Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the whole history of medical discoveries no remedy has performed so many and such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the throat, lungs and chest, as this long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptoms of pulmonary complaint.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From the Rev. Francis Lohel, Pastor of the South Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Connecticut: "I consider it a duty which I owe to suffering humanity to bear testimony to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have used it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for coughs, colds, or sore throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very lame on Saturdays, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad misgivings, but by a liberal use of the Balsam my lameness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty. I commend it to my brethren in the ministry, and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy for the bronchial troubles to which we are peculiarly exposed." Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

Grace's Celebrated Salve.

From Mr. E. Tucker, Depot Master at Salisbury, Mass.: "I have been troubled for years with a bad humor; sometimes outwardly and sometimes inwardly. During the past summer it manifested itself more than usual outwardly, and I used your Salve. All signs of it have since disappeared, without affecting me inwardly, indicating, I think, the curative nature of the Salve." Sold by Druggists at 25c. a box. Sent by mail for 25 cents. SETH W. FOWLE & SON, Boston, Prop's.
