

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT

VEGREVILLE.

Bulletin News Service. Thirteen teams were here this week from Whitford for brick. A new school house is being erected here, the old one now being discarded after having been in use for about fourteen years.

The Methodist and English church preachers having ceased to minister to the spiritual wants of the Hairy Hill settlement, services are being held every alternate Monday evening by W. T. Crompt, from Warwick. The school house is well filled at each service.

There has been considerable difficulty teaming from the bush these days, the trails in the vicinity of the Saskatchewan river being in bad shape.

Hairy Hill, which has been practically deserted since the beginning of the year, is now assuming its normal aspect. All the male members of the settlement have returned from the bush north of the river, where they have been engaged in the saw mills.

Messrs. Hewer and Sons got across the river with their engine last week, on route for their homestead at Soda Lake.

Quite a number of buyers are in this district at present buying stock and grain from the farmers. Wheat is being purchased at prices ranging from 70 to 80c, and 40c is being freely given for oats.

Considerable traffic is passing north from Vegreville by way of Brossard. Over a hundred teams were counted by Ben's Lake postmaster in one day recently.

The hearts of those who have stock and grain to sell is rejoicing these days as prices have been advancing every week. Mr. Silas Richardson, rancher at Ben's Lake, has a fine bunch of steers for shipment, half a dozen of which will weigh a ton each.

The bunch, on an average, will bring the owner from $75 to $80 apiece. P. M. Dobbins and family, and his two brothers, arrived from Iowa this week. They have a fine bunch of registered Polled Angus cattle. The Clarence Tillapaugh place will be their headquarters, where extensive buildings will be erected.

VEGREVILLE, MARCH 26.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN.

Bulletin News Service. Tenders are being called for the construction of a 4 1/2 foot sidewalk to be laid on the east side of Griesbach street from Dennis avenue to Inglis street and south to Row street. Work will begin as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

A meeting of the sports committee is called for Friday night to make arrangements for the Victoria Day celebration in the Fort.

Walter Elliott met with an accident on Tuesday last, while breaking a broom, which resulted in a broken collar bone. The fracture has received medical attention and Mr. Elliott is resting easily in the Queen's Hotel. It will, however, be several weeks before he is able to be around again.

Mr. John Symington, of Manville, arrived in the Fort this morning and is renewing old acquaintances. Wm. McDonald came up from Pine Creek this morning and is a guest at the Queen's Hotel. Mr. McDonald is up buying his seed oats.

Fred Sweet of Sucker Coulee was in the Fort on Wednesday on a business trip. The Eckardt Swiss Bellringers played to a fair sized audience in Simmons' Hall on Monday night and gave a very pleasant performance.

Mr. Adam Newbery of Pakan was in the Fort this week looking for his spring work. Mr. Newbery drove from Pakan and reports very bad roads.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. J. W. Shera entertained some forty of the young people of the town. The party broke up about midnight, all having enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Sheriff I. S. G. Vanzant, of Calgary, and Park Commissioner Howard Douglas of Banff came down to the Fort on Wednesday night and drove down to Elk Park on Thursday morning. Mr. Douglas being on department business.

Charles Bremner of East Clover Bar was a business visitor in the Fort today. Messrs. Baker and Verker of Bolton were in town on business.

Miss Edmonson of East Clover Bar spent the week end in the Fort visiting Mrs. Forbes, returning on Monday. Principal Parker is making arrangements whereby to organize a basketball team in connection with the school here for the coming season.

The bank building owned and formerly occupied by the local branch of the Merchants Bank was this week purchased by Mr. Paul Percier and has been removed to the head of Dennis avenue.

On Tuesday last at the house of her son, Mr. Mohr, of Beaver Hills, there occurred the death of Mrs. F. Mohr. The funeral took place on Wednesday to the cemetery of the Reformed German church and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Heinenman. There was a very large attendance of relatives and friends.

