEW CHURCH LAID.

At two o'clock Tuesday afternoon the corner stone of the new Methodist church was well and truly laid by Rev. T. C. Buchanan, superintendent of missions for the Alberta conference. Mr. Buchanan, after laying the stone, congratulated the pastor and congregation on the splendid edifice they were erecting. Dr. Riddell, president of the conference and chairman of the district, who was present, spoke along similar lines. Brief congratulatory addresses were also made by Messrs. Fleming and Bowen, of the local Presbyterian and Baptist churches respectively, and Rev. Dr. McDonald.

The stone bears the words "Metropolitan Methodist Church, 1907." The box placed in the hollow of the stone contained the following papers: Copies of the Winnipeg Free Press and Telegram, the Edmonton Bulletin and The Journal, the Strathcona Chronicle and Plaidinlet, Christian Guardian, The Epworth Era, The Missionary Outlook, The Lord's Day Advocate, Onward Pleasants Hours and other Sunday school papers. A sheet of paper was also placed in the box bearing a list of the names of the church officers as follows: Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent of the Methodist church; Rev. T. C. Buchanan, superintendent of missions for Alberta conference; Rev. Eldred, president of the conference; Rev. T. J. Johnston, the pastor; the names of the members of the church on the trustees board, the names of the members of the building committee, the names of the architects, Messrs. H. M. and W. A. Widdington, the contractor, F. C. McHardy; the contractor of the brick work, C. Sheppard; Messrs. Jenkins and McNally, the papers, Messrs. Ferguson and Gibson. A large number were present to hear the addresses and witness the ceremony.—Plaidinlet.
