With a field of thirteen, the best 2-year-old colts in the west, it was a fitting inauguration of one of the best stakes upon the American turf. "Umbrella Bill' McGuigan carried off the prize, and when his brown colt Bannockburn passed under the wire he showed his heels to a field of the very best 2-year-olds of the west. Howland and Bangle were his only competitors, and they finished behind him because they were inferior colts. To Morrison, as much as Bannockburn, belongs the credit of victory. Having been set down for alleged incompetency, which precipitated the fight of McGuigan before the Turf Congress with which the fore the Turf Congress with which the turf world is familiar, Morrison's ride and finish on Bannockburn clearly disproved any charge respecting his capacity as a jockey. Bannockburn, who was third at the last sixteenth, was brought up between Howland and Bangle, and cleared the riding on a bicycle from Calumet to line safely with a half length to the good, while Bangle beat out the former peerless Howland by the same distance.