The late Mrs. Mohr was predeceased by her husband seven years. The family had come to this country some twenty years ago from Austria. Deceased had been ill for a long time and her death was not altogether unexpected, although but 68 years of age. Mrs. George Becker of Fort Saskatchewan is a daughter.

RYLEY.

Bulletin News Service. Mr. Tamney, of Ryley, has accepted a position in F. Adams' office. H. Darby is leaving town for Camrose in a few days.

Messrs. Large and Tamney entertained a few of their friends Monday evening to a musical entertainment. D. H. McLennan spent the week-end in Wetzaskiwin.

G. P. Smith, the Liberal candidate, who was elected after a hotly contested election, was given a big celebration in Camrose with bonfires and street parades.

NORTH BATTLEFORD.

Bulletin News Service. G. E. Gregory, of the department of public works, Regina, was in town on Wednesday, 26th inst., visiting his brothers, Mayor Gregory and W. A. Gregory.

A special meeting of the local board of trade met in council chamber this afternoon. The object of the meeting was to consider sending an additional delegation to Ottawa to confer with the Federal authorities regarding a railway branch north of this town and extending through the Jackfish country and terminating at Prince Albert.

It was decided to send J. O. Nolin, one of the provincial members, as delegate. D. M. Finlayson, M.L.A., is at present in Regina dealing with this matter.

P. C. Shields and K. Stevenson, Regina, of the Independent Lumber Co., Ltd., are in town on business. Miss Susan Kelly, of Detroit, Mich., arrived in town last evening. Miss Kelly has accepted a position as stenographer with the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

H. U. Vincent, of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has returned from attending a meeting of the branch at Yellow Grass. Mr. Vincent's many friends regret his departure.

WETASKIWIN.

Bulletin News Service. Mrs. James Bruce of Vegreville, who has been renewing acquaintances in this town since she was summoned home on Thursday to the bedside of her father, Margaret, who was suddenly stricken with typhoid. Mrs. Robert Gibbs, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Bruce, Miss Marjorie Campbell is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. D. Benson; Beatrice and Mrs. Harry Miller are also in town on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. V. J. James' 25th birthday.

T. W. Hoag leaves Saturday for a trip to Ontario via C.N.R. Mr. McNamara was hostess at a charming tea on Thursday for Mrs. V. C. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridout and family, of Lewisville, left on Thursday for an extended trip to Nova Scotia. Girard West returned from Vancouver on Thursday evening. Geo. Tanton, of Summerside, P.E.I., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. C. E. Compston. Mr. Tanton is bringing his family to Sedgewick where they will reside in future.

Mrs. V. C. James, who has been renewing acquaintances here, left for Medicine Hat, Friday morning, where she will join Mr. James. They will leave about April 15 for the Coast where they will make their home.

Mr. George McManus and infant daughter arrived in the Fort on Thursday. Mr. McManus met them in the city. S. B. Talbot arrived in the city a few days ago from a visit to the Western States. Mr. Talbot is a well known resident of the city.

Mrs. J. H. D. Benson was hostess at a small tea on Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Benson, of Edmonton, and Miss Marjorie Campbell.

J. E. Vandenberg, of Dayland, was in the city transacting business on Saturday. Mr. Gibbs was called to Vegreville on Friday on account of the sudden illness of his wife.

The city council has ordered a large electrical driven air compressor from the Westinghouse Company at a cost of $2,700. This will be delivered at once and on its arrival a thorough test of the waterworks system will be made. The installation of the waterworks system, this compressor will be used permanently as a part of the new pumping apparatus.

On April 2nd Professor Edwards of the department of Applied Science Alberta University, will deliver a lecture in the Angus Hall on the subject of pure water supply and disposal of sewage.

Beginning on April 1st the business hours observed at the city offices will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The annual concert given by the pupils of the Alexandra school on Friday evening was a marked improvement on the preceding years. The piano dance was another number worthy of mention as was also the "Milky White" which received J. R. Tweedie in the title role, as usual, delighted all by his impersonation of the crabbled old farmer, Paddy Franklin, made a splendid Irish milk boy, while Miss Schreifel and H. Wilson did the part of the lovers to the satisfaction of all, while Miss Moison acted the part of the neighborly widow with her usual wit and sprightly manner. The program was as follows:

Piano Solo—"Shoogy Shoo," Mrs. Terry. Vocal Solo—"Canadian Boat Song," Standard IV. Chorus—"Sike Boat Song," Standard IV.

Ride Drill—"Cadet Corps." Vocal Solo—"Shoogy Shoo," Mrs. Terry. Chorus—"Canadian Boat Song," Standard IV.

Rose Dance—Junior girls. Violin Solo—"Milky White." Two Act Drama—"Milky White." Pyramid Formation—(a) Pagoda, (b) Squash.

Chorus—"Wetaskiwin School." Maple Leaf, and God Save the King. Wetzaskiwin, March 30.

NORTH BATTLEFORD.

Bulletin News Service. H. H. Kingsley, of Krieger & Kingsley, spent Saturday in town on business. The "Swiss Bell Ringers" performed in the Empire Hall, Saturday evening to a full house.

William Codd, Payntor, spent Saturday in town. H. Maher, who for some years has been carrying on a general mercantile business here, made a sale of his stock and plant to Percy W. Shera. Mr. Maher will assume the management of the business at once.

M. Tanton went west on Saturday's express. Dr. Shepley, who was re-examined in connection with a shot time, is at present located at Heddison. Charles Fauset, merchant, Denholm, is in town on business.

At services in the Methodist church, on Sunday evening The Swiss Bell Ringers gave vocal solos.

D. McMillan, who spent the winter months in town has gone south to Wilkie, where he is interested in property. North Battleford, March 30.

Bulletin News Service. The trustees of the Manly School District have decided to again open school as soon as a teacher can be engaged.

The snow has nearly disappeared, leaving mud in its place, and wheels are gradually superseding the runners along the road. Last week the various stopping places at Manly were taxed to their utmost to accommodate the freighters and their teams passing through here, but this week they are dropping off somewhat.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. James Reid and family, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker and family, visited the saw setting mill on six miles west. They also drove to Wabamun. The saw mill is now at Mr. Woods'.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Byden and family visited Mrs. Hamblin in Ryegate last Sunday. James Reid is digging a well. He has gone down 30 feet but has not yet struck water.

Thomas Daykin, assisted by his brother Ernest, is building a new house. Now that Mr. McPherson has been returned to the city, it is expected that something will soon be done to improve the government road, as it is in a very bad condition. The work was stopped last fall before there was time to finish grading the hills or make it fit for hauling heavy loads.

Bertha Miller and her two brothers have returned from Riviere Qui Barre, where they were visiting. Manly, March 30.

HEATON MOOR.

Bulletin News Service. It is with the deepest regret we have to announce the death of Mrs. Henry Newton, which took place on March 22nd. Mrs. Newton had only been ill for a few days and her sudden death came as a great shock to the community. Much sympathy is felt in the neighborhood for Mr. Newton in his bereavement.

Mr. Collard has his new house nearly completed and moved in this week. Mr. Thomson is busy preparing to build a new house this spring. Mr. Latam has purchased the farm known as the Smith place, west of S. Otevel's.

BLACKFALDS.

(Bulletin News Service.) Mr. R. H. Trout returned home Saturday from a three months visit to the States. He is bringing back with him Miss Ada Brown, nurse, returned to her home in Calgary Monday. She has been nursing in Blackfalds for about seven weeks.

Mr. Talbot arrived with a car of stock and household goods from Kansas on Saturday. Mr. Talbot is a well known resident of the city.

S. S. Candlin, of Bullockville, was in town on Saturday. Rev. Hanson and family are moving to Blackfalds. Rev. Hanson is the Swedish Lutheran minister.

Mr. Marks on Wednesday last, a son. Mrs. Allison, of Valley City, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Capron, this week.

The Blackfalds and Lake Side hockey matches in the morning. Wednesday night resulted in a victory for Lake Side. The score was 6 to 2.

IRMA.

(Bulletin News Service.) Many new buildings are nearing completion in Irma. Among which are Melbourn's Bros. general store. The International warehouses, the new butcher shop and last but not least, the first hotel which is being erected by Henderson Bros.

On Wednesday, March 10, they gave a social evening in the new building under the auspices of the International warehouses. Games and dancing were indulged in until nearly dawn, when all left for their homes.

H. Westbrook who had the misfortune to lose his collar bone, is out again, able to attend to his business.

Mr. Barber has returned from Ontario with his bride. The Literary Club held a social evening on Friday last. After playing cards the Rev. Leslie with a purse containing a good sum, the balance of the evening was spent in games and dancing.

The bounty on wolves and coyotes coupled with the better price of fur, is counting in this vicinity. A party with two stag hounds has killed 22. Irma, March 30.

RYLEY.

(Bulletin News Service.) The elections passed off quietly, but energetic work was the order of the day. Out of a total of 124 electors, 81 voted. Five received 8 and Holden 81. The rejected were 2 and not marked 1. The Liberals are very proud of this record and the opposition man has once more subsided.

Ray Field of Vegreville was in town Friday last gathering up ballot boxes brought down for the Holden landslide.

Seven lots have started to change hands. The Ryley Land Co. has sold for L. B. McKenzie lot 24, block 10, to Mr. Thomas, lot 33, block 7 to Anderson Bros.

Anderson Bros. will move their new barn to a new location and the old one will be one block nearer the centre of the town. R. H. Tamney has closed his real estate office and accepted a position in Camrose. He leaves on Wednesday to take up the new duties.

Miss Crowe is confined to the hospital. School is closed for the present. Miss L. R. Clapp left on Tuesday to spend a short time in Alberta College, Edmonton.

Charles Kitzick left for his home in Iowa on Friday. He was accompanied by Mr. Wm. Hirt, of Vegreville, general agent for the International Harvesting Co. who is in town Thursday transferring that company's business to a new management.

On Tuesday evening April 6th, the ladies of the Lutheran church around Thule school will hold a cup social in the Ryley school house.

On Tuesday evening April 6th, the ladies of the Lutheran church around Thule school will hold a cup social in the Ryley school house.

On Wednesday evening the third social evening of the Literary Society was held at the home of Thomas Vance. The society was at home to the members of the Brookville Glee Club. An enjoyable time was spent in games and music.

The meeting of the society on April 2nd will be held at the home of Matt Swaddle, the subject of the evening will be "Canadian Authors and Poets."

Arrangements are being completed with regard to a debate between the A.L.S. and the Homewood Glee Club. On Friday evening the first social event of a public character was held in the store, when the "Willing Workers of East Clover Bar" gave a box social.

A large crowd was present and a very enjoyable time was spent by the society. The program was given, Mr. Horton sold the boxes by auction. The highest price paid for a box was $5, and the box that went for that price carried the Canadian flag on top.

The proceeds amounted to something over $200. The splendid program was given, Mr. Horton sold the boxes by auction. The highest price paid for a box was $5, and the box that went for that price carried the Canadian flag on top.

Mr. Langmaid is busy engaged at his new store and post office on the banks of the Paddle River. He has also built a bridge at this place. Mossie, March 28.

TOFIELD.

(Bulletin News Service.) The most disastrous fire that has as yet occurred in Tofield, took place early Saturday morning destroying three business blocks and putting several families temporarily out of business. Kennedy Bros. general merchants, are the heaviest losers, they being the occupants of the building which was destroyed.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.

Mr. Pickstone has vacated Martin street. Mr. and Mrs. Wren, with a toilet companion as a token in recognition of his faithful service in the school.